Joshua en Nicholas sit by 'n koffiewinkel (coffee shop) op 'n besige (busy) Saterdagmiddag (Saturday afternoon). Die reuk (smell) van vars koffie (fresh coffee) hang in die lug (air). Joshua kyk bekommerd (worried) na sy koppie (coffee cup), terwyl Nicholas geduldig (patiently) na hom kyk.

Joshua:	(Hy sug [sighs]). Nicholas, ek weet regtig (right) nie wat om te doen nie. My werk druk (pushes) my van alle kante (sides). Dit voel asof ek verdrink (drowning) in die verantwoordelikhede (responsibilities).
Nichola s:	(Hy leun vorentoe [leans forward]). Ek kan sien jy's onder baie spanning (stress). Joshua. Het jy al oorweeg (considered) om met jou baas (boss) te praat?
Joshua:	(Hy vroetel met sy koppie [fiddles with his cup]). Ek het daaraan gedink, maar ek is bang (scared) dat hy dit verkeerd (wrongly) sal opneem (take).
Nichola s:	(Hy sit sy hand op Joshua se skouer [places his hand on Joshua's shoulder]). Soms (sometimes) is eerlikheid (honesty) die beste (better) roete (route). As jy nie iets sê nie, gaan dit dalk erger (worse) word. (Hy sluk swaar [gulps]). Jy is reg (right), maar wat as dit nie werk (works) nie?
Joshua:	(Hy glimlag gerusstellend [smiles reassuringly]) Kyk, Joshua, jy het meer beheer (control) oor jou lewe (life) as wat jy beseft (realize). Jy is 'n sterk (strong) en bekwame (capable) persoon. Gee dit 'n kans (opportunity).
Nichola s:	(Hy knik, met nuwe vasberadenheid [nods, with renewed_determination]) Dankie, Nicholas. Ek waardeer (appreciate) jou raad (advice). Ek sal probeer.
Joshua:	(Hy knyp Joshua se skouer bietjie harder [gently squeezes Joshua's shoulder]) Ek is altyd hier vir jou, my vriend. Ons sal dit saam (supporting) deurmaak.
Nichola s:	[216]

Nicholas en Joshua stap (walk) langs 'n rivier in die laatmiddagson (afternoon sun). Die lug (air) is koel (cool), en die geluid (sound) van die stromende (flowing) water skep (create) 'n rustige (calm) atmosfeer.

Nichola s:	(Hy kyk om hom heen [looks around]) Dit is so kalm (calm) hier, Joshua. Ek wens (wish) ons kon meer tyd (time) saam hier spandeer. (spend)
Joshua:	(Joshua glimlag [smiles]) Ja, dit voel asof al die bekommernisse (worries) van die wêreld (world) verdwyn (disappear) wanneer ek hier is.
Nichola s:	(Nicholas stop, kyk ernstig [stop, looks_seriously] na Joshua) Ek het lankal (realized) gesien dat jy iets (something) op jou hart (heart) het. Wat gaan aan?
Joshua:	(Joshua kyk af [looks_down], sug [sighs]) Ek voel verlore (lost), Nicholas. Dis asof ek nie meer my pad (path) in die lewe (life) kan vind (find) nie.

Afrikaans Paper3 2013:

Nelson Mandela Crain Soudien, 2017-03-22 The death of Nelson Mandela the great South African fighter for freedom in December 2013 prompted several colleagues within the World Council of Comparative Education Societies community to come together to think about the significance of his life and his work for education This book is the result of that coming together The contributing authors reflect on what his life the commitments he made and principally the values he took into the struggle for freedom in South Africa mean for education The point of departure for the book is that of honouring the man It begins with the argument that the values for which he stood namely the unconditional dignity of all human beings respect for difference and principally his lifelong commitment to justice have a special significance for how we as inhabitants of an increasingly connected and interdependent world conduct our personal lives our relationships with one another and with the material and living space which surrounds us It is an ecological approach As the world moves into a twenty first century where paradoxically we know so much and yet appear to understand so little and so find ourselves struggling to create social lives in which all of us can feel respected can offer respect to others and live lives free of fear and anxiety the values for which he stood have specific relevance for how we do the important job of teaching and what we put into it Mandela poses deeply provocative questions about the kinds of lives we seek for ourselves and for everybody else around us Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics The Final-Over-Final Condition Michelle Sheehan, Theresa Biberauer, Ian Roberts, Anders Holmberg, 2017-10-27 An examination of the evidence for and the theoretical implications of a universal word order constraint with data from a wide range of languages This book presents evidence for a universal word order constraint the Final over Final Condition FOFC and discusses the theoretical implications of this phenomenon FOFC is a syntactic condition that disallows structures where a head initial phrase is contained in a head final phrase in the same extended projection domain The authors argue that FOFC is a linguistic universal not just a strong tendency and not a constraint on processing They discuss the effects of the universal in various domains including the noun phrase the adjective phrase the verb phrase and the clause The book draws on data from a wide range of languages including

Hindi Turkish Basque Finnish Afrikaans German Hungarian French English Italian Romanian Arabic Hebrew Mandarin Pontic Greek Bagirmi Dholuo and Thai FOFC the authors argue is important because it is the only known example of a word order asymmetry pertaining to the order of heads As such it has significant repercussions for theories connecting the narrow syntax to linear order Assessing Multilingual Children Sharon Armon-Lotem, Jan de Jong (professore universitario.), Natalia Meir, 2015 Second language learners often produce language forms resembling those of children with Specific Language Impairment SLI At present professionals working in language assessment and education have only limited diagnostic instruments to distinguish language impaired migrant children from those who will eventually catch up with their monolingual peers This book presents a comprehensive set of tools for assessing the linguistic abilities of bilingual children It aims to disentangle effects of bilingualism from those of SLI making use of both models of bilingualism and models of language impairment The book's methods oriented focus will make it an essential handbook for practitioners who look for measures which could be adapted to a variety of languages in diverse communities as well as academic researchers

The Construction of Words Geert Booij, 2018-04-13 This volume focuses on detailed studies of various aspects of Construction Morphology and combines theoretical analysis and descriptive detail It deals with data from several domains of linguistics and contributes to an integration of findings from various subdisciplines of linguistics into a common model of the architecture of language It presents applications and extensions of the model of Construction Morphology to a wide range of languages Construction Morphology is one of the theoretical paradigms in present day morphology It makes use of concepts of Construction Grammar for the analysis of word formation and inflection Complex words are seen as constructions that is pairs of form and meaning Morphological patterns are accounted for by construction schemas These are the recipes for coining new words and word forms and they motivate the properties of existing complex words Both schemas and individual words are stored and hence there is no strict separation of lexicon and grammar In addition to abstract schemas there are subschemas for subclasses of complex words with specific properties This architecture of the grammar is in harmony with findings from other empirical domains of linguistics such as language acquisition word processing and language change

Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education
