A Woman's Place Judith Ruhe Diehl, 1985-01-01 By What Authority Do We Teach? Robert W. Pazmino, 2002-04-29 To reject power and its legitimate use is ultimately to reject God's gift and intention for Christians as we live in the world writes Robert W Pazmino He defines what authority is and how it is perceived by and operates in various Christian communities He applies these factors and the need for confident authoritative teachers specifically to the ministry of Christian education By What Authority Do We Teach completes a trilogy covering key elements of evangelical education Also in print are Foundational Issues in Christian Education an agenda of theological sociological psychological curricular and other concerns and Principles and Practices of Christian Education which integrates conversion and connection into the teaching task

Authority Vested Mary Todd, 2000 Like other major Protestant denominations in the United States the 2.6 million member Luther Church Missouri Synod LCMS founded in 1847 has struggled with issues of relevance and identity in society at large In this book Mary Todd chronicles the history of this struggle for identity in the LCMS critically examining the central often contentious issue of authority in relation to Scripture ministry and the role of women in the church In recounting the history of the denomination Todd uses the ministry of women as a case study to show how the LCMS has continually redefined its concept of authority in order to maintain its own historic identity Based on oral histories and solid archival research Authority Vested not only explores the internal life of a significant denomination but also offers critical insights for other churches seeking to maintain their Christian distinctives in religiously pluralistic America Lutheran

Women in God's Army Andrew Mark

Eason,2009-10-22 The early Salvation Army professed its commitment to sexual equality in ministry and leadership In fact its founding constitution proclaimed women had the right to preach and hold any office in the organization But did they Women in God s Army is the first study of its kind devoted to the critical analysis of this central claim It traces the extent to which this egalitarian ideal was realized in the private and public lives of first and second generation female Salvationists in Britain and argues that the Salvation Army was found wanting in its overall commitment to women s equality with men Bold pronouncements were not matched by actual practice in the home or in public ministry Andrew Mark Eason traces the nature of these discrepancies as well as the Victorian and evangelical factors that lay behind them He demonstrates how Salvationists often assigned roles and responsibilities on the basis of gender rather than equality and the ways in which these discriminatory practices were supported by a male defined theology and authority He views this story from a number of angles including historical gender and feminist theology ensuring it will be of interest to a wide spectrum of readers Salvationists themselves will appreciate the light it sheds on recent debates Ultimately however anyone who wants to learn more about the human struggle for equality will find this book enlightening
