Finding St. Paul in Film Richard Walsh, 2005-11-07 Paul goes to the movies and finds himself Zelig like in many contemporary films     A Commentary on St. Paul's Epistles to the Corinthians Joseph Agar Beet, 1882     Images, Iconoclasm, and the Carolingians Thomas F. X. Noble, 2012-02-25 In the year 726 C E the Byzantine emperor Leo III issued an edict declaring images to be idols forbidden by Exodus and ordering all such images in churches to be destroyed Thus commenced the first wave of Byzantine iconoclasm which ran its violent course until 787 when the underlying issues were temporarily resolved at the Second Council of Nicaea In 815 a second great wave of iconoclasm was set off only to end in 842 when the icons were restored to the churches of the East and the iconoclasts excommunicated The iconoclast controversies have long been understood as marking major fissures between the Western and Eastern churches Thomas F X Noble reveals that the lines of division were not so clear It is traditionally maintained that the Carolingians in the 790s did not understand the basic issues involved in the Byzantine dispute Noble contends that there was in fact a significant Carolingian controversy about visual art and if its ties to Byzantine iconoclasm were tenuous they were also complex and deeply rooted in central concerns of the Carolingian court Furthermore he asserts that the Carolingians made distinctive and original contributions to the whole debate over religious art Images Iconoclasm and the Carolingians is the first book to provide a comprehensive study of the Western response to Byzantine iconoclasm By comparing art texts with laws letters poems and other sources Noble reveals the power and magnitude of the key discourses of the Carolingian world during its most dynamic and creative decades     The complete works of Richard Sibbes, ed. with mem. by A.B. Grosart Richard Sibbs, 1863     The Complete Works of Richard Sibbes, D.D.: A Christian's portion; or, the Christian's charter Richard Sibbes, 1863     The Lutheran Standard , 1974     Image, Word and God in the Early Christian Centuries Mark Edwards, 2016-05-13 Christianity proclaims Christ and the incarnate word of God the Bible is described as the Word of God in both Jewish and Christian tradition Are these usages merely homonymous or would the ancients have recognized a more intimate relation between the word incarnate and the word proclaimed This book investigates the concept of logos in pagan Jewish and Christian thought with a view to elucidating the polyphonic functions which the word acquired when used in theological discourse Edwards presents a survey of theological applications of the term Logos in Greek Jewish and Christian thought from Plato to Augustine and Proclus Special focus is placed on the relation of words to images in representation of divine realm the relation between the logos within reason and the logos without speech both in linguistics and in Christology the relation between the incarnate Word and the written text and the place of reason in the interpretation of revelation Bringing together materials which are rarely synthesized in modern study this book shows how Greek and biblical thought part company in their appraisal of the capacity of reason to grasp the nature of God and how in consequence verbal revelation plays a more significant role in biblical teaching Edwards shows how this entailed the rejection of images in Jewish and Christian thought and how the manifestation in flesh of Christ as the living word of God compelled the church to reconsider both the relation of word to image and the interplay between the logos within and the written logos in the formulation of Christian doctrine

Behold the Man! Don Touchton, 2013-06-21 Scripture says three times to Behold look intently upon Jesus The first is the beginning of his ministry when John the Baptist exclaimed Behold the Lamb of God John 1 36 Another is when none in heaven or earth is qualified to take the little book the title deed to the earthly kingdoms from the hand of Him sitting on the throne the Apostle John is told Behold the Lion of the tribe of Judah Rev 5 5 The third is when Pilate after finding no fault in Jesus presented him before his accusers saying Behold the Man John 19 5 Beholding the Lamb we see the sacrificial Lamb that atones for sin Beholding the Lion we see the sovereign King that will make all things new Beholding the Man we see the second Adam who lived a perfect life among us Knowing about this man's humanity is as important as knowing about the other two aspects of his being So what kind of a man was Jesus This book introduces the reader to the individual his contemporaries saw while relying only on the Gospels as the source materials His contemporaries saw someone quite different from the person modern Christians imagine him to be The biblical Jesus was much more robust than contemporary teachers portray him Due to incorrect even disingenuous teaching the modern church presents a witness that is less robust than was the case in previous generations We need to behold the real biblical Jesus because The disciple is not above his master but every one that is perfect shall be as his master Luke 6 40 KJV
