Our L.A. County Lifeguard Family , Battle Scars Chip Reid, 2023-09-30 A unique insight into how combat in Iraq has shaped the lives of a battalion of young Marines The most eye opening and terrifying story in Chip Reid's career as a journalist was the six weeks he spent with 3d Battalion 5th Marines during the invasion of Iraq in 2003 as a correspondent for NBC News Traveling shoulder to shoulder with the young Marines he had unparalleled access witnessing them in combat and interviewing as many as he could persuade his bosses to put on air allowing them to tell their war stories in their own words It took only 22 days for the Marines of 3 5 to fight their way to Baghdad but the effects on those who fought have lasted a lifetime They lost a number of their own in battle and others suffered life threatening injuries Of those who returned even if they avoided physical scars many have had to find their own way through survivor's guilt and the nightmare of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder with all its attendant miseries Twenty years on Chip sat down with the Marines of 3 5 once more They told Chip inspiring stories of heroism in battle of camaraderie and comrades lost of patriotism and belief in mission of recovery and success in both military and civilian life and of the new appreciation for life that results from Post Traumatic Growth Visceral and searingly honest this book is a tribute to the Marines for their service and for the many sacrifices they made then and that many still make today Equality: The Quest for the Happy
