And Beastly Morality Animals Ethical Agents:

Beastly Morality Jonathan K. Crane, 2015-12-01 We have come to regard nonhuman animals as beings of concern and we even grant them some legal protections But until we understand animals as moral agents in and of themselves they will be nothing more than distant recipients of our largesse Featuring original essays by philosophers ethicists religionists and ethologists including Marc Bekoff Frans de Waal and Elisabetta Palagi this collection demonstrates the ability of animals to operate morally process ideas of good and bad and think seriously about sociality and virtue Envisioning nonhuman animals as distinct moral agents marks a paradigm shift in animal studies as well as philosophy itself Drawing not only on ethics and religion but also on law sociology and cognitive science the essays in this collection test long held certainties about moral boundaries and behaviors and prove that nonhuman animals possess complex reasoning capacities sophisticated empathic sociality and dynamic and enduring self conceptions Rather than claim animal morality is the same as human morality this book builds an appreciation of the variety and character of animal sensitivities and perceptions across multiple disciplines moving animal welfarism in promising new directions Theological Ethics Through a Multispecies Lens Celia

Deane-Drummond, 2019 This book is the first volume on the evolution of wisdom Using a combination of ethnographic and ethological studies it shows how key moral attributes of compassion justice and wisdom are woven into relationships with animals

Multicultural and Religious Perspectives on Protecting the Environment, the Biosphere, and Biodiversity Joseph Tham, John Lunstroth, Sameer Advani, 2025-09-30 This thought provoking volume unites bioethics experts from seven major world religions Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Daoism Hinduism Islam and Judaism alongside secular thinkers to explore environmental protection through the lens of the UNESCO Declaration on Bioethics and Human Rights It foregrounds the power of diverse perspectives in addressing one of humanity's most pressing challenges the ecological crisis The contributions provide rich and distinct religious and cultural viewpoints as they confront the anthropological ethical and social dimensions of this crisis Showcasing dialogue where traditions and philosophies collide they offer unique insights into global bioethics and human rights that should inspire new ways of thinking and foster meaningful collaboration in the fight for our planet's future The book is valuable reading for researchers scholars and students in bioethics environmental ethics religious studies and beyond

Humbling Faith Peter Admirand, 2019-03-22 This is a book hoping to embolden doubt and sharpen unanswerable questions all in the context of loving the self and one another Ridiculously it believes the world can be healed through such a hope It is especially addressed to those allergic to the word faith and others who feel confident and proud in the faith they profess or system of thought they live by Humbling Faith helps us see how our beliefs or non beliefs our belongings and identities often remain flawed myopic self absorbed unredeemed The hope is that such awareness of our brokenness can fuel greater ethical partnerships and dialogue promoting peace from our recognized need for one another Humbling Faith is not only a resource towards humbling other faiths but most importantly your own      Animal Passions and Beastly Virtues Marc Bekoff, 2006 An engaging thoughtful look at the science and ethics of research into animal behavior      An Ethical View of Human-Animal Relations in the Ancient Near East Idan Breier, 2022-10-19 Exploring the earliest literary evidence for human animal relations this volume presents and analyzes biblical and Mesopotamian Sumerian Assyrian and Babylonian sources from the third millennium BCE through to the consolidation of the biblical literature in the first millennium BCE Key Features Provides the first comprehensive study of these texts from an ethical perspective Examines proverbs popular aphorisms myths epic literature wisdom literature historiography prophecy and law codes Applies methodology from current contemporary biblical and ancient Near Eastern scholarship and human animal ethics thereby raising new questions that lead to fresh insights An Ethical View of Human Animal Relations in the Ancient Near East is essential reading for scholars and graduate students of animal ethics applied ethics and biblical studies      Animals in Heaven? Terry Martin, 2024-09-26 Christians of all traditions have often puzzled with the question Do dogs go to heaven Drawing on Catholic teaching and on his long pastoral experience as a parish priest Terry Martin expands that concept to consider wider issues around all animals domesticated and free living and why they are here Within a context of Christian faith he seeks to understand the place of animals in God's complex creation and the relationship that human beings have for good or ill with those animals More than that he looks at the big questions which so many ask about who under God animals are and what meaning if any animal lives have from a Catholic Christian perspective      Eating Ethically Jonathan K. Crane, 2017-12-19 Few activities are as essential to human flourishing as eating and fewer still are as ethically fraught Eating well is particularly confusing We live amid excess faced with conflicting recommendations contradictory scientific studies and complex moral medical and environmental consequences that influence our choices A new eating strategy is urgently needed one grounded in ethics informed by biology supported by philosophy and theology and ultimately personally achievable Eating Ethically argues persuasively for more adaptive eating practices Drawing on religion medicine philosophy cognitive science art ethics and more Jonathan K. Crane shows how distinguishing among the eater the eaten and the act of eating promotes a radical reorientation away from external cues and toward internal ones This turn is vital for survival according to classic philosophy on appetite and contemporary studies of satiety metabolic science as well as metaphysics and religion By intertwining ancient wisdom from Judaism Christianity and Islam with cutting edge research Crane concludes that ethical eating is a means to achieve both personal health and social cohesion Grounded in science and tradition Eating Ethically shows us what it truly means to eat well      Animal Ethics in the Age of Humans Bernice Bovenkerk, Jozef Keulartz, 2016-09-21 This book provides reflection on the increasingly blurry boundaries that characterize the human animal relationship In the Anthropocene humans and animals have come closer together and this asks for rethinking old divisions Firstly new scientific insights and technological advances lead to a blurring of the boundaries between animals and humans Secondly our increasing influence on nature leads to a rethinking of the old distinction between individual animal ethics and collectivist environmental ethics Thirdly ongoing urbanization and destruction of animal habitats leads to a blurring between the categories of wild and domesticated animals Finally globalization and global climate change have led to the fragmentation of natural habitats blurring the old distinction between in situ and ex situ conservation In this book researchers at the cutting edge of their fields systematically examine the broad field of human animal relations dealing with wild liminal and domestic animals with conservation and zoos and with technologies such as biomimicry This book is timely in that it explores the new directions in which our thinking about the human animal relationship are developing While the target audience primarily consists of animal studies scholars coming from a wide range of disciplines including philosophy sociology psychology ethology literature and film studies many of the topics that are discussed have relevance beyond a purely theoretical one as such the book also aims to inspire for example biologists conservationists and zoo keepers to reflect on their relationship with animals

Animals and Animality in the Babylonian Talmud Beth A. Berkowitz, 2018-04-19 This book offers new perspectives on animals and animality from the vantage point of the rabbis of the Babylonian Talmud

Animals as Legal Beings Maneesha Deckha, 2020 In Animals as Legal Beings Maneesha Deckha critically examines how Canadian law and by extension other legal orders around the world participate in the social construction of the human animal divide and the abject rendering of animals as property Through a rigorous but cogent analysis Deckha calls for replacing the exploitative property classification for animals with a new transformative legal status or subjectivity called beingness In developing a new legal subjectivity for animals one oriented toward respecting animals for who they are rather than their proximity to idealized versions of humanness Animals as Legal Beings seeks to bring critical animal theorizations and animal law closer together Throughout Deckha draws upon the feminist animal care tradition as well as feminist theories of embodiment and relationality postcolonial theory and critical animal studies Her argument is critical of the liberal legal view of animals and directed at a legal subjectivity for animals attentive to their embodied vulnerability and desirous of an animal friendly cultural shift in the core foundations of anthropocentric legal systems Theoretically informed yet accessibly presented Animals as Legal Beings makes a significant contribution to an array of interdisciplinary debates and is an innovative and astute argument for a meaningful more than human turn in law and policy

Biocommunication: Sign-mediated Interactions Between Cells And Organisms Richard Gordon, Joseph Seckbach, 2016-11-01 All coordination between cells organs and organisms depends on successful biocommunicative processes There are abundant cases of communication in the biological world both within intraspecific and between interspecific single cell and multicellular microorganisms and higher animal forms Split into two parts this book first looks at the history development and progress within the field of biocommunication The second part presents real life case studies and investigation into examples of biocommunication in the biological world Among the organisms covered are bacteria fungi plants terrestrial and marine animals including bonobos chimpanzees and dolphins as well as a new theory of communication between parts in developing embryos cybernetic embryos Contributions from international experts in the field provide up to date research and results while in depth analysis expands on these findings to pave the way for future discoveries As the first comprehensive review of its kind it is perfect for undergraduates graduates professionals and researchers in the field of life sciences     The Oxford Handbook of the Bible and Ecology Hilary Marlow,Mark Harris,2022 Does the Bible have anything to contribute to contemporary concerns about the environment This collection of essays on the Bible and ecology explores biblical texts and their interpretation in the light of ecological issues The handbook covers a number of political and ethical issues as well as offering detailed exploration of individual Bible books It discusses a number of controversial views including whether the Judeo Christian tradition has contributed to the environmental crisis and how the Bible is used by climate change deniers     The Creative Lives of Animals Carol Gigliotti,2025-10-07 The Creative Lives of Animals offers readers intimate glimpses of how animals from elephants to alligators to ants apply the creative process in their lives requiring a redefinition of creativity that includes animals as essential contributors to biodiversity     Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 3, Number 2 John Berkman,Charles Camosy,Celia E. Deane-Drummond,2014-12-09 NON HUMAN ANIMALS Volume 3 Number 2 June 2014 Edited by John Berkman Charles C Camosy and Celia Deane Drummond Introduction Catholic Moral Theology and the Moral Status of Non Human Animals John Berkman and Celia Deane Drummond From Theological Speciesism to a Theological Ethology Where Catholic Moral Theology Needs to Go John Berkman Animals Evil and Family Meals Julie Rubio The Use of Non Human Animals in Biomedical Research Can Moral Theology Fill the Gap Charles C Camosy and Susan Kopp Evolutionary Perspectives on Inter Morality and Inter Species Relationships Interrogated in the Light of the Rise and Fall of Homo sapiens sapiens Celia Deane Drummond Moral Passions A Thomistic Interpretation of Moral Emotions in Nonhuman and Human Animals Jean Porter Speaking Theologically of Animal Rights James E Helmer     The Moral Responsibility of Firms Eric W. Orts,N. Craig Smith,2017 This book examines whether firms as organizations can be considered morally responsible for their actions This question has profound practical implications as well as theoretical significance not least when we are today so frequently confronted with misconduct in business     Animals and Religion Dave Aftandilian,Barbara R. Ambros,Aaron S. Gross,2024-02-06 What do animals other than human animals have to do with religion How do our religious ideas about animals affect the lives of real animals in the world How can we deepen our understanding of both animals and religion by considering them together Animals and Religion explores how animals have crucially shaped how we understand ourselves the other living beings around us and our relationships with them Through incisive analyses of religious examples from around the world the original contributions to this volume demonstrate how animals have played key roles in every known religious tradition whether as sacred beings symbols objects of concern fellow creatures or religious teachers And through our religious imagination ethics and practices we have deeply impacted animal lives whether by domesticating sacrificing dominating eating refraining from eating blessing rescuing releasing commemorating or contemplating them Drawing primarily on perspectives from religious studies and Christian theology augmented by cutting edge work in anthropology biology philosophy and psychology Animals and Religion offers the reader a richer understanding of who animals are and who we humans are Do animals have emotions Do they think or use language Are they persons How we answer questions like these affects diverse aspects of religion that shape not only how we relate to other animals but also how we perceive and misperceive each other along axes of gender race and disability Accessibly written and thoughtfully argued Animals and Religion will interest anyone who wants to learn more about animals religion and what it means to be a human animal Face to Face with Animals Peter Atterton, Tamra

Wright, 2019-05-01 Explores Levinas's approach to animal ethics from a range of perspectives This is the first volume of primary and secondary source material dedicated solely to the animal question in Levinas Drawing on previously unpublished material including the recent discovery and digitization of the original French recording of an interview with Levinas that took place in 1986 it seeks to give fresh impetus to the debate surrounding the moral status of animals in Levinas's work The book offers ten essays by leading scholars along with a general introduction that places Levinas's philosophy in the context of the growing field of animal ethics The aim of the volume is to encourage dialogue on how we can extend Levinas's ethics beyond its traditional human confines and to spur further research on the opportunities and challenges it raises Face to Face with Animals is an extraordinarily important and timely contribution Although the question of the animal has weighed heavily upon Levinas scholars for more than two decades it has not until now formed the subject of a book length study This volume rectifies that absence and proves to have been well worth the wait It is more than scholarly It is also in its own way a rousing call to thinking and acting otherwise in the face of the unsettling gazes of animal others and in the shadow of their useless suffering Reading Levinas both with and against the grain Face to Face with Animals makes clearer than ever that injustice is irreducible to inhumanity David L Clark coeditor of Intersections Nineteenth Century Philosophy and Contemporary Theory This book contributes the most sustained and multifaceted engagement with Levinas on animals and animality to date In particular it makes an important and unique contribution to the interdisciplinary field of animal studies in which Levinas has long been a figure of great interest in light of the promise his ethics of alterity would seem to hold for developing an ethics that encompasses nonhuman animals Karalyn Kendall Morwick Washburn University Multicultural and Interreligious

Perspectives on the Ethics of Human Reproduction Joseph Tham, Alberto Garcia Gómez, John Lunstroth, 2022-01-03 This book includes a number of distinct religious and secular views on the anthropological ethical and social challenges of reproductive technologies in the light of human rights and in the context of global bioethics It includes contributions of bioethics experts from six major religions Buddhism Confucianism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Judaism as well as secular authors The chapters include commentaries discussing the content cross religious secular tradition to give a comparative perspective Not only the volume editors but also the contributing authors took part in reviewing each others chapter making this a unique collected volume not common in interreligious dialogue today This text appeals to researchers and students working in the fields of bioethics and religious secular studies

Sex, Gender, Ethics and the Darwinian Evolution of Mankind Michel Veuille, 2024-06-28 Sex Gender Ethics and the Darwinian Evolution of Mankind examines the impact of Darwin's Descent of Man on contemporary biology and the humanities Its publication in 1871 was a founding event in anthropology Its content was primarily concerned with the development of sexual life social life and intellectual life not only as outcomes of evolution but as components that have actively intermixed over time with the evolutionary mechanism of natural selection The stamp of Darwinism on modern thought is still very important and brings novelties to academic studies Several fields influenced by Darwinian anthropology developed in recent decades including evolutionary ethics the evolution of sociality and sexual communication in animal and plant species Sociobiology and evolutionary psychology are topics that draw heavily on Darwin's Descent of Man The understanding of Darwin's thought has also progressed greatly in recent decades following the systematic study of Darwin's correspondence and notebooks leading to a reassessment of the development of his thought on humans social groups and heredity and how they come together in his theory of evolution The book combines a historical perspective on Darwin's achievement and his legacy It will be of interest to students and scholars in a variety of fields from experimental biology to the social and historical sciences
