After Modernity Archaeological Approaches To The Contemporary Past:

After Modernity Rodney Harrison, John Schofield, 2010-07-22 This book summarizes archaeological approaches to the contemporary past and suggests a new agenda for the archaeology of late modern societies The principal focus is the archaeology of developed de industrialized societies during the second half of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first This period encompasses the end of the Cold War and the beginning of the internet age a period which sits firmly within what we would recognize to be a period of lived and living memory Rodney Harrison and John Schofield explore how archaeology can inform the study of this time period and the study of our own society through detailed case studies and an in depth summary of the existing literature Their book draws together cross disciplinary perspectives on contemporary material culture studies and develops a new agenda for the study of the materiality of late modern societies After Modernity:

Archaeological Approaches to the Contemporary Past Rodney Harrison, John Schofield, 2010 The authors explore how archaeology can inform the study of our own society and other late modern societies through detailed case studies and a summary of the existing literature They draw together cross disciplinary perspectives and develop a new agenda for the study of the materiality of contemporary societies

After Modernity Rodney Harrison, John Schofield, 2010-07-22 Rodney Harrison and John Schofield explore how archaeology can inform the study of our own society and other late modern societies through detailed case studies and a summary of the existing literature They draw together cross disciplinary perspectives and develop a new agenda for the study of the materiality of contemporary societies

Contemporary Archaeology and the City Laura McAtackney, Krysta Ryzewski, 2017 This book argues archaeology is uniquely placed to contribute a variety of perspectives on the current life cycles of cities including processes of decay revitalization and transformation It foregrounds the materialities of post industrial post modern and other urban transformations through a diverse international collection of case studies

The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of the Contemporary World Paul Graves-Brown, Rodney Harrison, Angela Piccini, 2013-10 This Handbook is the first comprehensive survey of a rapidly expanding sub field in archaeology the study of the present and recent past It seeks to explore the boundaries of this emerging area to develop a tool kit of concepts and methods which are applicable to this new sub field and to suggest important future trajectories for research

Empowering Contemporary Fiction in English Ralf Hertel, Eva-Maria Windberger, 2021-03-08 Empowerment as a concept is making its impact on the field of literary studies This volume shows its intricate relation to contemporary fiction in English applying a broad range of approaches such as feminist transcultural and intersectional studies Dealing with genres as diverse as dystopia science fiction TV adaptations the historical novel and immigrant fiction this collection offers the first in depth study of empowerment in literature How and to which end do texts endow characters with power In which ways can fiction become a tool of authorial self empowerment And which effects do such narratives have on readers With this book empowerment is put on the map of literary studies as a new highly relevant critical concept stimulating fresh perspectives on contemporary fiction Contributors Peter Childs Britta Maria Colligs Sarah Dillon Paul Hamann Rose Ralf Hertel David Malcolm Diana Thiesen Eleanor Ty Eva Maria Windberger Archaeological Theory Today Ian Hodder, 2014-02-27 Now in a revised and updated second edition this volume provides an authoritative account of the current status of archaeological theory as presented by some of its major exponents and innovators over recent decades It summarizes the latest developments in the field and looks to its future exploring some of the cutting edge ideas at the forefront of the discipline The volume captures the diversity of contemporary archaeological theory Some authors argue for an approach close to the natural sciences others for an engagement with cultural debate about representation of the past Some minimize the relevance of culture to societal change while others see it as central some focus on the contingent and the local others on long term evolution While few practitioners in theoretical archaeology would today argue for a unified disciplinary approach the authors in this volume increasingly see links and convergences between their perspectives The volume also reflects archaeology's new openness to external influences as well as the desire to contribute to wider debates The contributors examine ways in which archaeological evidence contributes to theories of evolutionary psychology as well as to the social sciences in general where theories of social relationships agency landscape and identity are informed by the long term perspective of archaeology The new edition of Archaeological Theory Today will continue to be essential reading for students and scholars in archaeology and in the social sciences more generally The Archaeology of Science Michael Brian Schiffer, 2013-04-19 This manual pulls together and illustrates with interesting case studies the variety of specialized and generalized archaeological research strategies that yield new insights into science Throughout the book there are templates consisting of questions to help readers visualize and design their own projects The manual seeks to be as general as possible applicable to any society and so science is defined as the creation of useful knowledge the kinds of knowledge that enable people to make predictions The chapters in Part I discuss the scope of the archaeology of science and furnish a conceptual foundation for the remainder of the book Next Part II presents several specialized but widely practiced research strategies that contribute to the archaeology of science In order to thoroughly ground the manual in real life applications Part III presents lengthy case studies that feature the use of historical and archaeological evidence in the study of scientific activities The Routledge Handbook of Social Studies of Outer Space Juan Francisco Salazar, Alice Gorman, 2023-07-10 The Routledge Handbook of Social Studies of Outer Space offers state of the art overview of contemporary social and cultural research on outer space International in scope the thirty eight contributions by over fifty leading researchers and artists across a variety of disciplines and fields of knowledge present a range of debates and pose key questions about the crafting of futures in relation to outer space The Handbook is a call to attend more carefully to engagements with outer space empirically affectively and theoretically while characterizing current research practices and outlining future research agendas This recalibration opens profound questions of intersectional politics race equity and environmental justice around the contested topics of space exploration and life off Earth Among the many themes included in the volume are the various infrastructures networks and systems that enable and sustain space exploration space heritage the ethics of outer space social and environmental justice fundamental debates about life in outer space as it pertains to both astrobiology and SETI the study of scientific communities the human body and consciousness Indigenous astronomical systems of Knowledge contemporary space art and ongoing critical interventions to overcome the legacies of colonialism and dismantle hegemonic narratives of outer space Critical Public Archaeology Camille Westmont,2022-09-13 Critical approaches to public archaeology have been in use since the 1980s however only recently have archaeologists begun using critical theory in conjunction with public archaeology to challenge dominant narratives of the past This volume brings together current work on the theory and practice of critical public archaeology from Europe and the United States to illustrate the ways that implementing critical approaches can introduce new understandings of the past and reveal new insights on the present Contributors to this volume explore public perceptions of museum interpretations as well as public archaeology projects related to changing perceptions of immigration the working classes and race The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and Plastics Genevieve Godin,Þóra Pétursdóttir,Estelle Praet,John Schofield,2024-09-17 The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and Plastics investigates the archaeology of the contemporary world through the lens of its most distinguishing and problematic material Plastics are ubiquitous and have been so for nearly three generations since they became widely used in the early 1950s Plastics will persist for millennia their legacies as toxic heritage being felt deep into the future In this book comprising 32 original at times disturbing and critically engaged contributions scholars from archaeology and other cognate disciplines explore plastics from a number of different angles and perspectives Together these contributions highlight the dilemma that plastics present their usefulness on the one hand and the threats they present to environmental health on the other The volume also explores the lessons that archaeologists can learn from plastics about episodes of mass production consumption and toxicity in the past and also importantly about the future This important and timely collection will therefore be of interest to all archaeologists irrespective of their period of study or their geographical focus and to students of archaeology and cultural heritage It will also be relevant for researchers and students in other fields of study that focus on plastics and their environmental and social impacts Ultimately this book concerns the contemporary world and the impact of people upon it through the archaeological lens Archaeology's Visual Culture Roger Balm,2015-12-14 Archaeology s Visual Culture explores archaeology through the lens of visual culture theory The insistent visuality of archaeology is a key stimulus for the imaginative and creative interpretation of our encounters with the past Balm investigates the nature of this projection of the visual revealing an embedded subjectivity in the imagery of archaeology and acknowledging the multiplicity of meanings that cohere around artifacts archaeological sites and museum displays Using a wide range of case studies the book highlights how archaeologists can view objects and the consequences that ensue from these ways of seeing Throughout the book Balm considers the potential for documentary images and visual material held in archives to perform cultural work within and between groups of specialists With primary sources ranging from the mid nineteenth to the early twenty first century this volume also maps the intellectual and social connections between archaeologists and their peers Geographical settings include Britain Cyprus Mesoamerica the Middle East and the United States and the sites of visual encounter are no less diverse ranging from excavation reports in salvage archaeology to instrumentally derived data sets and remote sensing imagery By forensically examining selected visual records from published accounts and archival sources enduring tropes of representation become apparent that transcend issues of style and reflect fundamental visual sensibilities within the discipline of archaeology

The Rosewood Massacre Edward González-Tennant, 2019-09-16 The Rosewood Massacre investigates the 1923 massacre that devastated the predominantly African American community of Rosewood Florida The town was burned to the ground by neighboring whites and its citizens fled for their lives None of the perpetrators were convicted Very little documentation of the event and the ensuing court hearings survives today

The Oxford Handbook of Industrial Archaeology Eleanor Casella, Michael Nevell, Hanna Steyne, 2022 Through international and multi period chapters this volume explores the origins and development of industrialization from its emergence in 18th century Europe to its contemporary ubiquity It interrogates the widespread exploitation of natural resources that forged industrialization and its environmental and social legacy in our globalized world

Constructing Destruction Trinidad Rico, 2016-04-14 Large scale disasters mobilize heritage professionals to a narrative of heritage at risk and a standardized set of processes to counter that risk Trinidad Rico's critical ethnography analyses heritage practices in the aftermath of the tsunami that swamped Banda Aceh Indonesia in 2004 and the post destruction narratives that accompanied it showing the sociocultural historical and political agendas these discourses raise Countering the typical Western ideology and practice of ameliorating heritage at risk were local post colonial trajectories that permitted the community to construct its own meaning of heritage This book documents the emergence of local heritage places practices and debates countering the globalized versions embraced by the heritage professions offering a critical paradigm for post destruction planning and practice that incorporates alternative models of heritage Constructing Deconstruction will be of value to scholars professionals and advanced students in Heritage Studies Anthropology Geography and Disaster Studies

The Cambridge Handbook of the Imagination Anna Abraham, 2020-06-18 The human imagination manifests in countless different forms We imagine the possible and the impossible How do we do this so effortlessly Why did the capacity for imagination evolve and manifest with undeniably manifold complexity uniquely in human beings This handbook reflects on such questions by collecting perspectives on imagination from leading experts It showcases a rich and detailed analysis on how the imagination is understood across several disciplines of study including anthropology archaeology medicine neuroscience psychology philosophy and the arts An integrated theoretical empirical applied picture of the field is presented which stands to inform researchers students and practitioners about the issues of relevance across the board when considering the imagination With each chapter the nature of human imagination is examined what it entails how it evolved and why it singularly defines us as a species Bronzization: Essays in Bronze Age Archaeology Heide W.

Nørgaard, Samantha S. Reiter, 2025-02-20 A collection of state of the art articles which integrate new insights from the many advances in research on the subject into a new and up to date vision of the Bronze Age as a Europeanised or even globalised period Papers revise current understanding of bronzization and bronzification in line with a holistic view of recent scientific advances Appropriating Sacred Spaces Clara Rellensmann, 2024-11-18 The book provides deep insights into heritage politics in Myanmar on the basis of the conservation history of Bagan and its entanglement in national politics It particularly investigates the heritage practice of the dictatorial regime that ruled Myanmar from 1988 to 2011 and highlights the implications of both the reconciliation politics of Aung San Suu Kyi's NLD government 2016 2020 and the UNESCO World Heritage System The book examines the function of Bamar Buddhist architecture in the spatial strategy of the 1988 2011 regime and its nation building efforts With a focus on the historic site of Bagan included on the World Heritage List in 2019 and the Adopt a Pagoda Program that was implemented at the site from 1995 to 2011 under authoritarian rule the book provides a detailed account of Bagan's physical transformation and its political significance for national politics at the time It offers a historical comparison of the heritage politics of Myanmar's most recent transitional governments 2011 2020 pointing out the particularities of the country's institutionalized heritage practice and one sided nation building strategy Both have contributed to continued ethnic conflicts that are generally considered to be the world's longest civil war In the renewed dictatorial context of Myanmar since February 1 2021 the research presented in the book helps to understand the roots of the new regime's heritage practice and national imagination In addition to these insights into Myanmar's heritage politics the book addresses shortcomings of the World Heritage system with regard to the treatment of sacred sites in authoritarian and post authoritarian contexts an aspect that to date has been largely neglected in cultural heritage policy debates across the globe The Archaeology of Burning Man Carolyn L. White, 2020-04-15 For nearly a decade Carolyn L White has employed archaeological methods to analyze the various aspects of life and community in and around Burning Man and Black Rock City

Rethinking Colonial Pasts Through Archaeology Neal Ferris, Rodney Harrison, Michael Vincent Wilcox, 2014 This work explores the archaeologies of daily living left by the indigenous and other displaced peoples impacted by European colonial expansion over the last 600 years Case studies from North America Australia Africa the Caribbean and Ireland significantly revise conventional historical narratives of those interactions their presumed impacts and their ongoing relevance for the material social economic and political lives and identities of contemporary indigenous and other peoples
