

MONTREAL DIV
THE UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION GENERAL INFORMATION

BURSARY APPLICATION

A bursary is a non-repayable award based on financial need. Eligibility is limited to students with a minimum of two courses per semester. All students may apply for consideration by completing the attached bursary application form.

Financial Information Section

- If you have a spouse or partner, including common law, please indicate all expenses and all resources for both partners.
- If you have dependents, please be sure to include all costs related to the support of these dependents.

Other Sources of Scholarship/Bursary Assistance Section

- All students who are Canadian citizens, permanent residents, or are otherwise eligible should apply for government assistance. Citizens of other countries may be able to apply for financial assistance that can be used toward educational expenses in Canada.
- If you have not applied for this assistance, please provide a written explanation in the appropriate section.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FOR UNITED CHURCH STUDENTS

Some funds are restricted for the use of students preparing for ministry in specific denominational traditions. This includes some funds that can be used for scholarships for students preparing for ministry in the United Church of Canada. United Church students who wish to be considered only for scholarships do not need to disclose their financial information on the bursary application form. If you would like to be considered for a scholarship only, please complete Section 1 of the attached Financial Aid Application Form. If you would like to be considered for both a scholarship and a bursary, please complete Section 1 and Section 2 of the attached application form.
