Mabuse the Gambler 1922 Die Nibelungen 1924 Metropolis 1927 and Woman in the Moon 1929 Eventually a number of Europe's biggest movie stars and directors came to Hollywood such as Greta Garbo Ingrid Bergman and Alfred Hitchcock but Lang's course to America came under far different circumstances As Adolf Hitler rose to power and strengthened the Nazis grip over Germany the party's coarse antisemitism took root across all segments of society As Jews were further persecuted German Jews from all walks of life went into exile and the loss of so many bright minds has led historians to the conclusion that the exodus could have made the difference in World War II As scientists like Albert Einstein made their way out of the country to safety they served as further proof that in addition to being dogmatically racist the Nazis were also incompetent and self-defeating Coinciding with Hitler's rise Lang was filming The Testament of Dr Mabuse and it was quickly viewed as a biting commentary on the Nazi Party On March 30 1933 the Nazi regime banned it and Lang later claimed that propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels confided to him that he loved the movie By then Lang was known for noir films especially M a dark movie about a child murderer Compelled to leave Germany Lang made his way to Hollywood and quickly established himself there leading to a career spanning 20 years Continuing with the same themes as the ones he used in Germany Lang helped establish noir as one of the most popular film genres of the 1950s in America with influential works like Scarlett Street and his most famous film The Big Heat 1953 By 1960 however his health began to decline and thus so did his output which was somewhat ironic because he brought the Mabuse series of films full circle with 1960's The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse which revived interest in Mabuse and led to more films being made for the series As fate would have it though those films would be produced by German producer Artur Brauner not Lang himself Fritz Lang The Life and Legacy of the Influential German American Film Legend chronicles his career in front of the camera and behind it Along with pictures depicting important people places and events you will learn about Lang like never before Fritz Lang Fritz Lang, 2003 A collection of conversations about the filmmaker whose life and work spanned six decades of film history
