Greeks, Books and Libraries in Renaissance Venice Rosa Maria Piccione, 2020-11-09 What does writing Greek books mean at the height of the Cinquecento in Venice The present volume provides fascinating insights into Greek language book production at a time when printed books were already at a rather advanced stage of development with regards to requests purchases and exchanges of books copying and borrowing practices relations among intellectuals and with institutions and much more Based on the investigation into selected institutional and private libraries in particular the book collection of Gabriel Severos guide of the Greek Confraternity in Venice the authors present new pertinent evidence from Renaissance books and documents discuss methodological questions and propose innovative research perspectives for a sociocultural approach to book histories

The End of Conduct Barbara Correll, 2019-06-07 Grobianus et Grobiana a little known but key Renaissance text is the starting point for this examination of indecency conduct and subject formation in the early modern period First published in 1549 Friedrich Dedekind's ironic poem recommends the most disgusting behavior indecency as a means of instilling decency The poem Barbara Correll maintains not only supplements prior conduct literature but offers a reading of it as well her analysis of the Grobianus texts

the neo Latin original the German vernacular adaptation the 1605 English translation and Thomas Dekker's Guls Horne booke also provides a historical account of conduct during the shift from a medieval to a Renaissance sensibility According to Correll the effect of Dedekind's text is to establish normative masculine identity through the labor of aversion The gross material body must be subjugated and reconstituted in order to attain its status as the bearer of civil manhood Correll shows how the virtual subject of civil conduct emerges in dominant yet necessarily beleaguered relation to colonized Others whether in feminine animal or peasant guise Referring to Renaissance courtesy literature from Castiglione to Erasmus she identifies this double drama of early modern subject formation as central to conduct books as well as to their grobian extensions Her work places Grobianus in the civilizing process that marked emerging bourgeois society in early modern Europe

From Lived Experience to the Written Word Pamela H. Smith, 2022-09-30 How and why early modern European artisans began to record their knowledge In From Lived Experience to the Written Word Pamela H Smith considers how and why beginning in 1400 CE European craftspeople began to write down their making practices Rather than simply passing along knowledge in the workshop these literate artisans chose to publish handbooks guides treatises tip sheets graphs and recipe books sparking early technical writing and laying the groundwork for how we think about scientific knowledge today Focusing on metalworking from 1400 1800 CE Smith looks at the nature of craft knowledge and skill studying present day and historical practices objects recipes and artisanal manuals From these sources she considers how we can reconstruct centuries of largely lost knowledge In doing so she aims not only to unearth the techniques material processes and embodied experience of the past but also to gain insight into the lifeworld of artisans and their understandings of matter

Routes, Roads and Landscapes Brita Brenna, Janike Kampevold Larsen, 2016-12-05 Routes and roads make their way into and across the landscape defining it as landscape and making it accessible for many kinds of uses and perceptions Bringing together outstanding scholars from cultural history geography philosophy and a host of other disciplines this collection examines the complex entanglement between routes and landscapes It traces the changing conceptions of the landscape from the Enlightenment to the present day looking at how movement has been facilitated imagined and represented and how such movement in turn has conditioned understandings of the landscape A particular focus is on the modern transportation landscape as it came into being with the canal the railway and the automobile These modes of transport have had a profound impact on the perception and conceptualization of the modern landscape a relationship investigated in detail by authors such as Gernot Böhme Sarah Bonnemaïson Tim Cresswell Finola O Kane Charlotte Klonk Peter Merriman Christine Macy David Nye Vittoria Di Palma Charles Withers and Thomas Zeller The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship, 2025-09-09 The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship draws together leading and emerging scholars of Shakespeare and early modern literature to consider anew how authorship worked in the time in which Shakespeare wrote and to interrogate the construction of the Shakespeare as author figure Composed of four main sections it offers fresh analysis of the literary and cultural influences and forces that formed authors in the period the mechanics of early modern authorship the mediation of Shakespeare and others works in performance manuscript and print and the critical and popular reimagining across times of Shakespeare as an author figure Diving into modern debates about early modern authorship authority and identity politics contributors supply rich new accounts of the wider scene of professional authorship in early modern England of how Shakespeare's writings contributed to it and of what made him distinctive within it Looking beyond Shakespeare the Handbook seeks to provide a vital testing ground for new research into early modern literature and culture more broadly

The Portable Bunyan Isabel Hofmeyr, 2018-06-05 How does a book become an international bestseller What happens to it as it is translated into different languages contexts and societies How is it changed by the intellectual environments it encounters What does the transnational circulation mean for its reception back home Exploring the international life of a particularly long lived and widely traveled book Isabel Hofmeyr follows The Pilgrim's Progress as it circulates through multiple contexts and into some 200 languages focusing on Africa where 80 of the translations occurred This feat of literary history is based on intensive research that criss crossed among London Georgia Kingston Bedford John Bunyan's hometown and much of sub Saharan Africa Finely written and unusually wide ranging it accounts for how The Pilgrim's Progress traveled abroad with the Protestant mission movement was adapted and reworked by the societies into which it traveled and finally how its circulation throughout the empire affected Bunyan's standing back in England The result is a new intellectual approach to Bunyan one that weaves together British African and Caribbean history with literary and translation studies and debates over African Christianity and mission Even more important this book is a rare example of a truly worldly study of world literature and of the critical importance of translation both linguistic and cultural
