Open Learning as a Means of Advancing Social Justice Tabisa Mayisela, Shanali Govender, 2024-01-23 This volume investigates the uptake of open learning in South African Technical Vocational Education and Training TVET colleges and higher education institutions Comprised of 16 studies focused on activities at a range of colleges and universities across the country these chapters aim to promote a better understanding of open learning practices across the Post School Education and Training PSET sector including issues such as recognition of prior learning access for students with disabilities work integrated learning professional development novel student funding mechanisms leadership for open educational practices institutional culture student support blended and online learning flexible learning online assessment open educational resource development models and funding and micro credentials This collection of peer reviewed chapters contributes to understanding the ways in which South African PSET institutions and educators are interpreting open learning as a means of advancing social justice. It includes a historical and contemporary understanding of the economic, cultural and political obstacles facing PSET, drawing on Nancy Fraser's theory of social justice as participatory parity to better understand the ways in which open learning may address systemic social injustices in order to allow South African students and educators to thrive. This volume emerges from research conducted by the Cases on Open Learning COOL project, an initiative by the Department of Higher Education and Training in partnership with the Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching CILT at the University of Cape Town UCT in South Africa.

Comparative Criminology Across Western and African Perspectives Sungi, Simeon P., Ouassini, Nabil, 2022-06-03
Crime prevention is essential to the success of any civilization. Effective criminal justice systems contribute greatly to the prevention of crime. However, clashing traditional and modern theories regarding appropriate action within criminal justice organizations can cause these systems to fail even when personnel is beyond reproach. Successfully blending traditional and modern theories on criminal justice can bolster justice systems and allow them to be successful. Comparative Criminology Across Western and African Perspectives is a critical scholarly publication that addresses comparative issues pertaining to empirical research and theoretical frameworks on criminology in Africa. Highlighting topics such as policing, ethics, criminal theory and victims' rights, this book is ideal for academicians, law enforcement, victim advocates, lawmakers, correctional officers, correctional rehabilitation counselors, criminologists, researchers, policymakers, government officials and students.

Understanding Sport Organizations Trevor Slack, Terri Byers, Alex Thurston, 2021. Textbook for graduate and upper undergraduate courses in organizational theory and organizational behavior as it relates to sport and sport recreation management degree programs; reference for practicing sport managers around the world. The Handbook of Communication Ethics Amit Pinchevski, Patrice M. Buzzanell, Jason Hannan, 2024-12-02. The second edition of this handbook offers a thoroughly updated overview of the different approaches and perspectives in communication ethics today. Extending the path paved by its predecessor, this handbook includes new issues and concerns that have emerged in the interim, from environmentalism to artificial intelligence, from disability studies to fake news. It also features a new structure comprised of three sections representing a wide array of communication ethics traditions, contexts and debates. Rather than focusing exclusively on a subset of ethics such as interpersonal communication, rhetoric or journalism as do other handbooks of ethics in communication, this collection provides a valuable resource for those who seek a broader basis on which to study communication ethics. This handbook is a must read for faculty, graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in all areas of communication studies as well as in neighboring disciplines such as rhetoric, media studies, sociology, political science, cultural studies and science and technology studies. Gender, Power and Politics in Agriculture Jemimah Njuki, Hale Ann Tufan, Vivian Polar, Hugo Campos, Monifa Morgan-Bell, 2024-10-07. This is an open access book. In the agriculture sector, the language of gender integration often ignores the politics and the power dynamics that are central to critical and feminist analysis of gender relations This volume explores largely neglected topics such as power dynamics masculinities gendered social norms feminist research practice intersectionality critical analysis of tools and more that are fundamental to shifting the entrenched power dynamics and politics of gender research in agriculture The purpose of this book is to reduce the gap existing between theory methods and practice of gender relations in agriculture and agricultural research Through an in depth analysis of current processes in agriculture and drawing on existing experiences in other sectors it seeks to create pathways for learning catalyzing change and positive impact on gender equity and social inclusion This volume seeks to bring forth a change in how gender relations in agriculture are researched practiced and taught

Generation, Gender and Negotiating Custom in South Africa Elena Moore, 2022-06-16 This book investigates how customary practices in South Africa have led to negotiation and contestation over human rights gender and generational power Drawing on a range of original empirical studies this book provides important new insights into the realities of regulating personal relationships in complex social fields in which customary practices are negotiated This book not only adds to a fuller understanding of how customary practices are experienced in contemporary South Africa but it also contributes to a large discussion about the experiences impact and ongoing negotiations around changing structures of gender and generational power and rights in contemporary South Africa It will be of interest to researchers across the fields of sociology family customary law gender social policy and African Studies
