Each chapter contains the following four new items: an opening mini case, a global finance in practice, a list of key terms at the end of each chapter, and a closing mini case. The GCF4 is suitable for appropriate courses no matter where in the world it is taught because it does not adopt any specific national viewpoint. Moreover, it is self-contained and it combines theory and applications. The earlier editions of the GCF4 have been adopted by many colleges, universities, and management development programs worldwide, particularly because the book stresses practical applications in a user-friendly format. Key learning objectives, exercises, and activities, boxed examples, and analytical frameworks facilitate and enrich students' learning. Each chapter includes pause plan and practice PPP activities as well as real-life case studies exploring digital consumption, digital consumer experiences, and digital trends across industries from global companies such as Nike and McDonald's to the digital transformation of SMEs.
