Dance/Movement Therapy Sharon Chaiklin, Hilda Wengrower, 2015-08-27 The Art and Science of Dance Movement Therapy offers both a broad understanding and an in depth view of how and where dance therapy can be used to produce change The chapters go beyond the basics that characterize much of the literature on dance movement therapy and each of the topics covered offers a theoretical perspective followed by case studies that emphasize the techniques used in the varied settings Several different theoretical points of view are presented in the chapters illuminating the different paths through which dance can be approached in therapy Movement and Identity Marcia Bonato Warren, 2025-03-21 This trauma informed approach to counselling and bodywork explores the ways in which varying facets of identity and culture manifest in the body allowing a much more nuanced person centred approach to client care Marcia Bonato Warren MA MA LPC describes how our bodies interpret our identities often informed by cultural norms communication styles trauma and systems of power and oppression Therapists and bodyworkers reading this book will have the opportunity to engage personally and professionally learning to build on their own somatic awareness in order to engage with compassionate curiosity rather than resistance when confronted with identity based differences Each section uses the SIA Loop a mechanism representing three entry points we use to process information Sensation Interpretation Action which supports the deeper work offered by the Identity Expression Infinity Loop where identities are invited to move with strength and skill These pioneering tools allow readers to examine their own somatic experiences beliefs behaviours and choices all of which is supplemented with journal prompts and questions In guiding readers in how to interpret the body's expression of identity this unique guide maximises the potential of therapists to foster change increase empathy and nurture connection through trauma informed somatically aware bodywork Assessment in the Creative Arts Therapies Stephen Snow, 2009 The First Year of the Rest of Your Life

Ruella Frank, Frances La Barre, 2011-01-19 The movement repertoire that develops in the first year of life is a language in itself and conveys desires intentions and emotions This early life in motion serves as the roots of ongoing nonverbal interaction and later verbal expression in short this language remains a key element in communication throughout life In their path breaking book gestalt therapist Ruella Frank and psychoanalyst Frances La Barre give readers the tools to see and understand the logic of this nonverbal realm They demonstrate how observations of fundamental movement interactions between babies and parents cue us to coconstructed experiences that underlie psychological development Numerous clinical vignettes and detailed case studies show how movement observation opens the door to understanding problems that develop in infancy and also those that appear in the continuing nonverbal dimension of adult communication Their user friendly nonverbal lexicon foundational movement analysis enhances perception of emerging interactive patterns of parents and their babies couples and individual adults within psychotherapy Clinicians in any setting will find this book to be a masterful application of infant research and movement theory that significantly augments clinical acumen and promotes greater understanding of the nonverbal basis of all relationships
