The following is drawn from the rite of Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharist outside Mass and then other liturgical celebrations which have a focus on the Eucharist.

Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharist outside Mass

From the Introduction to Vol II

Rite of Distributing Holy Communion outside Mass

2. The texts for the Liturgy of the Word may be chosen from the Mass of the day. Alternatively, they may be chosen from the selection provided here, which are those for the Votive Masses of the Holy Eucharist, the Precious Blood and the Sacred Heart. [V-HE, V-PB, V-SH]

3. Even when there are only one or two for communion and a true community celebration is impossible, any of these texts may be used. Alternatively, at the minimum a short passage from scripture is read, which may be chosen from those provided in the Shorter Rite for use with only one or two communicants.

Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction

4. During the period of exposition there should be prayers, songs and readings to direct the attention of the faithful to the worship of Christ the Lord.

To encourage a prayerful spirit, there should be readings from scripture with a homily or brief exhortations to develop a better understanding of the Eucharistic mystery. It is also desirable for the people to respond to the word of God by singing and to spend some periods of time in religious silence.

The scripture readings provided here will be particularly suitable.

Ross,2023-03-22 The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization from the Middle Ages to Milton explains the astonishing centrality of the eucharist to poets with a variety of denominational affiliations writing on a range of subjects across an extended period in literary history Whether they are praying thinking about politics lamenting unrequited love or telling fart jokes late medieval and early modern English poets return again and again to the eucharist as a way of working out literary problems Tracing this connection from the fourteenth through the seventeenth century this book shows how controversies surrounding the nature of signification in the sacrament informed understandings of poetry Connecting medieval to early modern England it presents a history of eucharistic poetics as it appears in the work of seven key poets the Pearl poet Chaucer Robert Southwell John Donne George Herbert Richard Crashaw and John Milton Reassessing this range of poetic voices The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization overturns an oft repeated argument that early modern poetry s fascination with the eucharist resulted from the Protestant rejection of transubstantiation and its supposedly enchanted worldview Instead of this tired secularization story it fleshes out a more capacious conception of eucharistic presence showing that what interested poets about the eucharist was its insistence that the mechanics of representation are always entangled with the self s relation to the body and to others The book thus forwards a new historical account of eucharistic poetics placing this literary phenomenon within a longstanding negotiation between embodiment and disembodiment in Western religious and cultural history
