A Certain Idea Of Europe Author Craig Parsons Published On March 2006:

European Disintegration? Douglas Webber, 2018-11-20 This new book provides a comprehensive analysis of Europe on the brink of political disintegration. Observers of the European Union EU could be forgiven for thinking that it is in a state of permanent crisis. The Union has been beset with high levels of Eurozone debt, Russian intervention and armed conflict in Ukraine, refugees fleeing conflict zones in North Africa and the Middle East and the decision of Britain to leave the European Union. This text offers a concise and readable assessment of the dynamics, character and consequences of these four crises and the increasingly real possibility of European disintegration. High levels of socio-economic interdependence and institutionalization have failed to result in an ever closer union and yet the proposed theories of disintegration also fall short. Webber instead shows that it is only by looking at the role of the EU's dominant member Germany in each crisis that the potential for an increasingly fragmented Europe becomes clear. Until now Germany has been the EU's stabilizing force but this is no longer guaranteed. The fate of the integration process will depend on whether other more inclusive forms of stabilizing leadership may emerge to fill the vacuum created by Berlin's incapacity. This text is the ideal companion for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students of the European Union as part of degrees in politics, international relations or European studies or for anyone interested in the crises of the European Union. Crossover Fiction Sandra L.

Beckett, 2010-11-24 In Crossover Fiction Sandra L. Beckett explores the global trend of crossover literature and explains how it is transforming literary canons, concepts of readership, the status of authors, the publishing industry and bookselling practices. This study will have significant relevance across disciplines as scholars in literary studies, media and cultural studies, visual arts, education, psychology and sociology examine the increasingly blurred borderlines between adults and young people in contemporary society, notably with regard to their consumption of popular culture. The Parallel March of Asthma and Allergy in Childhood: A Multi-Perspective Approach Luis Garcia-Marcos, Carlo Caffarelli, Kostas N. Priftis, 2018-07-24 It has not been yet clarified whether allergy and asthma are part of the same condition or they follow a parallel path. This Research Topic aims to try and put some light in this parallel march going through crucial topics from prenatal events to later risk factors such as obesity and from basic immunology to immunotherapy, both subcutaneous and sublingual. We hope the readers can infer their own conclusions as to what is first egg or chicken. Choice, 2008 New Light on the Neolithic of Northern England Gill Hey, Paul Frodsham, 2021-01-13 These papers highlight recent archaeological work in Northern England in the commercial, academic and community archaeology sectors which have fundamentally changed our perspective on the Neolithic of the area. Much of this was new work and much is still not published, has been overlooked in the national discourse. The papers cover a wide geographical area from Lancashire north into the Scottish Lowlands, recognising the irrelevance of the England-Scotland Border. They also take a broad chronological sweep from the Mesolithic-Neolithic transition to the introduction of Beakers into the area. The key themes are the nature of transition, the need for a much improved chronological framework regional variation linked to landscape character links within northern England and with distant places the implications of new dating for our understanding the axe trade the changing nature of settlement and agriculture the character early Neolithic enclosures the need to integrate rock art into wider discourse
