The Politics of the Headscarf in the United States Bozena C. Welborne, Aubrey L. Westfall, Özge Çelik Russell, Sarah A. Tobin, 2018-05-15 Investigates the social and political effects of the practice of Muslim women wearing a headscarf or hijab

The Oxford Handbook of American Islam Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Jane I. Smith, 2014 In this volume 30 of the field's top scholars examine historical and contemporary aspects of American Islam and explore the meaning of religious identity in the context of race ethnicity gender and politics

The Racial Muslim Sahar F. Aziz, 2021-11-30 Foreword by John Esposito Introduction When American racism quashes religious freedom The color of religion Racialization of Jews Catholics and Mormons in the twentieth century From Protestant to Judeo Christian the expansion of American whiteness Social construction of the racial Muslim American orientalism and the Arab terrorist trope Fighting terrorism not religion Officiating Islamophobia Criminalizing Muslim identity The future of the racial Muslim and religious freedom in America Conclusion

Converting to Islam Amy Melissa Guimond, 2017-06-16 This text aims to discover the shared lived experiences of white American female converts to Islam in post 9 11 America It explores the increasingly hostile social climate faced by Muslim Americans as well as the spiritual social physical and mental integration of these women into the Muslim American population In the United States rates of conversion to Islam are rapidly increasing alongside Islamophobic sentiment and hate crimes against Muslims For a period of time there was a lull in this negative sentiment However in light of the Paris terror attacks the increased prominence of ISIS ISIL and the influx of refugees from Syria anti Muslim rhetoric is once again on the rise This volume analyzes how a singular collection of female converts have adapted to life in the United States in the shadow of 9 11

The Cambridge Companion to American Islam Juliane Hammer, Omid Safi, 2013-08-12 The Cambridge Companion to American Islam offers a scholarly overview of the state of research on American Muslims and American Islam The book presents the reader with a comprehensive discussion of the debates challenges and opportunities that American Muslims have faced through centuries of American history This volume also covers the creative ways in which American Muslims have responded to the myriad serious challenges that they have faced and continue to face in constructing a religious praxis and complex identities that are grounded in both a universal tradition and the particularities of their local contexts The book introduces the reader to some of the many facets of the lives of American Muslims that can only be understood in their interactions with Islam's entanglement in the American experiment

American Heretics Peter Gottschalk, 2024-05-01 In the middle of the nineteenth century a group of political activists in New York City joined together to challenge a religious group they believed were hostile to the American values of liberty and freedom Called the Know Nothings they started riots during elections tarred and feathered their political enemies and barred men from employment based on their religion The group that caused this uproar Irish and German Catholics then known as the most villainous religious group in America and widely believed to be loyal only to the Pope It would take another hundred years before Catholics threw off these xenophobic accusations and joined the American mainstream The idea that the United States is a stronghold of religious freedom is central to our identity as a nation and utterly at odds with the historical record In American Heretics historian Peter Gottschalk traces the arc of American religious discrimination and shows that far from the dominant protestant religions being kept in check by the separation between church and state religious groups from Quakers to Judaism have been subjected to similar patterns of persecution Today many of these same religious groups that were once regarded as anti thetical to American values are embraced as evidence of our strong religious heritage giving hope to today s Muslims Sikhs and other religious groups now under fire The Fear of Islam, Second Edition Todd H.

Green,2019-09-03 The Fear of Islam investigates the context of Western views of Islam and offers an introduction to the historical roots and contemporary anxiety regarding Islam within the Western world Tracing the medieval legacy of religious polemics and violence Green orients readers to the complex history and issues of Western relations to Islam from early and late modern colonial enterprises and theories of Orientalism to the production of religious discourses of otherness and the clash of civilizations that proliferated in the era of 9 11 and the war on terror In this second edition Green brings the reader up to date examining the Islamophobic rhetoric of the 2016 US presidential election and the ongoing success of populist and far right parties in Europe Green provides updated data on the rise of anti Muslim legislation for example the Muslim ban in the United States and a wave of full face veil bans in Europe as well as the rise in anti Muslim hate crimes on both sides of the Atlantic since 2015 This important book is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand current views of Islam and to work toward meaningful peace and understanding between religious communities Relational Formations of Race Natalia Molina,Daniel Martinez HoSang,Ramón A. Gutiérrez,2019-02-05 Relational Formations of Race brings African American Chicanx Latinx Asian American and Native American studies together in a single volume enabling readers to consider the racialization and formation of subordinated groups in relation to one another These essays conceptualize racialization as a dynamic and interactive process group based racial constructions are formed not only in relation to whiteness but also in relation to other devalued and marginalized groups The chapters offer explicit guides to understanding race as relational across all disciplines time periods regions and social groups By studying race relationally and through a shared context of meaning and power students will draw connections among subordinated groups and will better comprehend the logic that underpins the forms of inclusion and dispossession such groups face As the United States shifts toward a minority majority nation Relational Formations of Race offers crucial tools for understanding today s shifting race dynamics Transmodern Literatures in the 21st Century Claus-Peter Neumann,Pilar Royo-Grasa,2025-09-30 Transmodern Literatures in the 21st Century Of f Limits offers an in depth examination of how transmodern literatures in English over the last two decades have addressed the phenomenon of the limit The 14 chapters that make up the volume examine how geographical racial ethnical sociocultural generical ontological epistemological and other limits are articulated transgressed and reconfigured in recent narratives by authors writing in a wide variety of transmodern trends such as Afro and Africanfuturism Young Adult feminist science fiction food fiction air travel fiction the networked novel and future narratives amongst others They thereby expose and challenge hierarchised binary dichotomies as Euro and Anthropocentric exclusionary discursive constructs that have kept non hegemonic voices off limits To counter the detrimental effects of the neoliberal grand narrative of globalisation the chapters as well as the narratives of the limit they analyse emphasise an urgent need for inclusiveness relationality and communality

The Complexity of Religious Inequality Melissa Wilde, 2021-04-27 Although scholars of religion acknowledge religion's deep interconnectedness with race and ethnicity in and occasionally class we nonetheless typically study religion as a factor that is independent from other social structures Likewise we rarely systematically examine class race or gender differences between or within religious groups This journal issue will highlight research that moves beyond these weaknesses by publishing papers that intentionally examine aspects of inequality as they relate to religion Papers that explore these connections historically or in contemporary times and internationally or locally are all encouraged Islam, Securitization, and US Foreign Policy Erdoan A. Shipoli, 2018-05-08 This book argues that Islam has been securitized in US foreign policy especially during the W Bush administration when it was increasingly portrayed as the ultimate other This securitization was realized through the association of Islam with unique security threats in speeches of foreign policy and national security By analyzing the four recent US presidents discourses on Islam this work sheds light on how they viewed Islam and addresses the following questions How do we talk about Islam its place and relationship within the context of US security How does the language we use to describe Islam influence the way we imagine it How is Islam constructed as a security issue

The Myths That Made America Heike Paul, 2014-08-15 This essential introduction to American studies examines the core foundational myths upon which the nation is based and which still determine discussions of US American identities today These myths include the myth of discovery the Pocahontas myth the myth of the Promised Land the myth of the Founding Fathers the melting pot myth the myth of the West and the myth of the self made man The chapters provide extended analyses of each of these myths using examples from popular culture literature memorial culture school books and every day life Including visual material as well as study questions this book will be of interest to any student of American studies and will foster an understanding of the United States of America as an imagined community by analyzing the foundational role of myths in the process of nation building
