Daughters of the Faith SET #2 (four books) Wendy Lawton,2009-01-01 This package includes four books of the Daughters of Faith Series Set 2 Freedom s Pen Courage to Run The Hallelujah Lass and Ransom s Mark There are a few elements of the Daughters of Faith Series that separate it from many other children s book biographies First these books are about little girls They are not biographies of the entire life of these characters these are stories about girls who made a difference while they were still young This enables the young girl readers to relate to the characters more than they would if these characters had to wait until they were thirty or forty before doing anything significant Second these stories are faith journeys Lawton gets inside the minds of these girls in order to portray their struggles to make God an active part of their lives In Freedom s Pen Phillis Wheatley was a little girl of seven or eight years old when she was captured in Gambia and brought to America as a slave in 1761 But she didn t let her circumstances keep her down She learned to read and write in English and Latin and showed a natural gift for poetry By the time she was twelve her elegy at the death of the great pastor George Whitefield brought her worldwide acclaim Phillis became known to heads of state including George Washington himself speaking out for American independence and the end of slavery She became the first African American to publish a book and her writings would eventually win her freedom More importantly her poetry still proclaims Christ almost 250 years later In Courage to Run Harriet Tubman was born a slave on a Maryland plantation in the 1800 s She trusts in God but her faith is tested at every turn Should she obey her masters or listen to her conscience This story from Harriet s childhood is a record of courage Even more it s the story of God s faithfulness as He prepares her for her adult calling to lead more than 300 people out of slavery through the Underground Railroad In The Hallelujah Lass Lawton tells the story of Eliza Shirley a 16 year old girl who traveled from England to pioneer the work of the Salvation Army in the United States As a teenager growing up in nineteenth century England Eliza was the picture of a proper young lady But she longed for more than an ordinary middle class life When a group of Hallelujah Lassies marches into Coventry with a ragtag bunch of followers singing and banging tabourines even ensuing riots cannot keep Eliza away She knows at last that this is the work God has prepared for her And she is ready no matter what the cost In Ransom s Mark when 13 year old Olive Oatman s wagon train is raided by outlaw Yavapai Indians she and her sister are captured After enduring harsh treatment they are ransomed by a band of Mohaves Olive struggles to adjust to her new life but finds comfort in her faith and in an unexpected friendship When the time comes for her to return to the white world she is afraid she will never fit in But she learns to see the Mohave design tattooed on her chin as a sign of God's love and deliverance a mark of ransom      The Chronicle ,1872      Islam John Tolan,2025-05-13 A concise new narrative history of Islam that draws on the transformative insights of recent research to emphasize the diversity and dynamism of the tradition Today's Muslim world is in upheaval legalists and mystics engage in intense debates radical groups invoke Sharia Muslim immigrants in the West face prejudice and discrimination and Muslim feminists advocate new interpretations of the Koran At the same time Islam is mischaracterized as unitary and unchanging by people ranging from right wing Western politicians claiming that Islam is incompatible with democracy to conservative Muslims dreaming of returning to the golden age of the prophet Against this contentious backdrop this book provides an essential and timely new history of the religion in all its astonishing richness and diversity as it has been practiced by Muslims around the world from seventh century Mecca to today Most popular histories of Islam continue to repeat conventional pietistic accounts In contrast John Tolan draws on decades of new historical research that has transformed knowledge of the origins and development of the Muslim faith He shows how the youngest of the three great monotheisms arose in close contact with Jewish Christian and other religious traditions in a mixture of cultures including Arab Greek Persian and Turkish how Islam spread across an enormous territory encompassing hundreds of languages and cultures how Muslims have forged widely different beliefs and practices over fourteen centuries and how Islamic history provides crucial context for understanding contemporary debates in the Muslim world At a time when much talk about Islam is filled with misunderstanding stereotypes and bias this book provides a fresh and lucid portrait of the continuous and ongoing transformations of a religion of tremendous variety and complexity      The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr,1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential      Selected Poetry and Prose Samuel Johnson,1977      Slavery and the Invention of Dutch Art Caroline Fowler,2024-12-06 In Slavery and the Invention of Dutch Art Caroline Fowler examines the fundamental role of the transatlantic slave trade in the production and evolution of seventeenth century Dutch art Whereas the sixteenth century image debates in Europe engaged with crises around the representation of divinity Fowler argues that the rise of the transatlantic slave trade created a visual field of uncertainty around picturing the transformation of life into property Fowler demonstrates how the emergence of landscape maritime and botanical painting were deeply intertwined with slavery s economic expansion Moreover she considers how the development of one of the first art markets was inextricable from the trade in human lives as chattel property Reading seventeenth century legal theory natural history inventories and political pamphlets alongside contemporary poetry theory and philosophy from Black feminism and the African diaspora Fowler demonstrates that ideas about property personhood and citizenship were central to the oeuvres of artists such as Rembrandt van Rijn Hercules Segers Frans Post Johannes Vermeer and Maria Sibylla Merian and therefore inescapably within slavery s grasp      The American House Poem, 1945-2021 Walt Hunter,2024-01-11 This book explores the politics of American housing from the perspective of poets Hunter follows the emergence of an American house poem which offers uniquely vivid expressions of the expansion of homeownership as a core tenet of American prosperity and democracy      Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel,1974
