Searching for Feminist Superheroes Sam Langsdale, 2024-09-17 How superhero narratives in the margins of the mainstream tell innovative feminist stories It s no secret that superhero comics and their related media perpetuate a model of a straight white male hero at the expense of representing women and other minorities but other narratives exist Searching for Feminist Superheroes recognizes that female led superhero comics with diverse casts of characters and inclusive storytelling exist on the margins of the mainstream superhero genre But rather than focusing on these stories as marginalized Sam Langsdale s work on heroes such as Spider Woman America Chavez and Ironheart locates the margins as a site of innovation and productivity which have enabled the creation of feminist superhero texts Employing feminist and intersectional philosophies in an analysis of these comics Langsdale suggests that feminist superheroes have the potential to contribute to a social imagination that is crucial in working toward a more just world At a time when US popular culture continues to manifest as a battleground between oppressive and progressive social norms Searching for Feminist Superheroes demonstrates that a fight for a better world is worthwhile

Meaninglessness Vlad Dima, 2022-09-01 For too long the approach to seemingly universal experiences like love death and even time in film has been dominated by the Global North But what if such explorations developed horizontally instead Drawing from both European and African cultural theorists including Gilles Deleuze and Wole Soyinka Vlad Dima invites us to consider what happens to postcolonial African film if we no longer privilege the idea of time How else might we understand the cinematic image and how would its meanings change

Meaninglessness Time Rhythm and the Undead in Postcolonial Cinema is a study of meaning and meaninglessness through the figure of the undead beginning with francophone Africa and extending to postcolonial France Through the analysis of films like Mati Diop's Atlantics and Jean Pierre Bekolo's Miraculous Weapons Dima shows how the African cinematic image may produce meaning without any attachment to European time and how that meaning is connected instead to the philosophy of negritude and to the notion of rhythm Meaninglessness introduces the concept of the rhythm sequence as a new way to understand the African moving image
