e-Infrastructure and e-Services for Developing Countries Tegawendé F. Bissyandé, Gertjan van Stam, 2014-08-13 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 5th International Conference on e Infrastructure and e Services for Developing Countries AFRICOMM 2013 held in Blantyre Malawi in November 2013 The 32 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 94 submissions The papers discuss issues and trends recent research innovation advances and on the field experiences related to e governance e infrastructure and e business with a focus on developing countries

I WILL TRY David Kamtima Mzembe, 2013-03-15 A Globalised Individual Each time I review my humble beginnings in the northern shores of Malawi I can't help but see a long and torturous yet rewarding journey through life Long and torturous because many tedious and risky trips to various parts of the world were involved and rewarding because the journeys involved exciting and enlightening experiences I suppose the most rewarding outcome from the journeys is my having become a globalized individual This spiritual and intellectual maturation is as much the result of my experience with the diversity of humanity across the globe as it is the result of my unrelenting pursuit of secular and spiritual education Yet my role in the fight against a dictatorship and poor human rights conditions in Malawi didn't play an insignificant role in my personal growth Therefore the history of my personal growth is a history of world travel secular education and many solicitous trips into my inner space As a globalized individual not only am I free of all forms of prejudice I am also capable of a world embracing vision that extends well into the future of humanity I am thus open minded and a believer in peace and unity at all levels of the world community Moreover I am a lover of God people and nature a disposition of spirituality and freedom Thus because I love I am free Birth Reflections and childbirth was ever a matter exclusive to the world of women Even today no male is allowed to attend a traditionally supervised birth and no male apart from the father is allowed to see the newly born child until the ritual of showing the baby out a couple of weeks later is complete Although modern hospitals and clinics encourage men to witness the birth of their children most men don't feel free to attend in fear of lifting the perceived sacredness surrounding child birth Fighting Upon Arrival My generation in Malawi was fated to face successive life battles that would threaten on multiple fronts from day one Right from birth we faced inadequate nutrition poverty and disease It was only by nature's design that our infantile entry into battle with our adversaries did accelerate our defences against them Another battle we were born into was to retain our cultural identity and political independence in the face of a foreign government over us The fight for freedom brought turmoil and fear into my growth environment and the fight protracted into my early years so that I actually experienced its heat then It was rather unfortunate that soon after independence from Britain and before we could find our own voice in the world community of nations we had to enter another battle against home grown autocracy and repression a battle that my generation would own and which would exile me It was the fight against autocracy and repression that saw me on the frontline of the political and diplomatic offensive against the regime of Dr Banda in Malawi Thus this story is about my life at the centre of all those life battles especially the battle against dictatorship in Malawi a fight that kept me in exile for an extended period of time

Politicizing Sex in Contemporary Africa Ashley Currier,2019 This timely account of politicized homophobia contests portrayals of the African continent as hopelessly homophobic highlighting how elites deploy it

The Oxford Handbook of the Malawi Economy Hopestone Chavula,Thomas Chataghalala Munthali,Harold P. E. Ngalawa,Boniface Dulani,2024-08-28 The Oxford Handbook of the Malawi Economy is an essential reference material with new research contributions and insights across the different areas of economic development to shape the country s future growth and development trajectory The volume is the first publication that tries to assess the performance of the Malawi economy since independence by examining how the underpinning political and economic history and the associated policies and strategies have affected the country s long term socio economic development It captures a broad range of opinions approaches and conclusions which serve to underline both the complexity of the issues and challenges facing Malawi and the immense difficulties in tackling them Common themes emerge as many authors agree that the country needs to learn from its past experiences in terms of policy design and implementation and the need to implement dynamic policies that could spur productive and sustained growth and development by tackling challenges associated with the continuously evolving global economic environment

UNESCO on the Ground Michael Dylan Foster,Lisa Gilman,2015-10-12 For nearly 70 years the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO has played a crucial role in developing policies and recommendations for dealing with intangible cultural heritage What has been the effect of such sweeping global policies on those actually affected by them How connected is UNESCO with what is happening every day on the ground in local communities Drawing upon six communities ranging across three continents from India South Korea Malawi Japan Macedonia and China and focusing on festival ritual and dance this volume illuminates the complexities and challenges faced by those who find themselves drawn in different ways into UNESCO s orbit Some struggle to incorporate UNESCO recognition into their own local understanding of tradition others cope with the fallout of a failed intangible cultural heritage nomination By exploring locally by looking outward from the inside the essays show how a normative policy such as UNESCO s intangible cultural heritage policy can take on specific associations and inflections A number of the key questions and themes emerge across the case studies and three accompanying commentaries issues of terminology power struggles between local national and international stakeholders the value of international recognition and what forces shape selection processes With examples from around the world and a balance of local experiences with broader perspectives this volume provides a unique comparative approach to timely questions of tradition and change in a rapidly globalizing world

State party reporting and the realisation of children's rights in Africa Remember Miamingi,2020-01-01 About the publication Human rights norms will largely remain hollow if they are not translated into the lived realities of people on the ground Given the diversity and complexities of human rights norms the arrays of institutions mechanisms and resource required to give full effect to these norms implementation of human rights norms is a continuous and progressive undertaking Progress to be meaningful should have milestones and mechanisms for tracking it The reporting mechanisms are human rights monitoring and evaluation plans and systems to track progressive implementation This book provides an assessment of the reporting mechanisms of child rights treaty bodies It highlights what is working or not working and why making recommendations for further improvement of the reporting mechanism to better work for children in Africa The findings and recommendations in the book are based on a study commissioned by the Centre for Human Rights to assess the effects of reporting to United Nations and African Union child rights treaty bodies on the enjoyment of rights protection and welfare of children in Africa It covers 17 African countries and provides a historical snapshot of the situation as at the end of 2017 Routledge Handbook of Contemporary African Women Anna Chitando,Eunice Kamaara,Ezra Chitando,2024-12-31
