United States Air Force Academy United States Air Force Academy, NL ARMS Netherlands Annual Review of Military Studies 2019 Wim Klinkert,Myriame Bollen,Marenne Jansen,Henk de Jong,Eric-Hans Kramer,Lisette Vos,2019-07-16 This book has as its subject matter the academic education of officers and builds on the signing of the Bologna Declaration in 1999 by twenty nine European ministers for Education and Science who thereby agreed to coordinate higher education across Europe by for instance the implementation of the Bachelor s and Master s system In the meantime military academies have also introduced the BaMa system into their programs for officers education which marks a transition from the old days when officers education took place within a national military system under military command and was firmly grounded in principles traditions and needs as professed by the Ministries of Defence and the armed forces in particular So the Bologna Declaration can be seen as crucial leverage for the development of in house academic degree programs as a fundamental part of officers education With this volume the editors of NL ARMS 2019 strive to offer a platform to both academics and military and civilian practitioners as well as to combinations of these to reflect and share their thoughts on officers education before and after Bologna both in The Netherlands and abroad To this end controversies and challenges affecting various

aspects and systems of officers education have been grouped into five themes. Respectively the first four themes comprise institutional settings and change educational philosophy, educational challenges and reflective practices and didactical solutions. The fifth theme international perspectives provides insights into the strategic environments and challenges faced by sister academies as well as ways to further officers education across Europe such as offered by Erasmus programs. All the editors of this year's volume are affiliated with the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda, The Netherlands. Wallace, 2024. Teacher scholars of the long eighteenth century consider teaching in this historical moment. Essays link eighteenth century content with pedagogical approaches that engage contemporary students as developing scholars. Authors reflect on what it is that we do when we teach how our pedagogies can be more meaningful, more impactful and more relevant. Published by Bucknell University Press. Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press. Undergraduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn, 1989 Resources in Education, 1998 Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2008-10-26. This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers. Based in practice and experience, it offers systematic support and open, honest advice for new teachers; is conversational, not pedantic, and provides lots of examples. While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before, this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter, especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms. It puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why, includes new essays on the politics of social studies education, responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book. Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre-service social studies methods courses, this text is also useful for in-service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice.
