and Persian modernist poetry in both form and content the book takes up works from key poets including the Iraqis Badr Shakir al Sayyab and Abd al Wahhab al Bayati and the Iranians Nima Yushij Ahmad Shamlu and Forough Farrokhzad Tea Poetry and Tea Tao in Song Dynasty Jie Huang, 2025-09-26 This book systematically explores the tea culture in the tea poetry of the Song Dynasty comprehensively presents the style of tea Tao in the Song Dynasty and presents the relationship between tea Tao and the creation of tea poetry in the Song Dynasty greatly expanding the literary resources for the study of tea Tao and coming up with new findings including the conclusion that tea art and tea Tao are one and the same as the former constitutes the essence of the latter Tea Tao is a crystallization of Chinese culture which underwent broader and more profound development during the Song Dynasty It has inherited the achievements of ancient Chinese thoughts and incorporated the new developments of Taoist and Zen Buddhist thoughts in the medieval period showcasing the characteristics of the nation and the time The cultivated personality of tea people is rooted in the vast land and traditional culture of China which has defined the formation of tea Tao and the creation of tea poetry Empathy in Contemporary Poetry after Crisis Anna Veprinska, 2019-12-31 This book examines the representation of empathy in contemporary poetry after crisis specifically poetry after the Holocaust the September 11 2001 terrorist attacks and Hurricane Katrina The text argues that recognizing both the possibilities and dangers of empathy the poems under consideration variously invite and refuse empathy thus displaying what Anna Veprinska terms empathetic dissonance Veprinska proposes that empathetic dissonance reflects the texts struggle with the question of the value and possibility of empathy in the face of the crises to which these texts respond Examining poems from Charlotte Delbo Dionne Brand Niyi Osundare Charles Reznikoff Robert Fitterman Wisawa Szymborska Cynthia Hogue Claudia Rankine Paul Celan Dan Pagis Lucille Clifton and Katie Ford among others Veprinska considers empathetic dissonance through language witnessing and theology Merging comparative close readings with interdisciplinary theory from philosophy psychology cultural theory history and literary theory and trauma studies this book juxtaposes a genocide a terrorist act and a natural disaster amplified by racial politics and human disregard in order to consider what happens to empathy in poetry after events at the limits of empathy Words and Silence Thérèse Lentfoehr, 1979 Perceptions born of her friendship with Merton over the course of nearly three decades are shared in Sister Therese Lentfoehr's analysis of the entire corpus of the late Trappist monk's poetry The Cambridge Companion to English Poets Claude Julien Rawson, 2011-01-27 This volume provides essays by twenty nine leading scholars and critics on the best English poets from Chaucer to Larkin Spanish Hebrew Poetry and the Arabic Literary Tradition Arie Schippers, 1994 This work deals extensively with the Arabic themes and literary devices used by Hebrew Andalusian poets in 11th century Muslim and Christian Spain Special interest is devoted to the four main poets of the Hebrew Golden Age in Spain namely Samuel Ha Nagid Solomon Ibn Gabirol Moses Ibn Ezra and Yehuda Ha Lewi The Nature of Kingship Kathryn Dyt, 2024-12-31 The Nature of Kingship is an innovative exploration of dynastic power and the environment in nineteenth century Vietnam It offers important insights into Vietnamese kingship by delving into the intricate workings of the Nguyen court and its interactions with the natural world Weaving together a rich array of sources including official histories royal poetry astrological manuals geography texts and provincial gazetteers Kathryn Dyt vividly demonstrates how Nguyen governance and court hierarchies were intertwined with a powerful agentive and emotional weather world a world inhabited by ecological actors such as rain wind land and skies While previous narratives have often faulted Nguyen rulers for being aloof and detached from their surroundings this new study considers how Nguyen dynastic rule was in fact highly responsive to its setting and sensitive to the environment It shows that Nguyen kings were not static inert individuals cut off from the world but rather were intensely engaged with their environment and its cosmological and spiritual dimensions Placing kings in the thick of lived experience in a land perceived to be alive and responsive to human incantations prayers and pleas this account demonstrates how Nguyen rulers consolidated their authority through displays of superior weather knowledge and modes of affective rule rooted in reciprocal emotional resonance with the weather world The king's exemplary affective responsiveness to the weather was central to his preeminence and it was a means by which the court validated its power within Vietnam's extensive social field Exploring kingship from phenomenological perspectives this wide reaching study addresses diverse forms of court engagement with the environment including the observation of astronomical and meteorological phenomena divination practices rainmaking rituals travel through the kingdom the writing of environmental histories and imperial poetry Writing the Nation John C. Hawley, John Charles Hawley, 1996 The fourteen essays in this volume contribute significantly to a consideration of the interplay between nation and narration that currently dominates both literary and cultural studies With the fervent reassertion of tribal domains throughout the world and with the consequent threat to the stability of a common discourse in putative countries once mapped and subsequently dominated by colonizing powers the need for such studies becomes increasingly obvious Whose idea of a nation is to prevail throughout these postcolonial territories whose claims to speak for a people are to be legitimized by international agreement amid the demands of patriotic rhetoric what role may be allowed for individual expression that attempts to transcend the immediate political agenda who may assume positions of authority in defining an ethnic paradigm such are the questions variously addressed in this volume The essayists who here contribute to the discussion are students of the various national literatures that are now becoming more generally available in the West The range of topics is broad moving globally from the Caribbean and South America through the African continent and on to the Indian subcontinent and moving temporally through the nineteenth century and into the closing days of our twentieth We deal with poetry fiction and theoretical writings and have two types of reader in mind We hope to introduce the uninitiated to the breadth of this expanding field and we hope to aid those with a specialized knowledge of one or other of these literatures in their consideration of the extent to which post colonial writing may or may not form a reasonably unified field We seek to avoid the new form of colonialism that might impose a theoretical template to these quite divergent writings falsely rendering it all accessible and familiar At the same time we do note questions and concerns that cross borders whether these imagined lines are spatial temporal gendered or racial

Poetry & Geography Neal Alexander, David Cooper, 2013 Collected critical essays examine contemporary poetry in terms of cultural geography Key themes are place and identity literary cartographies walking as trope and spatial practice the poetics of edges margins and peripheries landscape language and form Saskatchewan Writers University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 The more than 175 biographies in this volume together tell the story of writing in Saskatchewan As David Carpenter notes in his Introduction to the volume The writers whose lives are told in these pages are part of an extraordinary cultural community that has touched and been touched by the people and landscape of this province

Heat, a History On Barak, 2024-08-27 Shifts the conversation from abstract global warming to the deeply human impacts of heat and how our efforts to keep cool have made the problem worse Despite the flames of record breaking temperatures licking at our feet most people fail to fully grasp the gravity of environmental overheating What acquired habits and conveniences allow us to turn a blind eye with an air of detachment Using examples from the hottest places on earth Heat a History shows how scientific methods of accounting for heat and modern forms of acclimatization have desensitized us to climate change Ubiquitous air conditioning shifts in urban planning and changes in mobility have served as temporary remedies for escaping the heat in hotspots such as the twentieth century Middle East However all of these measures have ultimately fueled not only greenhouse gas emissions but also a collective myopia regarding the impact of rising temperatures Identifying the scientific economic and cultural forces that have numbed our responses this book charts a way out of short term thinking and towards meaningful action
