The Borders of Subculture Alexander Dhoest, Steven Malliet, Jacques Haers, Barbara Segaeert, 2015-06-05 This book aims to revisit the notion of subculture for the 21st century reinterpreting it and extending its scope On the one hand the notion of resistance is redefined and applied to contemporary practices of cultural production and entrepreneurship On the other hand contributors reconsider the connection of subcultures to everyday culture exploring more mainstream forms of cultural production and consumption across a wider range of social groups As a consequence this book extends the scope to look beyond the white male adolescent urban cultures identified with earlier subcultural studies Contributors also examine fusions and crossovers between Western and non Western cultural practices Aspiring in Later Life Megha

Amrith,Victoria K. Sakti,Dora Sampaio,2023-07-14 While aspirations are most often connected to younger people this volume argues that people do not stop aspiring in older age Aspiring in Later Life brings together rich ethnographic cases from different regions of the world offering original insights into how aspirations are pursued over the course of life and in contexts of globalization and mobility This book is also freely available online as an open access digital edition Gender, Age and Musical Creativity Catherine Haworth,Lisa Colton,2016-03-03 From the perennially young precocious figure of little orphan Annie to the physical and vocal ageing of the eighteenth century castrato interlinked cultural constructions of age and gender are central to the historical and contemporary depiction of creative activity and its audiences Gender Age and Musical Creativity takes an interdisciplinary approach to issues of identity and its representation examining intersections of age and gender in relation to music and musicians across a wide range of periods places and genres including female patronage in Renaissance Italy the working class brass band tradition of northern England twentieth century jazz and popular music cultures and the contemporary New Music scene Drawing together the work of musicologists and practitioners the collection offers new ways in which to conceptualise the complex links between age and gender in both individual and collective practice and their reception essays explore juvenilia and late style in composition and performance the role of public and private institutions in fostering and sustaining creative activity throughout the course of musical careers and the ways in which genres and scenes themselves age over time
