Feminism, Labour and Digital Media Kylie

Jarrett, 2015-11-19 There is a contradiction at the heart of digital media We use commercial platforms to express our identity to build community and to engage politically At the same time our status updates tweets videos photographs and music files are free content for these sites We are also generating an almost endless supply of user data that can be mined re purposed and sold to advertisers As users of the commercial web we are socially and creatively engaged but also labourers exploited by the companies that provide our communication platforms How do we reconcile these contradictions Feminism Labour and Digital Media argues for using the work of Marxist feminist theorists about the role of domestic work in capitalism to explore these competing dynamics of consumer labour It uses the concept of the Digital Housewife to outline the relationship between the work we do online and the unpaid sphere of social reproduction It demonstrates how feminist perspectives expand our critique of consumer labour in digital media In doing so the Digital Housewife returns feminist inquiry from the margins and places it at the heart of critical digital media analysis

Death, Dying, and Social Differences David

Oliviere, Barbara Monroe, Sheila Payne, 2011-09-15 Society has become increasingly diverse multi cultural multi faith and wide ranging in family structures The wealthier are healthier and social inequalities are more pronounced Respecting and working with the range of differences among service users families and communities in health and social care with ill dying and bereaved people is a neglected area in the literature As the principles of palliative and end of life care increasingly permeate the mainstream of health and social care services it is important that professionals are sensitive and respond to the differing needs of individuals from diverse socio economic backgrounds ethnicities beliefs abilities and sexual orientations as well as to the different contexts and social environments in which people live and die This book explores what underpins inequality disadvantage and injustice in access to good end of life care Increasingly clinicians policy planners and academics are concerned about inequity in service provision Internationally there is an increasing focus and sense of urgency both on delivering good care in all settings regardless of diagnosis and on better meeting the needs of vulnerable and disadvantaged groups National initiatives emphasise the importance of resolving disparities in care and harnessing empowered user voices to drive change This newly expanded fully revised second edition with 11 new chapters provides a comprehensive analysis of discrimination difference and disadvantage in end of life care and offers practical guidance for all who seek to support the equitable provision of good end of life care International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love aging health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures proves otherwise The authors revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is But that's what love does It communicates what it offers what can be and pleads for what must be I know you'll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do Jeffrey Ady Associate Professor retired Public Administration Program University of Hawaii at Manoa Founding Fellow International Academy for Intercultural Research The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium It is a breath taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love one night stands teen romance or love of leaders and many more This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies Eva Illouz author of The End of Love A sociology of Negative relationships Oxford University Press This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts personal and professional settings and cultures The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives Reviewed by Dr George F Simons on amazon.com Please see Claude H l ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook in LeanHealth Talks published by Bernadette Bruckner <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VNXA9sWuWo> Please see Claude H l ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook
