Paul Bocking

2014 Ela Mosl Rubric:

Race, Equity, and Education Pedro Noguera, Jill Pierce, Roey Ahram, 2015-11-14 This powerful and timely analysis takes stock of race and education sixty years after the historic Brown vs Board of Education decision This volume examines education as one of the most visible markers for racial disparities in the US as well as one of its most visible frontiers for racial justice Featuring original research educators insights and perspectives from communities of color it documents the complex impact of social educational policy on social progress Chapters on charter schools curriculum content performance measurement and disproportionalities in special education referrals shed light on entrenched inequities that must be confronted The book also makes it clear that leveling the playing field calls for not only better schools but also addressing pervasive social problems such as poverty and housing segregation Included in the coverage School Policy is Housing Policy Deconcentrating Disadvantage to Address the Achievement Gap Charter Schooling Race Politics and an Appeal to History The Data Quality Movement for the Asian American and Pacific Islander community an unresolved civil rights issue Critical Ethnic Studies in High School Classrooms Academic Achievement via Social Action Mexican American Educational Stagnation The Role of Generational Status Parental Narratives and Educator Messages pp Pinpointing crucial issues and opportunities for solutions Race Equity and Education has immediate salience for educators and researchers studying the intersection of race and education

Public Education, Neoliberalism, and Teachers Paul Bocking, 2020-04-20 From pressure to teach to the test and the use of quantitative metrics to define education quality to the rise of school choice and the shift of principals from colleagues to managers teachers in New York Mexico City and Toronto have experienced strikingly similar challenges to their professional autonomy By visiting schools and meeting teachers government officials and union leaders Paul Bocking identifies commonalities that are shaping how teachers work and public schools function While arguing that neoliberal education policy is a dominant trend transcending the realities of school districts states or national governments Bocking also demonstrates the importance of local context to explain variations in education governance especially when understanding the role of resistance led by teachers unions
