Kenyatta University 2014 2015 Timetable:

Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2015 Alexander W. Wiseman, Emily Anderson, 2016-01-08 The goal of the ARCIE volume is to examine current perspectives and future directions for the field using several essays as a context for discussion and analysis The Responsibility to Protect and the International Criminal Court Serena Sharma, 2015-12-22 This book provides an account of how the responsibility to protect R2P and the International Criminal Court ICC were applied in Kenya In the aftermath of the disputed presidential election on 27 December 2007 Kenya descended into its worst crisis since independence The 2007 08 post election crisis in Kenya was among the first situations in which there was an appeal to both the responsibility to protect and a responsibility to prosecute Despite efforts to ensure compatibility between R2P and the ICC the two were far from coherent in this case as the measures designed to protect the population in Kenya undermined the efforts to prosecute perpetrators This book will highlight how the African Union sponsored mediation process effectively brought an end to eight weeks of bloodshed while simultaneously entrenching those involved in orchestrating the violence Having secured positions of power politicians bearing responsibility for the violence set out to block prosecutions at both the domestic and international levels eventually leading the cases against them to unravel As this book will reveal by utilising the machinery of the state as a shield against prosecution the Government of Kenya reverted to an approach to sovereignty that both R2P and the ICC were specifically designed to counteract This book will be of interest to students of the Responsibility to Protect humanitarian intervention African politics war and conflict studies and IR Security Studies in general Handbook of Speech-Language Therapy in Sub-Saharan Africa Ulrike M. Lüdtke, Edward Kija, Mathew Kinyua Karia, 2023-02-03 This book synthesizes research on language development and communication disability in Sub Saharan Africa and highlights best practices for providing speech and language therapy services to individuals with language communication and hearing disorders across the lifespan The book brings together a wide range of international contributions from various disciplines such as speech language pathology audiology developmental psychology language education social work neurology neuropsychology pediatrics linguistics pedagogy and phonetics to provide perspectives on problems challenges ideas concepts and models to serve the people in Sub Saharan Africa Key areas of coverage include Challenges for speech language therapists in the health sector Community awareness and the sustainable delivery of services Culture specific support of communication and language development in early childhood Malnutrition dysphagia feeding difficulties pediatric HIV and related issues Communication disability treatments including assessment and intervention augmentative and alternative communication AAC and issues specific to bilingualism and biliteracy Inclusive education of children with communication disorders with case studies from Rwanda Tanzania Kenya and South Africa The Handbook of Speech Language Therapy in Sub Saharan Africa is an essential reference for researchers professors and graduate students as well as clinicians therapists and other professionals in developmental psychology speech language pathology and therapy social work neuropsychology pediatrics special education community based rehabilitation and all related disciplines Handbook of Cultural Studies and Education Peter Pericles Trifonas, Susan

Jagger, 2018-11-15 The Handbook of Cultural Studies in Education brings together interdisciplinary voices to ask critical questions about the meanings of diverse forms of cultural studies and the ways in which it can enrich both education scholarship and practice Examining multiple forms mechanisms and actors of resistance in cultural studies it seeks to bridge the gap between theory and practice by examining the theme of resistance in multiple fields and contested spaces from a holistic multi dimensional perspective converging insights from leading scholars practitioners and community activists Particular focus is paid to the practical role and impact of these converging fields in challenging rupturing subverting and changing the dominant socio economic political and cultural forces that work to maintain injustice and inequity in various educational contexts With contributions from international scholars this handbook serves as a key transdisciplinary resource for scholars and students interested in how and in what forms Cultural Studies can be applied to education Higher Education Leadership and Governance in the Development of the Creative and Cultural Industries in Kenya Akuno, Emily, Ondieki, Donald Otoy, 2017-05-05 The role of higher education in establishing structures and procedures in society and industry is clearly articulated in scholarly discussions The narrative has recently taken a new momentum in Kenya with acknowledgement of the creative industry involves many youth as an area that impacts on the economy In unravelling the link between higher education and industry the authors focus on leadership and governance in higher education and its expected and perceived contribution to the shaping of the creative industry Through analysis of cases the authors interrogate the processes and structures that govern the teaching and practice of the creative subjects noting how these affect the creative industry in Kenya This book approaches the creative disciplines from the perspectives of the students lecturers and university administrators The three voices provide a balanced view of what higher creative arts education in Kenya is The multiple authorship of the book further provides a balanced account of the development of these disciplines in higher education and their growth in industry The key concepts here are the development of the creative industry and how higher education should contribute to the same The Corruption Cure Robert I. Rotberg, 2019-08-06 Corruption corrodes all facets of the world's political and corporate life yet until now there was no one book that explained how best to battle it Here Rotberg puts some 35 countries under an anti corruption microscope to show exactly how to beat back the forces of sleaze and graft 24 Topic-wise CLAT & AILET (2013 - 2024) Previous Year Solved Papers 7th Edition | Common Law Admission

Exploring Consensual Leadership in Higher Education Lynne Gornall,Helen M. Gunter,Brychan Thomas,Lucy Sweetman,Jon Nixon,Tanya Fitzgerald,2020-01-23 Exploring Consensual Leadership in Higher Education explores the idea that the nature of academic work is both creative and consensual Higher education relationships whether between managers staff learners or the public sphere are at their most effective when rooted in partnership teamwork collaboration and collegiality The term consensual is used because it situates new leadership models as structures based on consent reflecting tacit traditions in education alongside ideas of leadership in other settings including emerging industries The aim is to celebrate achievements encourage engagement opportunities and add to the problem solving knowledge base However issues and problems in participatory engagement are also considered and the borderlines between consensus collective assent and agreement and dissensus widespread serious disagreement are examined critically The contributors offer a range of alternative perspectives on leadership reflecting the diverse forms and ways of working practised in different national higher educational contexts and cultural settings The volume incorporates a variety of approaches and points of view including stories of leadership and change innovation projects and case studies key interviews and insights and collective team writing Performances of Justice Gabrielle Lynch, 2018-08-30 How and why did Kenya's transitional justice efforts fail and what does this say about the persistence of the past Music Traditions, Change and Creativity in Africa Giorgio Adamo, Alessandro Cosentino, 2019 In February 2014 an international seminar on musical dynamics and creativity in Africa was held at Tor Vergata University of Rome The topic and the approach were strongly influenced by issues that Gerhard Kubik believed should have been addressed for a long time such as the attention to cultural and social dynamics with a specific emphasis on the creativity of individuals Beside his keynote address Music Traditions Change and Creativity in Africa includes the contributions presented by scholars from different countries particularly active in the East African area and in dialogue with Italian researchers who have field experience in the same region Music Traditions Change and Creativity in Africa is the first monograph of a series of volumes connected and inspired to the journal Etnografie Sonore Sound Ethnographies www.soundethnographies.it which Giorgio Adamo and his colleagues recently founded Along with the papers multimedia contents are also available online

The Athletic Experience at Historically Black Colleges and Universities Billy Hawkins, Joseph Cooper, Akilah Carter-Francique, J. Kenyatta Cavin, 2015-08-01 Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs are valuable institutions that provide intellectual domains for racial uplift racial refuge and cultural empowerment within a continually polarized nation Today's current racial climate reminds us of the historical context that gave birth to HBCUs and segregated athletic experiences While the sporting life at HBCUs is an integral part of these institutions mission there is a dearth of research about HBCU athletics In The Athletic Experience at Historically Black Colleges and Universities Past Present and Persistence leading scholars from across the nation present a holistic examination of the integral role sports have played at HBCUs Chapters in this volume cover a range of topics from HBCU Football Classics to economics It begins with a historical overview of HBCUs and the early sporting life before delving into the experiences of today's male and female student athletes including the unique perspectives of athletes who transferred from historically White colleges and universities to HBCUs Other chapters examine economic issues at HBCUs such as the financial viability of their athletic departments in the context of the larger NCAA economic framework and recommendations for the future of HBCU athletics to restore both academic and athletic excellence at these institutions An important addition to the existing literature on race in contemporary society

this volume provides a narrative of the Black experience from the historical origins of educating Blacks their early athletic experiences and the current state of athletics at HBCUs The Athletic Experience at Historically Black Colleges and Universities is a significant contribution to the debate on college athletics and higher education in general and athletics at HBCUs specifically It is a must read for sport studies scholars and students sport management practitioners and sport enthusiasts of the inter workings of athletics and the HBCU experience The Gut-Brain Axis Niall Hyland, Catherine Stanton, 2016-05-13 The Gut Brain Axis Dietary Probiotic and Prebiotic Interventions on the Microbiota examines the potential for microbial manipulation as a therapeutic avenue in central nervous system disorders in which an altered microbiota has been implicated and explores the mechanisms sometimes common by which the microbiota may contribute to such disorders Focuses on specific areas in which the microbiota has been implicated in gut brain communication Examines common mechanisms and pathways by which the microbiota may influence brain and behavior Identifies novel therapeutic strategies targeted toward the microbiota in the management of brain activity and behavior Kenyan Youth Education in Colonial and Post-Colonial Times Peter Otiato Ojiambo, 2017-08-03 This book examines Joseph Kamiru Gikubu s impact on Kenyan youth education The author asserts that over his decades long career Gikubu played an active role in not only building and improving Kenyan youth education but also in demonstrating the role educational institutions play in imparting nation building skills Gikubu s educational contributions were wide ranging and include both practical and theoretical aspects of education through his works in various juvenile rehabilitation programs and youth clubs as well as his insights on youth education and school leadership Through Gikubu s educational work this volume interrogates Kenya s educational development transformation and entailed challenges The book fills the gap in the dearth of African centered educational biographies and their role in shaping Africa s social political and economic spheres in both the colonial and post colonial period It also addresses emerging scholarship in African educational biographies div
