Bolaño,2015-07-16 Roberto Bola o s own preferred literary persona was as a poet and Tres is his most inventive and bracing collection As the title implies the collection is composed of three sections Prose from Autumn in Gerona a cinematic series of prose poems slowly reveals a subtle and emotional tale of unrequited love by presenting each scene shattering it and piecing it all back together over and over again The second part The Neochileans is a sort of On the Road in verse which narrates the travels of a young Chilean band on tour traveling north from Chile to Peru and Ecuador Finally the collection ends with a series of short poems that take us on A Stroll Through Literature reminding us of Bola o s masterful ability to walk the line between the comically serious and the seriously comical Queer Exposures

Ryan Long,2021-04-20 Roberto Bola o 1953 2003 stands out among recent Latin American writers because of his unique combination of critical acclaim popularity and literary significance Queer Exposures analyzes two central but understudied topics in Bola o s fiction and poetry sexuality and photography Moving beyond a consideration of how his texts represent these topics Ryan F Long demonstrates that when considered in tandem they form the basis for a new innovative and critical approach Emphasizing the processes of exposure associated with photography and sexuality especially queer sexuality provides readers and scholars with a versatile method for comprehending Bola o s constellation of texts With close readings of a broad range of texts from poetry written just after his arrival in Spain in the late 1970s to his posthumously published novels Queer Exposures concludes that an emphasis on sexuality and photography is essential for understanding how Bola o s texts function in dialogue with one another to elucidate and critique the interrelations of writing visual representation and power Roberto Bolaño, a Less Distant Star
