Kenya Universities September Intake 2015:

Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style

Food Safety in Low and Middle Income Countries Delia Grace, Bassirou Bonfoh, Hung Nguyen-Viet, Barbara Häslar, 2024-02-23 Foodborne diseases FBD are an important externality of agriculture and food systems but only recently have they risen up the development agenda as the result of growing awareness of the health and economic burdens of FBD and how they relate to food systems with a focus on low income and middle income countries LMIC particularly African nations The health burden of FBD is comparable with that of malaria and over 90% falls on people in LMIC with an economic burden of more than US 100 million per year FBD have many other less well estimated effects on nutrition gender equity and the environment While understanding of food safety in domestic markets of LMICs has advanced greatly risk management is in its infancy This Research Topic will bring together leading regional perspectives on food safety in LMICs mentors allies and inclusivity inspiring future generations in academia and beyond Contributors are Nur Diyanah Anwar Miguel Baique Nina Bascia Kathy Bickmore Jinny Menon Elizabeth Monta o Newton Asakhulu Mukolwe R Nanre Nafziger Yecid Ortega Crystena A H Parker Shandal Rosaisela Rodriguez Janel Janiczek Smith and Zora Wolfe Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization Iddah Aoko Otieno,2018-06-20 This book presents a comprehensive institutional level analysis of a single public institution of higher education in the Republic of Kenya using the case study method of investigation It is the first case study to use both qualitative and quantitative research methodology to illuminate the experiences of Kenyan public universities with internationalization post independence Focusing on Kenya s oldest national public university the University of Nairobi s experimentation with internationalization Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization is a first in the East African region The book argues that attempts by institutions of higher education in Africa to engage in internationalization with the much more older and well established IHEs in the developed world has perpetuated the colonial legacy that has relegated these institutions to the position of the Other in the new international order Several policy implications are offered on what it means to participate in internationalization from a marginal peripheral position The conventional assumption that political independence would bring to most African countries and by extension their national public universities a period of freedom from political economic and cultural subjugation and exploitation by the more powerful world nations has proved elusive This book is intended for a broad audience in the field of Comparative International Education The mixed research methods used in this book will certainly appeal to instructors students and general readers interested in understanding the experiences of historically marginalized developing World institutions of higher education with internationalization Governance and Christian Higher Education in the African Context David K. Ngaruiya,Rodney L. Reed,2019-02-14 Integrity pastoral care and authority lie at the heart of Christian leadership and indeed following Jesus in any capacity and they are also critical in state governance and Christian higher education The articles in this book the product of the 2017 conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology address these themes and other topics relating to the spheres of government and education in Africa to enhance our understanding of the challenges faced in African contexts A wide range of Christian scholar leaders provide a way forward for other church and institutional leaders who are seeking to faithfully fulfill their responsibilities of stewardship and instruction Corruption civil disobedience good governance and formation of Christian leaders are matters that are becoming increasingly relevant not only in many African countries but across the world and this book is a valuable resource for thoughtful reflection and guidance on these important subjects Really Good Schools James Tooley,2021-04-12 Almost overnight a virus has brought into question America s nearly 200 year old government run K 12 school system and prompted an urgent search for alternatives But where should we turn to find them Enter James Tooley s Really Good Schools A distinguished scholar of education and the world s foremost expert on private low cost innovative education Tooley takes readers to some of the world

s most impoverished communities located in some of the world s most dangerous places including India and such war torn countries as Sierra Leone Liberia and South Sudan There in places where education experts fear to tread Tooley finds thriving private schools that government multinational NGOs and even international charity officials deny exist Why Because the very existence of low cost high quality private schools shatters the prevailing myth in the U S U K and western Europe that absent government affordable high quality schools for the poor could not exist But they do And they are ubiquitous and in high demand Founded by unheralded local educational entrepreneurs these schools are proving that self organized education is not just possible but flourishing often enrolling far more students than free government schools do at prices within reach of even the most impoverished families In the course of his analysis Tooley asks the key questions What proportion of poor children is served How good are the private schools What are the business models for these schools And can they be replicated and improved The evidence is in In poor urban and rural areas around the world children in low cost private schools outperform those in government schools And the schools do so for a fraction of the per pupil cost Ubiquity affordability quality value for money equity choice and sustainability these are the seven categories by which schooling should be judged according to Tooley In every instance one is forced to conclude that low cost non governmental entrepreneurial education as practiced by the poor around the globe contains the key to their rise to prosperity and leadership positions within their own respective cultures Alarmed by recent government barriers in education Americans can now find hope in the triumph in the face of acute adversity of these remarkable schools Because of the pandemic parents in America and Europe are discovering that the education of their children is indeed possible and likely far better without government meddling with rigid seat time mandates outdated school calendars absurd age driven grade levels and worse testing regimes And having experienced the first fruits of educational freedom parents will be increasingly open to the possibilities of ever greater educational entrepreneurship and innovation Thankfully they have Really Good Schools to show the way

Science Research and Education in Africa Alain L. Fymat, Joachim Kapalanga, 2017-03-07 For various economic and political reasons many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development However the presence of intellectual islands scattered across the continent gives hope that this is only a transient situation on the cusp of undergoing a profound and beneficial change For this reason the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to catalyse and contribute to this needed evolution Its mission is to contribute to Africa s economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s third annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science research and education in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education epidemic diseases with high mortality promoting women s interest in science careers fostering youth development with science education The collection illustrates how

although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science research and education in Africa

Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel M. Mbah, 2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women s career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa

Governance and Transformations of Universities in Africa Fredrick. M. Nafukho, Helen M. A. Muyia, Beverly Irby, 2014-06-01 While universities world over are undergoing reforms and change in the case of African universities as illustrated in this book the reforms and changes are profound and can best be described as transformative This book is unique in many ways which makes it extraordinary First unlike other books that have examined issues on higher education in Africa from externalist positions the contributors to this book are scholars who have been educated are currently teaching in African universities or have taught in African universities The book specifically focuses on transformations in the governance of African universities and its implications on equity entrepreneurship innovation quality assurance information and communication technologies ICTs and reform issues in higher education in Africa The book presents pertinent research on governance in African universities in an experiential and empirical manner The contributors of the book chapters include individuals actively involved in teaching researching and governance of higher education institutions in Africa The chapters are based on empirical data including review of relevant literature The book also recognizes that university governance is more than just crisis in financial or economic issues but includes best management practices shared governance meaningful reforms strategic planning consultation transparency and accountability client students lecturers parents and the public satisfaction as well as the role of the university in development The contributions take cognizance of the fact that governance as a concept is facing fundamental changes in the context of global knowledge economy and African local conditions Contributors also take cognizance of the fact that one important source of change in Africa has been the accelerating speed of scientific and technological advancement in learning at universities where lifelong learning programs adult learning programs distance and online learning are relatively new The chapters are also sensitive to new changes in gender demographical technological education reforms social and economic transformations in the governance of African universities The book is basically an academic book for use by undergraduates and graduate students at universities policy

Oliver, 2022-11-08 The Fourth industrial Revolution 4IR is forcing higher education HE into a new era where it must either actively and positively contribute to innovation sustainability and development or become obsolete and redundant HE must leave its ivory tower and forge links and partnerships with society industry and governing bodies by delivering graduates that are holistically educated and trained to bring positive innovation and change and to address the challenges that humanity is facing in the 21st century Contemporary Challenges to Human Rights Law Richard Lang, Jack Clayton

Thompson, Claire-Michelle Smyth, 2020-04-30 This collection of essays highlights the many problems and challenges facing human rights law today Bringing together academics practitioners and NGOs it examines some of the contemporary challenges facing human rights law and practice in England Northern Ireland the Republic of Ireland France and America It is clear that we live in a time where human rights are in crisis A decade of austerity measures at the domestic regional and international levels evidently has had a detrimental effect on the protection of human rights Cuts to social spending have resulted a failing social welfare system a health service buckling under pressure unprecedented rises in homelessness and child poverty and the emergence of the working poor and zero hours contracts Austerity famine civil war oppressive governmental regimes and climate change have seen vast migrations resulting in a resurrection of far right wing ideology In the UK this is seen in what can only be described as propaganda and scaremongering during the campaign for Brexit and in subsequent political elections evidenced by the increase in racially motivated hate crime within the UK The landscape of human rights is such that it has resulted in some beginning to question are human rights rights at all The Refugee Crisis and Religion Luca Mavelli, Erin Wilson, 2016-12-01 The current refugee crisis sweeping Europe and much of the world closely intersects with largely neglected questions of religion Moving beyond discussions of religious differences what can we learn about the interaction between religion and migration Do faith based organisations play a role within the refugee regime How do religious traditions and perspectives challenge and inform current practices and policies towards refugees This volume gathers together expertise from academics and practitioners as well as migrant voices in order to investigate these interconnections It shows that reconsidering our understanding and approaches to both could generate creative alternative responses to the growing global migration crisis Beginning with a discussion of the secular religious divide and how it shapes dominant policy practices and counter approaches to displacement and migration the book then goes on to explore and deconstruct the dominant discourse of the Muslim refugee as a threat to the secular Christian West The discussion continues with an exploration of Christian and Islamic traditions of hospitality showing how they challenge current practices of securitization of migration and concludes with an investigation of the largely unexplored relation between gender religion and migration Bringing together leading and emerging voices from across academia and practice in the fields of International Relations migration studies philosophy religious studies and gender studies this volume offers a unique take on one of the most pressing global problems of our time Discourses of Globalisation and Higher Education Reforms

Joseph Zajda, W. James Jacob, 2022-03-15 This book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change The book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and higher education reforms
