British Machinations and (B)uganda's Struggle for Independence Apollo N. Makubuya, 2019-01-17 In the scramble for Africa Britain took a lion s share of the continent It occupied and controlled vast territories including the Uganda Protectorate which it ruled for 68 years Early administrators in the region encountered the progressive kingdom of Buganda which they incorporated into the British Empire Under the guise of protection indirect rule and patronage Britain overran plundered and disempowered the kingdom s traditional institutions On liquidation of the Empire Buganda was coaxed into a problematic political order largely dictated from London Today 56 years after independence the kingdom struggles to rediscover itself within Uganda's fragile politics Based on newly declassified records this book reconstructs a history of the machinations underpinning British imperial interests in B Uganda and the personalities who embodied colonial rule It addresses Anglo Uganda relations demonstrating how Uganda's politics reflects its colonial past and the forces shaping its future It is a far reaching examination of British rule in B uganda questioning whether it was designed for protection for patronage or for plunder

Development and Administration of Education in Uganda J. C. Ssekamwa, S. M. E. Lugumba, 2001 This second title in the Fountain series in Education Studies assesses the structures role and practices of government administration in the development of education in Uganda from 1900 1970 a period which has seen drastic changes in administrative and school set ups and movement towards an almost unrecognisable present day system Part one presents an overview part two looks at the development of teacher training and examination institutions since 1900 part three analyses structures at the level of government ministries district education and school authorities and student participation in the processes
