The Young Carthaginian - A Story of The Times of Hannibal G. A. Henty,2017-01-01 When I was a boy at school if I remember rightly our sympathies were generally with the Carthaginians as against the Romans Why they were so except that one generally sympathizes with the unfortunate I do not quite know certainly we had but a hazy idea as to the merits of the struggle and knew but little of its events for the Latin and Greek authors which serve as the ordinary textbooks in schools do not treat of the Punic wars That it was a struggle for empire at first and latterly one for existence on the part of Carthage that Hannibal was a great and skilful general that he defeated the Romans at Trebia Lake Trasimenus and Cannae and all but took Rome and that the Romans behaved with bad faith and great cruelty at the capture of Carthage represents I think pretty nearly the sum total of our knowledge I am sure I should have liked to know a great deal more about this struggle for the empire of the world and as I think that most of you would also like to do so I have chosen this subject for my story Fortunately there is no lack of authentic material from which to glean the incidents of the struggle Polybius visited all the passes of the Alps some forty years after the event and conversed with tribesmen who had witnessed the passage of Hannibal and there can be no doubt that his descriptions are far more accurate than those of Livy who wrote somewhat later and had no personal knowledge of the affair Numbers of books have been written as to the identity of the passes traversed by Hannibal The whole of these have been discussed and summarized by Mr W J Law and as it appears to me that his arguments are quite conclusive I have adopted the line which he lays down as that followed by Hannibal In regard to the general history of the expedition and of the manners customs religion and politics of Carthage I have followed M Hennebert in his most exhaustive and important work on the subject I think that when you have read to the end you will perceive that although our sympathies may remain with Hannibal and the Carthaginians it was nevertheless for the good of the world that Rome was the conqueror in the great struggle for empire At the time the war began Carthage was already corrupt to the core and although she might have enslaved many nations she would never have civilized them Rome gave free institutions to the people she conquered she subdued but she never enslaved them but rather strove to plant her civilization among them and to raise them to her own level Carthage on the contrary was from the first a cruel mistress to the people she conquered Consequently while all the peoples of Italy rallied round Rome in the days of her distress the tribes subject to Carthage rose in insurrection against her as soon as the presence of a Roman army gave them a hope of escape from their bondage Had Carthage conquered Rome in the struggle she could never have extended her power over the known world as Rome afterwards did but would have fallen to pieces again from the weakness of her institutions and the corruption of her people Thus then although we may feel sympathy for the failure and fate of the noble and chivalrous Hannibal himself we cannot regret that Rome came out conqueror in the strife and was left free to carry out her great work of civilization A Descriptiv List of Novels and Tales Dealing with Ancient History ,1895 The story of the world Elizabeth Speakman O'Neill,1914 Out of the Triangle; A Story of the Far East Mary E. Bamford,2023-02-11 Reproduction of the original [Must Read Personalities] A life Story of Hannibal Barca InRead Team,2022-06-05 Description This Book provides a quick glimpse about the life of Hannibal Barca The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell,Deborah Lindsay Williams,2024 An overview of US fiction since 1940 that explores the history of literary forms the history of narrative forms the history of the book the history of media and the history of higher education in the United States 'Les Tentations de saint Antoine' and Flaubert's Fiction Mary Neiland,2022-11-07 This book reveals the extensive and dynamic interplay between Les Tentations de saint Antoine and the rest of Flaubert s fiction Mary Neiland combines two critical approaches genetic and intertextual criticism in order to trace the development of selected topoi and figures across the three versions of La Tentation and on through Flaubert s other major works Each chapter is devoted to one of these centres of interest namely the banquet scene the cityscape the crowd the seductive female and the Devil Detailed study of these five areas exposes a remarkable intimacy between writings that appear at a far remove from each other The networks of recurring images located demonstrate for the first time the obsessive nature of Flaubert s writing practice the pursuit of these networks across his fictional writings exposes his developing technique and La Tentation is revealed as both a privileged moment of expression and as a place of auto reflection This volume will be of interest to students and specialists of Flaubert as well as to those interested in genetic and intertextual criticism The Greatest Story in the World (Complete) Horace G. Hutchinson,1890-01-01 The greatest story in the world is the story of mankind around the Mediterranean Sea The reason why it is so great a story for us is that it is really our own story It is the story of the doings of mankind from the earliest date at which we know anything at all about man and it is the story of the doings which have made you and me what we are to day and have made our lives what they are You must first look at the world map to understand the story properly Take out the atlas or the globe of the world and have a look at the Mediterranean Sea as shown upon it You will see how very little space this sea occupies in comparison with the whole And I want you to observe this very particularly because as I hope to show you small though this space is it is the space in or closely around which nearly the whole story of man on the world so far as we know it was made up to what date shall we say only a few hundred years ago say the date of Columbus discovery of America If you know the story of what happened in and about the Mediterranean Sea you will know nearly all that anybody does know of the really important things that men did in the world up to the date of our Queen Elizabeth But you may say surely things were happening in other places as in China and in Peru and in Mexico and all over the world all the time And so there were things happening and things which made a very great difference no doubt to the people to whom they happened but they were things that made scarcely any difference at all so far as we are able to see to the history of the world They made great differences within the borders of the countries in which they happened but not beyond The happenings that went on round the shores of the Mediterranean were the making of the world as we know it to day I mean of course in so far as men s actions have had anything to do with the making of it For the first part of the story we shall be occupied with the eastern end only of the Mediterranean and I must ask you to carry your eye just a little not far to the east again of the eastern shore of that sea That shore is called the Levant from the Latin levare to rise and it means the region in which the sun was seen to rise by those who gave the name that is to say the East A very short way as it looks on the map of the Western Hemisphere to the east of that Levant shore you may see the two rivers Euphrates and Tigris rising very near together only a little south of the Black Sea yet not finding their way out into the sea till they have gone a very long way south Then after coming together they go out in each other s company into the Persian Gulf A great part of that space between the two rivers is called Mesopotamia and is the country where our armies had hard fighting in the Great War Mesopotamia is from Greek meaning the middle and a river and means the land in the middle of or between the two rivers Mediterranean the name of the big sea is from Latin medius meaning again the middle and terra the earth that is to say the sea in the middle of the land It is almost entirely shut in by the land its only way out being by the narrow Straits of Gibraltar at the western end

Italian Crime Fiction in the Era of the Anti-Mafia Movement William Farina,2020-03-13 Over the last three decades Italian crime fiction has demonstrated a trend toward a much higher level of realism and complexity The origins of the New Italian Epic as it has been coined by some of its proponents can be found in the widespread backlash against the Mafia sponsored murders of Sicilian magistrates which culminated with the assassinations of Judges Giovanni Falcone and Paolo Borsellino in 1992 Though beginning in the Italian language this prolific popular movement has more recently found its way into the English language and hence it has found a much wider international audience Following a brief yet detailed history of the cultural and economic development of Sicily this book provides a multilayered look into the evolution of the New Italian Epic genre The works of ten prominent contemporary writers including Andrea Camilleri Michael Dibdin Elena Ferrante and Massimo Carlotto are examined against the backdrop of various historical periods This past is prologue approach to contemporary crime fiction provides context for the creation of these recent novels and enhances understanding of the complex moral ambiguity that is characteristic of anti mafia Italian crime fiction P. Vergili Maronis Opera Virgil,1884 The Hannibalian War, being selections from books XXIII and XXIV of Livy Livy,1896
