The Innocent By Ian McEwan:

The Innocent Ian McEwan, 2002 For anyone who has yet to discover McEwan's storytelling genius this is a dazzling introduction The time is 1955 in postwar Berlin The combined forces of British and American technological intelligence is set to invade the Soviet communications system The story follows a young British post office technician beginning his dizzying descent into the ever deeper echelons of electronic surveillance beneath the surface of Berlin At the same time he meets a young German woman Maria As his two worlds private and political claim him Leonard senses his life is to be remarkably altered But he cannot foresee the horror that is to come Readers familiar with Ian McEwan will know to brace themselves for the unexpected yet it is impossible to anticipate the impact of this novel An espionage thriller with a subtle and haunting execution The Innocent is a brilliant read and possesses perhaps one of the most powerful and satisfying conclusions capturing the spirit of the end of the Cold War

The Innocent Ian McEwan, 1990 The setting is Berlin Into this divided city wrenched between East and West between past and present comes twenty five year old Leonard Marnham assigned to a British American surveillance team Though only a pawn in an international plot that is never fully revealed to him Leonard uses his secret work to escape the bonds of his ordinary life and to lose his unwanted innocence The promise of his new life begins to be fulfilled as Leonard becomes a crucial part of the surveillance team while simultaneously being initiated into a new world of love and sex by Maria a beautiful young German woman It is a promise that turns to horror in the course of one terrible evening a night when Leonard Marnham learns just how much of his innocence he's willing to shed

Ian McEwan Irena Księżopolska, 2024-04-30 This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan The Cement Garden The Comfort of Strangers The Child in Time The Innocent Black Dogs Atonement On Chesil Beach introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text critical discussion authorial comments and the context of the composition Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts indicating that McEwan's works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby All the chapters attend to submerged repressed or deliberately masked voices The Cement Garden is seen as a multi layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes The Child in Time is read as Stephen s book written for his dead daughter The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria s role as a spy In Black Dogs the over exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma in the analysis of Atonement Briony s claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent Finally examining On Chesil Beach both characters voices are reconstructed in search of the superior narrative power which in the end is seen to be elusive as the text seeks to undermine the hierarchy of voices
