A Borrowed Place Frank Welsh, 1996 Hong Kong: Borrowed Place, Borrowed Time Richard Hughes, 1968 Rev ed published 1976 under title Borrowed place borrowed time Bibliography p 173 A Biographical Sketch-book of Early Hong Kong G. B. Endacott, 2005-01-01 The biographical essays in this book first published in 1962 give a sharp and fascinating picture of some of the Europeans who helped establish the colony of Hong Kong and lived through its early years

Facing Cantonese Adversity, Fleeing Tong-Shaan: Douglas W. Lee, PhD, 2024-06-12 This book is a two part discussion about mid late nineteenth century traditional Cantonese society and the material conditions that fostered large scale Cantonese overseas emigration Part I discusses the Peasant farmer merchant and Gentry scholar official landed Gentry social classes An additional chapter focuses on Cantonese special interests groups which embraced those people with shared group needs identities and interests which cut across social class lines Part II analyzes four adverse material conditions which motivated and contextualized large scale Cantonese overseas emigration This includes 1 high density population concentration and over population 2 economic immiseration of the Cantonese peasant farmer class 3 Cantonese communal conflict and social chaos and 4 local Cantonese fan kwai foreign devils conflicts in the Cantonese heartland This book is the product of over forty five years of research and writing it is the third volume of a new series entitled The Gum Shaan Chronicles The Early History of Cantonese Chinese America 1850 1900 About the Author Douglas W Lee PhD is a second generation Cantonese Chinese American trained as a historian of Modern China with a special research interest in early Chinese American History He earned a BA at Lewis and Clark College Portland Oregon 1967 an MA at the University of Michigan Ann Arbor 1969 a PhD from the University of California Santa Barbara 1979 and JD from Lewis and Clark Law School Portland Oregon 1988 In 1979 1980 Lee was the cofounder and first national President of the National Association for Asian American Studies In 1981 he was cofounder of the Chinese Historical Society of the Pacific Northwest and the first editor of its journal The Annals of the Chinese Historical Society of the Pacific Northwest Seattle Washington Scouting in Hong Kong, 1910-2010 Paul Kua, 2011-06-01 Scouting in Hong Kong 1910 2010 covers the what how when who why and so what of the Hong Kong Scout Movement from 1910 to 2010 using a large volume of primary sources It deals with the development of the youth movement both as a subject of enquiry and as an analytical tool which may shed light upon the broader history of Hong Kong The author combines professed aim of Scouting citizenship the key motives for supporting it governance war secular education and religious conversion and the most relevant differentiating identities race class gender and age to analyze the experience of young people involved in Hong Kong Scouting throughout the years both colonial and post colonial The book is richly illustrated with interesting and instructive images and relied heavily on a doctoral dissertation by the author though they are also significantly different in both structure and content It is a critical study aimed at both general readers and readers with more specific interests and should enrich their understanding of the histories of

Scouting youth citizenship education the colonies the British Empire decolonization China and Hong Kong By reconstructing the evolution of Scouting from a niche movement for a handful of British boys before the First World War to a fully indigenized and co educational mass movement in the post colonial Hong Kong society it fills a gap in the historical studies of youth movements around the world By analyzing how the movement and the re construction of its particular brand of citizenship training reflected the development of the community it adds to our understanding of the political cultural and social history of Hong Kong often influenced by that of China By demonstrating the uniqueness of its evolution in the colonial context it provides useful comparative insights into the history of imperialism and colonial youth movements By exploring the choices made by local Scouting since Hong Kong s retrocession of sovereignty to China it compliments other studies on decolonization and post colonial citizenship

A Companion to Hong Kong Cinema Esther M. K. Cheung, Gina Marchetti, Esther C. M. Yau, 2015-08-17 A Companion to Hong Kong Cinema provides the first comprehensive scholarly exploration of this unique global cinema By embracing the interdisciplinary approach of contemporary film and cultural studies this collection navigates theoretical debates while charting a new course for future research in Hong Kong film Examines Hong Kong cinema within an interdisciplinary context drawing connections between media gender and Asian studies Asian regional studies Chinese language and cultural studies global studies and critical theory Highlights the often contentious debates that shape current thinking about film as a medium and its possible future Investigates how changing research on gender the body and sexual orientation alter the ways in which we analyze sexual difference in Hong Kong cinema Charts how developments in theories of colonialism postcolonialism globalization neoliberalism Orientalism and nationalism transform our understanding of the economics and politics of the Hong Kong film industry Explores how the concepts of diaspora nostalgia exile and trauma offer opportunities to rethink accepted ways of understanding Hong Kong s popular cinematic genres and stars

Departing Tong-Shaan: The Organization and Operation of Cantonese Overseas Emigration to America (1850-1900) Douglas W. Lee, PhD, 2024-06-11 Later nineteenth century large scale Chinese overseas emigration to America is generally well known where masses of poor desperate Chinese people mostly young men left home in Southern China to seek economic opportunities in America and elsewhere Despite this fact it has long been a mystery why both research specialists and interested readers alike have seldom if ever asked such critically important questions such as If later nineteenth century Chinese emigrants were so poor and desperate then How did they know where to go How did they arrange to get there and back and perhaps most importantly How did they pay for their long journey This book is the fourth volume of the new series entitled The Gum Shaan Chronicles The Early History of Cantonese Chinese America 1850 1900 It is the first scholarly work to examine the nuts and bolts of the complex technical process orchestrating Cantonese Chinese overseas emigration It examines in detail the various financial technological logistical demographic geographical political economy and historical constructs supporting and guiding later nineteenth century

Aspects of Urbanization in China Gregory Bracken, 2012 China s opkomst als wereldmacht is een van de ingrijpendste gebeurtenissen van deze tijd Honderden miljoenen mensen zijn de armoede ontvlucht dankzij de snelle industrialisatie van het land De wonderbaarlijke economische groei van China heeft zijn nadelen iets wat vaak het meest pijnlijk duidelijk wordt in de steden Deze studie is geschreven door wetenschappers uit verschillende disciplines waaronder architectuur stedenbouw sociale wetenschappen aardrijkskunde en antropologie Een deel van de auteurs behandelt de mondiale ambities van de steden terwijl andere hun culturele en architecturale uitingen onderzoeken 'The Ultimate Masters of the City'

Prashant Kidambi, 2004 A History of Hong Kong Frank Welsh, 1993 No territory in the world has a more vivid and tumultuous history square mile for square mile as Hong Kong It is or has been the greatest entrepot in the world the base for the great trading companies of the Far East the headquarters of half the international crooks in the world and the site of great fortunes lost and won This book provides a historical background to understanding the present condition of Hong Kong

Area Bibliography of China Richard T. Wang, 1997 A combination of scholarly commercial and popular interests has generated a large quantity of literature on every aspect of Chinese life during the past two decades This bibliography reflects these combined interests it is broken up into sections by subject headings and cross references refer the researcher to related topics Profits, Politics and Panics Leo Goodstadt, 2007-10-01 Goodstadt brilliantly weaves a tapestry that resolves major puzzles about Hong Kong's growth as an international financial centre during this pivotal fifty year period This is a devastating expose of the consequences of the British colonial government's failure to effectively regulate banking and manage monetary policy David Meyer Washington University St Louis Leo F Goodstadt is adjunct professor in the School of Business Studies at Trinity College University of Dublin He was formerly deputy editor of the Far Eastern Economic Review

Memories of Tiananmen Francis Lee, Joseph Man Chan, 2025-10-01 Memories of Tiananmen Politics and Processes of Collective Remembering in Hong Kong 1989-2019 analyzes how collective memory regarding the 1989 Beijing student movement and the Tiananmen crackdown was produced, contested, sustained and transformed in Hong Kong between 1989 and 2019 Drawing on data gathered through multiple sources such as news reports, digital media content, on-site vigil surveys, population surveys and in-depth interviews with activists, rally participants and other stakeholders, it identifies six key processes in the dynamics of social remembering: memory formation, memory mobilization, memory institutionalization, intergenerational transfer, memory repair and memory balkanization The book demonstrates how a socially dominant collective memory, even one the state finds politically irritable, can be generated and maintained through constant negotiation and efforts by a wide range of actors While Memories of Tiananmen mainly focuses on the interplay between political changes and the Tiananmen commemoration in the historical period within which the society enjoyed a significant degree of civil liberties, it also discusses how the trajectory of the collective memory may take a drastic turn as Hong Kong's autonomy is abridged The book promises to be a key reference for anyone interested in collective memory studies, social movement research, political communication and China and Hong Kong studies

Legal Thoughts between the East and the West in the Multilevel Legal Order Chang-fa Lo, Nigel N.T. Li, Tsai-yu Lin, 2016-11-11 This book focuses on the interaction and mutual influences between the East and the West in terms of their legal systems and practices In this regard, it highlights Professor Herbert H P Ma's achievements and his efforts to bring Eastern and Western legal concepts and systems closer together The book shows that while there have been convergences between different legal regimes in many fields of law, diverse legal practices and approaches rooted in differing cultural, social, political and philosophical backgrounds do remain, and that these differences are not necessarily negative elements in the contemporary legal order By examining different levels of the legal order including domestic, regional and multilateral, it goes on to argue that identifying these diversities and addressing the interactions and mutual influences between different regimes is a worthwhile undertaking, not only in terms of mutual enrichment but also with regard to intensifying the degree of desirable coordination between different legal systems All chapters were written by leading experts, practitioners and scholars from different jurisdictions with expertise in various fields of law and different levels of the legal order, and discuss a number of issues with particular focus on either one-way or mutual influences between the Eastern and the Western legal systems, practices and philosophies

Neoliberalism and Culture in China and Hong Kong Hai Ren, 2010-10-04 This book examines the period leading up to the Hong Kong handover in 1997 the countdown of time and by using iconic cultural symbols such as the countdown clock the Hong Kong Museum exhibitions and cultural heritage sites argues that China has undergone a transition to neoliberal state in part through its reunification with Hong Kong The problem of synchronization with the world a Chinese phrase that epitomizes China's engagement with modern capitalism since the first Opium War was characterized throughout the 20th century as a humiliation weakness tragedy and disaster with China in the role of the victim of capitalist globalization During the reunification with Hong Kong these conventional expressions were replaced by new ones such as de humiliation return self esteem and revival Hai Ren gives an ethnographic and historical analysis of this cultural and political transformation of China's globalization experience by looking closely at public history practices in mainland China and Hong Kong and how the reconfiguration of everyday life and cultural norms led to the development of this neoliberal China As a book which straddles Chinese and Hong Kong history politics cultural heritage and museum studies more generally it can be regarded as a work of cultural political economy which will appeal to students and scholars of all of the above
