the international arena call for a connective mindshift a shift from information control and dominance to skilled relationship management Leading international scholars and practitioners embark on a forward looking exploration of creative conceptual frameworks training methods and case studies that advance relational networking and collaborative strategies in public diplomacy Light on academic jargon and rich in analysis this volume argues that while relationships have always been pivotal to the practice of public diplomacy the relational dynamics are changing Rather than focus on specific definitions the contributors focus on the dynamic interplay of influence in the public diplomacy environment That environment includes state and non state actors public and private partners competitors and collaborators new and old media and is conditioned by power ethics and cultures This book is an essential resource to students and practitioners interested on how to build relationships and transform them into more elaborate network structures through public communication It will challenge you
