Non-Motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa Winnie V. Mitullah, Marianne Vanderschuren, Meleckidzedek Khayesi, 2017-07-14 What challenges do pedestrians and cyclists face in cities of the developing world What opportunities do these cities have to provide for walking and cycling Based on in depth research conducted in Cape Town South Africa Dar es Salaam Tanzania and Nairobi Kenya this book explores these questions by presenting work on walking and cycling travel behaviour the status of road safety in these cities as well as an analysis of the infrastructure for walking and cycling and the workings of the institutions responsible for planning for these modes The book also presents case studies relating to particular opportunities and challenges such as the development and evaluation of walking bus interventions and the opportunities micro simulation of pedestrian interventions offers within a data scarce environment Non motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa demonstrates that transport and urban planning remains situated in a logic of automobile dependent transport planning and global city development This logic of practice does not pay adequate attention to walking and cycling It argues that a significant shift in both policy as well as political commitment is needed so as to prioritize walking and cycling as strategies for sustainable transport policy in urban Africa This book will be a key text for practitioners and policy makers working in planning transport policy and urban development in Africa as well as students and scholars of African studies development studies urban geography transport studies and sustainable development

Enhancing Food Production System Resilience for Food Security Facing a Changing Environment Liming Ye, Ping Zhu, 2023-11-28 As the dominant source of the human food supply the global land system underlies the foundation of the livelihood and wellbeing of humanity on Earth On the one hand the growth rate in the land system s productive capacity of food has played a key role in global food provision Technological breakthroughs in wheat and rice production during the past few decades for instance have greatly contributed to the maintenance of this growth rate in many parts of the world On the other hand however the terrestrial food production system is facing increasing challenges from environmental stressors ranging from climate change air pollution to land degradation Whether and how the global land system will support the food security of more than 10 billion people in the 21st century while minimizing its environmental footprint remains an open question to debate It is inevitable that the global food production system has to be shifted from focusing on production expansion to land system resilience so that the dual goals of sustainable production and environmental friendliness can be simultaneously achieved

Wrecking Ball Stu Woolman, 2021-04-29 Wrecking Ball explores in an unprecedented manner a decalogue of wicked problems that confronts humanity Nuclear proliferation climate change pandemics permanent technological unemployment Orwellian public and private surveillance social media that distorts reality cyberwarfare the fragmentation of democracies the inability of nations to cabin private power the failure of multinational institutions to promote collaboration and the deepening of autocratic rule in countries that have never known anything but extractive institutions Collectively or even severally these wicked problems constitute crises that could end civilisation Does this list frighten you or do you blithely assume that tomorrow will be just like yesterday Wrecking Ball shows that without an inclusive system of global governance the collective action required to solve those wicked problems falls beyond the remit of the world s 20 inclusive democracies 50 flawed democracies and 130 extractive elitist autocracies Flawed democracies and autocracies that already struggle to produce goods necessary for their own citizens to flourish are simply incapable of committing to international arrangements that address the existential threats posed by the decalogue of wicked problems This then is our children s inheritance Dystopias far far worse than the polities that we ourselves have known What if anything can mitigate the harms that are our legacy Wrecking Ball offers as an answer a ground breaking analysis of South Africa s political economy It demonstrates that this country s elitist and extractive political and economic institutions not only make resolution of ongoing domestic crises unattainable likewise they make meaningful responses to wicked problems impossible Smart people think they have all the answers Without laboring under any such illusions Martin Luther King Jr eloquently opined The arc of the moral universe is long but it bends towards justice But what will happen King would acidly ask if we continue to dawdle and simply run out of time Wrecking Ball similalry operates under no such smart pretenses and undeterred and unmatched ventures into terrrains traversed by truly great political economists Smith Ricardo Marx and Keynes By knitting together what we all know to be the facts with cutting edge theory in economics sociology history and political science the book paints an unflinching portrait of where we are and where we are headed Are we ready to be honest with ourselves about the likely future of this overheated overpopulated planet Urban and Maritime Transport XXVII G. Passerini, S. Ricci, 2021-09-01 Better urban transport systems and the need for a healthier environment are continuous requirements that create a fertile atmosphere for original ideas innovative approaches and applications of advanced technologies their tests and evaluations in practice Moreover there is a growing need for integration with IT systems and applications to improve safety and efficiency Meanwhile the substantial growth of maritime shipping has resulted in large transported quantities around the world creating a demand for innovative solutions for ports and fleets The apparently parallel topics of Urban Transport and Maritime Transport meet in the transport and environmental management of coastal cities both being affected positively and negatively by landslide and seaside traffic Maritime Transport is highly interconnected with rail road and air services as well as inland waterways Each of these must therefore operate complimentary of one another to maximise efficiency and respond rapidly to variable economic and political contingencies The variety of topics covered in this volume reflects the complex interaction of transport systems with their environment and the need to establish integrated strategies The goal is to arrive at optimal socio economic solutions while reducing the negative environmental impacts of transportation systems typically by interdisciplinary approaches Education Annual Volume 2023 ,2023-12-13 Educational research and innovation are directed towards defining implementing and evaluating
