The Deathly Embrace Sheng-mei Ma, 2000 Asian American resistance to Orientalism the Western tradition dealing with the subject and subjugation of the East is usually assumed And yet as this provocative work demonstrates in order to refute racist stereotypes they must first be evoked and in the process the two often become entangled Sheng mei Ma shows how the distinguished careers of post 1960s Asian American writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Frank Chin and David Henry Hwang reveal that while Asian American identity is constructed in reaction to Orientalism the two cultural forces are not necessarily at odds The vigor with which these Asian Americans revolt against Orientalism in fact tacitly acknowledges the family lineage of the two

A Companion to Twentieth-Century United States Fiction David Seed,2010-01-21 Through a wide ranging series of essays and relevant readings A Companion to Twentieth Century United States Fiction presents an overview of American fiction published since the conclusion of the First World War Features a wide ranging series of essays by American British and European specialists in a variety of literary fields Written in an approachable and accessible style Covers both classic literary figures and contemporary novelists Provides extensive suggestions for further reading at the end of each essay

Oriental Prospects ,2022-07-04 A great deal of stimulating and valuable discussion as well as some indignation and hot air has been stimulated by Edward Said whose provocative study of Orientalism Western Conceptions of the Orient appeared twenty years ago This present book will we believe be recognized as a worthy addition to the many attempts that have since been made to sift the intrinsic and ingrained attitudes of West to East The fifteen articles in Oriental Prospects Western Literature and the Lure of the East cover literature from the Renaissance through the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the modern period some in pragmatic accounts of responses to and uses of experiences of the Orient and its cultural attitudes and artefacts others contending more theoretically with issues that Edward Said has raised Despite all the misunderstanding prejudice and propaganda in the scholarly and literary depiction of the Orient still today as in the past what emerges from this wide range of articles is that no species of literary text or academic study can appear without risking the accusation of escapist exoticism or cultural and economic exploitation and thus regrettably masking the essential and vital significance of the political and the real and imaginative trading between East and West

Positioning the New Elisabetta Marino,Tanfer Emin Tunc,2010-09-13 This ground breaking edited volume includes chapters which explore the past present and future position of Chinese American authors within the framework of what Harold Bloom identifies as the Western literary canon These selections which simultaneously represent the exciting transnational turn in American literary studies not only examine whether or not Chinese American literature is inside or outside the canon but also question if there is or should be a literary canon at all Moreover they dissect the canonicity of Chinese American literature by elucidating the social political and cultural implications of inclusion in the canon Ultimately however this collection is designed as a preliminary step towards exploring the impact of Chinese American literature on the white Anglo Saxon Protestant dominated American literary world and probing the by products of both cultural fusion and cultural collision

Reverberations of Silence Márta Pellérdi,Gabriella Reuss,2014-08-11 Whether a conscious choice or constraint silence has always been the result of oppression censorship trauma and mental or physical handicap Its provocative and mysterious nature has always motivated readers and critics towards interpretation The present volume offers to read and interpret silence unexpressed emotions thoughts hesitations and gestures on mainly a textual and verbal level How is the pervasive presence of silence explained in literature and linguistics The collected scholarly essays in this volume offer a wide range of answers The majority of the writings are literary critical in nature focusing on major and less well known literary texts from the Renaissance until the twentieth century The authors approach the works of Spenser Shakespeare Shelley Dickinson Wright Auster Tan and Ishiguro among others as well as less well known silent or silenced authors and their texts with equal dedication Other essays included in the volume either deal with the problem of translating gaps and hiatuses or focus on capturing the phenomenon of silence in speech through analyzing ellipsis emptiness and hesitations in spoken language The controversial and manifold aspects of silence are captured and interpreted in this volume

Mother Tongue Theologies
 Darren J. N. Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world's Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity's dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature's diversity And it highlights non Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity's global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity's foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so called post Christian West
