How the United States Racializes Latinos José A. Cobas, Jorge Duany, Joe R. Feagin, 2015-12-03 Mexican and Central American undocumented immigrants as well as U S citizens such as

Puerto Ricans and Mexican Americans have become a significant portion of the U S population Yet the U S government mainstream society and radical activists characterize this rich diversity of peoples and cultures as one group alternatively called Hispanics Latinos or even the pejorative Illegals How has this racializing of populations engendered governmental policies police profiling economic exploitation and even violence that afflict these groups From a variety of settings New York New Jersey Los Angeles Central America Cuba this book explores this question in considering both the national and international implications of U S policy Its coverage ranges from legal definitions and practices to popular stereotyping by the public and the media covering such diverse topics as racial profiling workplace discrimination mob violence treatment at border crossings barriers to success in schools and many more It shows how government and social processes of racializing are too seldom understood by mainstream society and the implication of attendant policies are sorely neglected Scars of Partition William F. S. Miles, 2014-07-01 Based on three decades of fieldwork throughout the developing world Scars of Partition is the first book to systematically evaluate the long term implications of French and British styles of colonialism and decolonization for ordinary people throughout the so called Third World It pays particular attention to the contemporary legacies of artificial boundaries superimposed by Britain and France that continue to divide indigenous peoples into separate postcolonial states In so doing it uniquely illustrates how the distinctive stamps of France and Britain continue to mark daily life along and behind these inherited borders in Africa Asia Oceania and the Caribbean Scars of Partition draws on political science anthropology history and geography to examine six cases of indigenous indentured and enslaved peoples partitioned by colonialism in West Africa West Indies South Pacific Southeast Asia South India and the Indian Ocean William F S Miles demonstrates that sovereign nations throughout the developing world despite basic differences in culture geography and politics still bear the underlying imprint of their colonial pasts Disentangling and appreciating these embedded colonial legacies is critical to achieving full decolonization particularly in their borderlands Encyclopedia of Global Religion Mark Juergensmeyer, Wade Clark Roof, 2012 Presents entries A to L of a two volume encyclopedia discussing religion around the globe including biographies concepts and theories places social issues movements texts and traditions Between a Past and Present Consciousness Christopher A. Williams, 2019-07-08 In an age of rampant xenophobia and the nativist imperative to undo globalization for a return to a bygone purer age can patently modern identities indefinitely sustain their messages of inclusion and equality This volume serves to answer this and other pressing existential questions by tracing the development of the Caymanian people from the colonial era into our modern globalized multicultural age The emergence of Caymanian nationalism is extensively analyzed and confirmed as a phenomenon that was preceded by fragmented Caymanian identities informed by issues of race and class Despite this the native Caymanian people were able to successfully jettison their race thinking and in so doing began to see themselves as members of a singular nationality This notion of national and cultural solidarity as this book details has become a vexing issue and is now being duly tested given the astonishing numbers of immigrants in Cayman many of whom are keen to become Caymanians themselves Yemoja Solimar Otero, Toyin Falola, 2013-11-01 Bridges theory art and practice to discuss emerging issues in transnational religious movements in Latino and African diasporas This is the first collection of essays to analyze intersectional religious and cultural practices surrounding the deity Yemoja In Afro Atlantic traditions Yemoja is associated with motherhood women the arts and the family This book reveals how Yemoja traditions are negotiating gender sexuality and cultural identities in bold ways that emphasize the shifting beliefs and cultural practices of contemporary times Contributors come from a wide range of fields religious studies art history literature and anthropology and focus on the central concern of how different religious communities explore issues of race gender and sexuality through religious practice and discourse The volume adds the voices of religious practitioners and artists to those of scholars to engage in conversations about how Latino and African diaspora religions respond creatively to a history of colonization French Women Authors Kelsey Lee Haskett, Holly Faith Nelson, 2013 From the overwhelmingly Christian culture of the Middle Ages and pre Enlightenment France to the wide diversity prevalent in post modern times including the rise of Islam within French borders a radical shift has permeated French society a shift that is reflected in the work of the writers chosen for this book Moreover the sensitivity of women writers to the individual side of spiritual life in contrast to the practices of organized religion also emerges as a major trend with women often being seen as a voice for social and religious change or for a more meaningful personal faith Reference Manual on Scientific Evidence, 2000 New Theatre in Francophone and Anglophone Africa Anne Fuchs, 1999 This volume is mainly a collection of papers presented at the 1995 Mandelieu conference in France which brought together artists and critics The theme was that of contemporary African theatre in the former British and French empires The contributions are of interest to those working in theatre generally and to those specialising in African performance development studies and comparative literature The varied topics include popular theatre Soyinka and France syncretic theatre comparisons between Anglophone and Francophone theatre in the Cameroon censorship development theatre and Sony Labou Tansi There are also interview with Southern African writers and pieces of creative writing Liminality in Tourism Robert S. Bristow, Ian Jenkins, 2021-09-05 Liminality is not typically associated with tourism even though it can be viewed as an intrinsic element of the social cultural experiences of tourism Liminality in Tourism Spatial and Temporal Considerations aims to build upon the tradition of liminality as expounded in social and anthropological disciplines elaborating on the theoretical principles and concepts found within certain aspects of the tourist journey and tourist product The emergence of post modern society has impelled a change in the tourist gaze towards a more experiential and adventuresome globalised experience An important aspect of the tourist phenomenon of liminality is where a transformative experience is triggered by entering a liminoid tourist space leaving the tourist permanently psychologically transformed before returning to normalised society The narrative provides a new perspective on the tourist experience with a provocative examination into the multidimensional aspects of tourism by exploring tourism within the spatial and temporal aspects of liminal landscapes Covid 19 has further changed the rubric of tourism Until the current pandemic tourism has basically been a fun experience In a post pandemic world however the tourist is now facing an unknown future which will almost certainly affect tourism liminality This book presents the reader with a wealth of examples and case studies closely illustrating the association between tourism and liminal experiences The geographical perspectives explore the more subconscious outcomes of destination and tourist product consumption The book should be a useful reader to tourism geography where the theory of liminality can be synthesized into tourist experiences The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies Child Sexual Abuse in Black and Minoritised Communities Aisha K. Gill,Hannah Begum,2023-01-01 Child sexual abuse CSA is believed to affect one in eight children worldwide UNICEF 2020 This authoritative book challenges widely held problematic beliefs about CSA and discusses societal responses and attitudes to survivors It brings together multidisciplinary expertise from key researchers and practitioners around the world to better understand CSA in Black and racially minoritised communities and to provide recommendations for improving legal policy and practical responses It provides an international overview covering theory practice and policy and action oriented research to determine how countries can individually and collectively work to prevent CSA with specific vulnerable groups and in general It also examines how intersectional marginalisation affects experiences of and responses to CSA This essential body of work is thoroughly researched and includes first hand testimony which will deepen the understanding of students academics policy makers and professionals including social workers service staff and activists working at the frontline Chapter 7 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Literary Research and Postcolonial Literatures in English H. Faye Christenberry,Angela Courtney,Liorah Golomb,Melissa S. Van Vuuren,2012-08-08 Postcolonial literatures can be defined as the body of creative work written by authors whose lands were formerly subjugated to colonial rule In previous volumes of this series the research literature of former British colonies Australia Canada Ireland and New Zealand have been addressed This volume offers guidance for those researching the postcolonial literature of the former British colonies in Africa the Caribbean and South Asia Among the forty nations represented in this volume are South Africa India Pakistan Ghana Jamaica Swaziland Belize and Namibia With the exception of South Africa which formed the Union of South Africa in 1910 this guide picks up its coverage in 1947 when both India and Pakistan gained their independence The literature created by writers from these nations represents the diverse experiences in the postcolonial condition and are the subject of this book The volume provides best practice suggestions for the research process and discusses how to take advantage of primary text resources in a variety of formats both digital and paper based bibliographies indexes research guides archives special collections and microforms Rastafari in the New Millennium Michael Barnett,2014-06-05 In the dawn of the new African Millennium the Rastafari movement has achieved unheralded growth and visibility since its inception more than eighty years ago Moving beyond a pure spiritual movement its aesthetic component has influenced cultures of the Caribbean the United States and others across the globe Locating the Rastafari movement at a literal and figurative crossroad Barnett sets out to consider the possible paths the movement will chart Rastafari in the New Millennium covers a wide range of perspectives focusing not only on the movement's nuanced and complex religious ideology but also on its political philosophy cosmology and unique epistemology Barry Chevannes's essay addresses the concerns of death and repatriation highlighting the transformative challenges these issues pose to Rastafari Essays by Ian Boxill Edward Te Kohu Douglas Erin C MacLeod and Janet L DeCosmo among others offer rich accounts of the globalization of Rastafari from New Zealand to Ethiopia from Brazil to Nigeria Drawing on new research and global developments the contributors many of whom are leading scholars in the field reinvigorate the critical dialogue on the current state and future direction of the Rastafari movement
