Bending the Bow Frank M Chipasula, 2009-08-05 From the ancient Egyptian inventors of the love lyric to contemporary poets Bending the Bow An Anthology of African Love Poetry gathers together both written and sung love poetry from Africa This anthology is a work of literary archaeology that lays bare a genre of African poetry that has been overshadowed by political poetry Frank Chipasula has assembled a historically and geographically comprehensive wealth of African love poetry that spans more than three thousand years By collecting a continent's celebrations and explorations of the nature of love he expands African literature into the sublime territory of the heart Bending the Bow traces the development of African love poetry from antiquity to modernity while establishing a cross millennial dialogue The anonymously written love poems from Pharaonic Egypt that open the anthology both predate Biblical love poetry and reveal the longevity of written love poetry in Africa The middle section is devoted to sung love poetry from all regions of the continent These great works serve as the foundation for modern poetry and testify to love poetry's omnipresence in Africa The final section showcasing forty eight modern African poets celebrates the genre's continuing vitality Among those represented are Muyaka bin Hajji and Shaaban Robert two major Swahili poets Gabriel Okara the innovative though underrated Nigerian poet Leopold Sedar Senghor the first president of Senegal and a founder of the Negritude Movement in francophone African literature Rashidah Ismaili from Benin Flavien Ranaivo from Madagascar and Gabele Baderoon from South Africa Ranging from the subtly suggestive to the openly erotic this collection highlights love's endurance in a world too often riven by contention Bending the Bow bears testimony to poetry's role as conciliator while opening up a new area of study for scholars and students

Skollie John Fredericks, 2017-09-01 In 2016 South African film audiences were mesmerised by the film Noem My Skollie which was written by and based on the life of John W Fredericks In this book Fredericks tells the full story on which the film was based Growing up in a dusty township on the Cape Flats Fredericks formed a gang with his friends and at the age of seventeen he was arrested for robbery and sentenced to two years in Pollsmoor prison A number of gangs vied to initiate him into their ranks but he resisted their advances offering instead to help them push their time by telling stories And so he became the prison cinema drawing on his storytelling abilities and cementing his ambition to become a writer Life after prison became a nightmare when he was arrested for a murder he hadn't committed his childhood friends were sentenced to die on the gallows and a gang boss tried to kill him Slowly he turned his life around getting a job and building a family but society kept judging him as a gangster Struggling to deal with his past he turned to storytelling again and painstakingly learnt the art of scriptwriting The result was Noem My Skollie which was watched by almost 90 000 people and won numerous awards Written in a powerful and authentic voice Skollie is a gripping memoir of life on the Cape Flats of prison and gangs and of one man's struggle to survive all this by telling stories South African Theatre Journal ,1989 Who's who of Southern Africa ,2006 Vols for 1967-70 include as a section Who's who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1985 Catalogue of Copyright Entries ,1916-07 Catalogue of Copyright Entries ,1917 American Map Road Atlas American Map Corporation,2005-08-15 This atlas with digital cartography details North America including city vicinity maps national park maps and an adventure travel section to help you plan vacations The Illustrated London News ,1866 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
