transformation of the Kenya African National Union KANU from a weak loosely organized political party under Jomo Kenyatta into an arm of the president's office with watchdog youth wings and strong surveillance and control functions under Moi. She suggests that single party systems have an inherent tendency to become party states or single party regimes in which the head of state uses the party as a means of control. The Aberdeen University Review, 1961 Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon. Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history. Unprecedented in scale, DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa, from Sierra Leone to Somalia. It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490-1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243-183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909-1972, Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918.

The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 Simon Gikandi, Evan Mwangi, 2007-04-24. The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 challenges the conventional belief that the English language literary traditions of East Africa are restricted to the former British colonies of Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania. Instead, these traditions stretch far into such neighboring countries as Somalia and Ethiopia. Simon Gikandi and Evan Mwangi assemble a truly inclusive list of major writers and trends. They begin with a chronology of key historical events and an overview of the emergence and transformation of literary culture in the region. Then they provide an alphabetical list of major writers and brief descriptions of their concerns and achievements. Some of the writers discussed include the Kenyan novelists Grace Ogot and Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Ugandan poet and essayist Taban Lo Liyong, Ethiopian playwright and poet Tsegaye Gabre Medhin, Tanzanian novelist and diplomat Peter Palangyo, Ethiopian novelist Berhane Mariam Sahle Sellassie, and the novelist M. G. Vassanji who portrays the Indian diaspora in Africa, Europe and North America. Separate entries within this list describe thematic concerns such as colonialism, decolonization, the black aesthetic, and the language question, the growth of genres like autobiography and popular literature, important movements like cultural nationalism and feminism, and the impact of major forces such as AIDS, HIV, Christian missions, and urbanization. Comprehensive and richly detailed, this guide offers a fresh perspective on the role of East Africa in the development of African and world literature in English and a new understanding of the historical, cultural and geopolitical boundaries of the region.
