The Tin Drum /by Gunter Grass ; Translated from the German by Ralph Manheim Günter Grass, 1963 Günter Grass and His Critics Siegfried Mews, 2008 A comprehensive narrative overview and analysis of the criticism of the controversial German author's works When the Swedish Academy announced that Günter Grass had been awarded the 1999 Nobel Prize for Literature it singled out his first novel The Tin Drum 1959 English translation 1963 as a seminal work that had signaled the postwar rebirth of German letters auguring a new beginning after decades of linguistic and moral destruction Nearly fifty years after its publication the novel's significance has been generally acknowledged it is the uncontested favorite among Grass's works of fiction on the part of reading public and critics alike yet its canonical status tends to obscure the decidedly mixed and even hostile reactions it initially elicited Along with The Tin Drum Grass's impressive body of literary work since the 1950s has spawned a cottage industry of Grass criticism making a reliable guide through the thicket of sometimes contradictory readings a definite desideratum Siegfried Mews fills this lacuna in Grass scholarship by way of a detailed but succinct descriptive as well as analytical and evaluative overview of the scholarship from 1959 to 2005 Grass's politically motivated interventions in public discourse have kept him highly visible blurring the boundaries between politics and aesthetics Mews therefore examines not only academic criticism but also the daily and weekly press and other news media providing additional insight into the reception of Grass's works Siegfried Mews is Professor of German at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and voice This comparative study reveals that through intertextuality with the European fairy tale tradition the picaresque novels of Rabelais and Grimmshausen and through an array of carnivalesque figures Grass creates an irrational counterculture opposed to the rationalism of Nazi science and its obsession with racial hygiene while simultaneously exposing the continuity of this destructive rationalism in postwar Germany and the absurdity of a Stunde Null that putative tabula rasa of 1945

The personification of history in Günter Grass' The Tin Drum Frank Mangione,2002     Günter Grass and the Genders of German Memory Timothy Bruce Malchow,2021

The first book to examine the connection between gender and memory in Grass s oeuvre which is especially timely in light of current concerns about male privilege

G nter Grass 1927 2015 was a fixture at the heart of German cultural life a self styled spokesman of the Kulturnation cultural nation who imagined it linking him to canonical male literary figures and their authority He was also the object of valid feminist criticism a rigid conception of gender permeates his works belying his professed skepticism toward ideologies

A heterosexual male Grass lent his representative persona a natural veneer by appropriating his era s gendered discursive constructs including Heimat the Bildungsroman and narratives about German wartime victims and perpetrators Such appropriation elevated his remembering artist s masculinity above that of the status quo s defenders and exploiters of memory

This book is the first to evaluate the connection between gender and memory in Grass s oeuvre and its legacy in light of current concerns about male privilege It highlights his breakthrough novel The Tin Drum 1959 and his memoir Peeling the Onion 2006

The former establishes the gendered persona that Grass would develop in subsequent decades to relate contemporary issues to Nazi era memories The latter reclaims the novel s autobiographical material but fails to account for his decades long silence about having served in the Nazi Waffen SS Instead it foregrounds his mourning for his mother allowing for a more personal reading of his oeuvre and its gendered imagery of current concerns about male privilege
