Afghanistan Transition Under Threat Studies In International Governance:

Mainstreaming the Tribal Areas (ex-FATA) of Pakistan Bordering Afghanistan Asghar Khan, 2022-08-23 The book addresses why the Pakistani state is facing persistent challenges in extending and consolidating its governance authority throughout its territories especially in the former Federally Administered Tribal Areas ex FATA Even after the de jure merger the question still remains valid that how Pakistani state could establish its governance in these tribal areas Through multi dimensional approaches and multi pronged analysis of state centric top down society centric bottom up and state in society mixed horizontal approaches the book explains factors and dimensions that pose challenges to Pakistani state governance in ex FATA The main hypothesis is that societies where state governance is absent turn to informal governance and create informal institutions as a substitute for the weak central state governance thereby challenging the domination and control authority of the state The book presents policy recommendations for bringing these tribal areas into the mainstream governance system of Pakistan

Poppies, Politics, and Power James Tharin Bradford, 2019-06-15 Historians have long neglected Afghanistan s broader history when portraying the opium industry But in Poppies Politics and Power James Tharin Bradford rebalances the discourse showing that it is not the past forty years of lawlessness that makes the opium industry what it is but the sheer breadth of the twentieth century Afghanistan experience Rather than byproducts of a failed contemporary system argues Bradford drugs especially opium were critical components in the formation and failure of the Afghan state In this history of drugs and drug control in Afghanistan Bradford shows us how the country moved from licit supply of the global opium trade to one of the major suppliers of hashish and opium through changes in drug control policy shaped largely by the outside force of the United States Poppies Politics and Power breaks the conventional modes of national histories that fail to fully encapsulate the global nature of the drug trade By providing a global history of opium within the borders of Afghanistan Bradford demonstrates that the country s drug trade and the government s position on that trade were shaped by the global illegal market and international efforts to suppress it By weaving together this global history of the drug trade and drug policy with the formation of the Afghan state and issues within Afghan political culture Bradford completely recasts the current Afghan and global drug trade

Afghanistan Geoffrey Hayes, Mark Sedra, 2008-10-10 By the fall of 2008 seven years after the fall of the Taliban regime the future of Afghanistan s post conflict transition looks more uncertain than ever Driving this uncertainty is a security environment that has steadily deteriorated with each passing year creating a level of instability even greater in Iraq according to some indicators However insecurity is not the only dilemma that has threatened to undercut Afghanistan s transition to peace and stability Problems of corruption and poor service delivery in the state coupled with the failure of the internationally supported reconstruction process to improve the quality of life for so many Afghans trapped in grinding poverty has begun to erode public confidence in the new political order has seen the beginning of a considerable shift in the global balance of power. Major international governance challenges can no longer be addressed without the ongoing co-operation of the large countries of the global South: Brazil, Russia, India, China, South Africa, ASEAN states and Mexico wield great influence in the macro-economic foundations upon which rest the global political economy and institutional architecture. It remains to be seen how the size of the emerging powers translates into the ability to shape the international system to their own will. In this book leading international relations experts examine the positions and roles of key emerging countries in the potential transformation of the G8 and the prospects for their deeper engagement in international governance. The essays consider a number of overlapping perspectives on the G8 Heiligendamm Process, a co-operation agreement that originated from the 2007 summit and offer an in-depth look at the challenges and promises presented by the rise of the emerging powers. Co-published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation.

Emerging Powers in Global Governance Andrew F. Cooper, Agata Antkiewicz, 2010-10-30 The early twenty first century

From Civil Strife to Peace Building Hany Besada, 2011-04-07 From Civil Strife to Peace Building examines peace building efforts in the fragile West African states of Sierra Leone, Liberia and Côte d'Ivoire with a focus on the role of the private sector in leading the reconstruction initiatives. Given that aid and debt relief, the traditional remedies for dependency and underdevelopment, have not been effective, the private sector is increasingly viewed as a major player in the revival of regional economies. Private sector support, however, requires government intervention to improve investment climates, curb corruption, strengthen the security sector and reduce the cost of doing business. The contributors discuss ways in which West African governments can encourage the greater involvement of business in humanitarian support with incentives that demonstrate alignment with business objectives and profit margins, making humanitarian support simple and more importantly profitable and sustainable for both local and foreign investors. Co-published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI).

The Oxford Handbook of Global Drug History Paul Gootenberg, 2022 This landmark collection of essays by thirty-five historians working on a global scale brings together the latest knowledge and perspectives about the long origins and transformations of today's illicit drugs such as cannabis, heroin and cocaine.

From Desolation to Reconstruction Mokhtar Lamani, Bessma Momani, 2010-10-26 Iraq's streets are unsafe, its people tormented and its identity as a state challenged from within and without. For some, Iraq is synonymous with internal hatred, bloodshed and sectarianism. The contributors to this book, however, know another Iraq: a country that was once full of hope and achievement and that boasted one of the most educated workforces in its region, a cosmopolitan, secular society with a great tradition of artisans, poets and intellectuals. The memory of that Iraq inspired the editors of this volume to explore Iraq's current struggle. The contributors delve into the issues and concerns of building a viable Iraqi state and recognize the challenges in bringing domestic reconciliation and normalcy to Iraqis. From Desolation to Reconstruction: Iraq's Troubled Journey examines Iraq's reality after the 2003 US-led invasion. It begins by relating Iraq's modern social and political history prior to the invasion and then outlines the significant challenges of democratization and the creation of an Iraqi constitution.

Implementing the World Intellectual Property Organization's Development Agenda Jeremy de Beer, 2009-04-24 The newly adopted World Intellectual Property Organization WIPO Development Agenda presents a real opportunity to revolutionize the international governance of intellectual property law and policy The litmus test for its success however will be if and how the agenda is implemented in practice This edited collection brings together a series of incisive essays written by leading thinkers from emerging economies Canada and elsewhere to develop concrete strategies for implementing the agenda The essays cover a range of fundamental issues surrounding the agenda and examine its recommendations from multidisciplinary and multi regional perspectives Several essays explore the role of WIPO and its member states in steering the direction of future reform as well as potential approaches to achieve this goal Other contributions examine specific recommendations on WIPO s activities within the broader context of development This volume will be a useful source of reference for informed but non expert readers including government officials and delegates at international and capital levels leaders of the international business community individuals in inter and non governmental organizations and scholars in the fields of law and international governance Co published with the International Development Research Centre and the Centre for International Governance Innovation American Democracy Promotion in the Changing Middle East Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2013 The US invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq were packaged as democracy promotion as heralding the beginning of a new phase in the politics of the Middle East when democracy would replace authoritarian regimes Many of these authoritarian regimes however were sustained by US support Contested Terrain Sally L Kitch, 2014-10-30 Sally L Kitch explores the crisis in contemporary Afghan women s lives by focusing on two remarkable Afghan professional women working on behalf of their Afghan sisters Kitch s compelling narrative follows the stories of Judge Marzia Basel and Jamila Afghani from 2005 through 2013 providing an oft ignored perspective on the personal and professional lives of Afghanistan s women Contending with the complex dynamics of a society both undergoing and resisting change Basel and Afghani speak candidly and critically of matters like international intervention and patriarchal Afghan culture capturing the ways in which

immense possibility alternates and vies with utter hopelessness Strongly rooted in feminist theory and interdisciplinary historical and geopolitical analysis Contested Terrain sheds new light on the struggle against the powerful forces that affect Afghan women's education health political participation livelihoods and quality of life The book also suggests how a new dialogue might be started in which women from across geopolitical boundaries might find common cause for change and rewrite their collective stories Afghanistan Geoffrey Hayes, Mark Sedra, 2009-08-04 Many have questioned the wisdom of the international intervention in Afghanistan in light of the escalation of violence and instability in the country in the past few years Particularly uncertain are Canadians who have been inundated with media coverage of an increasingly dirty war in southern Afghanistan one in which Canadians are at the frontline and suffering heavy casualties However the conflict is only one aspect of Afghanistan's complicated and incomplete political economic and security transition In Afghanistan Transition under Threat leading Afghanistan scholars and practitioners paint a full picture of the situation in Afghanistan and the impact of international and particularly Canadian assistance They review the achievements of the reconstruction process and outline future challenges focusing on key issues like the narcotics trade the Pakistan Afghanistan bilateral relationship the Taliban led insurgency and continuing endemic poverty This collection provides new insight into the nature and state of Afghanistan's post conflict transition and illustrates the consequences of failure Co published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation The Global Promise of Federalism Grace Skogstad, David R. Cameron, Martin Papillon, Keith Banting, 2013-12-31 The Global Promise of Federalism honours the life and work of Richard Simeon one of Canada's foremost experts on federalism It features a group of distinguished scholars of federalism from Canada and abroad who take up some of the fundamental questions at the heart of both Simeon's work and contemporary debates Does federalism foster democracy Can it help bring together divided societies How do federations evolve and adapt to changing circumstances In the course of answering these questions the chapters in this collection offer a comparative perspective on the challenges and opportunities facing well established federations such as Canada and Australia as well as new federal and quasi federal systems in Europe Africa and Asia They examine the interplay between federal values such as trust and mutual recognition and institutional design the challenges facing post conflict federations and the adaptability of federal systems in the face of changing social economic and cultural contexts State Formation After Civil War Derek M Powell, 2016-08-05 State formation after civil war offers a new model for studying the formation of the state in a national peace transition as an integrated national phenomenon Current models of peacebuilding and state building limit that possibility reproducing a fragmented selective view of this complex reality Placing too much emphasis on state building as design they place too little on understanding state formation as unplanned historical process The dominant focus on national institutions also ignores the role that cities and civic polities have played in constituting the modern state Mining ideas from many disciplines and evidence from 19 peace processes including South Africa the book argues that the starting point for building a systematic theory is to explain a distinct pattern to state formation that can be observed in practice Despite their conflicts people in fragile societies bargain terms for peaceful coexistence they make attempts to constitute the right to rule as valid state authority in circumstances prone to conflict over which they have imperfect influence not control Though the kind of institutions created will differ with context how rules for state authority are institutionalized follows a consistent basic pattern That pattern defines state formation in peace transitions as both a unified if contingent field of normative practice and an object of comparative study Where the national centric models see local government as a matter belonging to policy on decentralization for later in the reconstruction phase the book uncovers a distinct local government dimension to peace transitions A civic dimension to national conflicts that must be explained incipient or proto local authorities that emerge even during civil war in peace making after state collapse the fact that it is common for peace agreements and constitutions to include rules for local authority for local elections to be held as part of broader democratization and for laws to be enacted to establish local government as part of peace compacts The book develops the concept of local peace transition to explain the distinctive constitutive role of this local dimension in peace making and state formation This path breaking book will be of compelling interest to practitioners scholars and students of comparative constitutional studies international law peace building and state building

Whose Army? Afghanistan's Future and the Blueprint for Civil War Musa Khan Jalalzai, 2014-03-01 As Western troops withdraw from Afghanistan the Afghan National Army ANA has been tasked with securing the country Having broken the system that was in place the US and NATO are now leaving Afghanistan to face Taliban elements criminal warlords and private militias which disrupt any efforts to pull the nation together Yet the ANA arose under foreign tutelage and will remain dependent upon foreign support for the foreseeable future Thus it can only be seen by the majority of Afghans as a legacy of the occupation and not a national institution The ANA is shrinking by the day Musa Khan Jalalzai focuses primarily on the ANA's ability to carry out the task it has been assigned ensuring security in Afghanistan Along the way the author covers a wide spectrum of topics the current state of the Afghan National army ANA Taliban infiltration intelligence failures the intelligence war among various nations and alliances NATO US UK ISAF green on blue attacks and the rise of war criminals heading private militias which present the biggest challenge to the reorganization of State institutions Department of Defense Appropriations for 2011 United States.
