Children Carolyn C. Brown, 2011-07-01 Sharing the Easter Faith with Children is theologically sound biblically focused educationally on target and developmentally appropriate Carolyn Brown writes clearly and helpfully with conviction and passion for what to share and how to share one's faith with children It should be required reading for every parent educator and pastor who wants to communicate and celebrate the Easter faith with children Brown packs a lot of practical suggestions insights and activities into this very readable resource I am confident children will mature in their understanding and affirmation of the Easter faith when they have been nurtured in families and congregations that take seriously what Brown offers Donald Griggs author of Teaching Today's Teachers to Teach It is easy to share the Christmas story and faith with children The story is beautiful and lends itself well to pageants and other celebratory events for children It is not so easy to share the Easter story and faith with children because the message and images are complex Many parents have trouble articulating what Easter means to them personally much less answering their children's questions In many congregations children are featured in palm parades on Palm Sunday but they are not specifically planned for at other Holy Week services When schools schedule an Easter break many families go away and thus unintentionally bypass the whole Easter message for years This book explores what the Easter message can mean to children as they grow up The author helps congregations and families share the Easter message with their children and include the children meaningfully in Lent Holy Week and Easter observances Included are materials for children from birth in the church nursery to age 12 and reproducible pages to create a booklet for parents The first section of the book describes the particular parts of the Easter faith that are important to children at different ages and comments on the biblical Easter texts from a child's point of view The second part of the book works through the Lenten season describing ways congregations can include children and providing program and worship plans including Lenten disciplines for children and their families Ash Wednesday Celebrating Palm Sunday or looking ahead on Passion Sunday Maundy Thursday Recalling the Last Supper Keeping Good Friday The church sponsored Easter Egg Hunt Easter Sunday Morning Another part of the book offers help to leaders who want to share the content with teachers parents or committees Also included is a comprehensive list of related resources This carefully researched and well grounded practical resource from a highly regarded Christian educator will strengthen your educational ministry with children and support parents as they shape the faith of their children

Children's Sermons A to Z Brett Blair, 2000-07 Anyone who has done children's sermons will sooner or later hear from someone that I learn more from the children's sermon than I do from the real sermon And indeed the truths of scripture are so simple that even a child can understand them So it's no accident that children's sermons have become a central part of the worship service in many churches Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter offer a year's worth of object lessons that engage children and impart profound lessons for all ages Two sermons are provided for each Sunday in Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary one based on the Second Lesson and one based on the Gospel The messages are structured in two parts the lesson uses an object to draw out active responses from children then the application connects that object to the assigned scripture reading Each message includes a clear statement of its exegetical aim Bright innovative perceptive creative grace filled Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter are all of those and much much more and that is reflected beautifully in their new book Children s Sermons A To Z James W Moore Pastor St Luke s United Methodist Church Houston Texas Brett Blair is associate pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church in Memphis Tennessee He holds the M Div degree from Yale University Divinity School and is a cum laude graduate of Oral Roberts University with B A and M A degrees in New Testament Literature Tim Carpenter is the pastor at First United Methodist Church in Bolivar Tennessee He is a graduate of Memphis Theological Seminary M Div and the University of Florida B A in political science

As Pilgrims Progress - Learning how Christians can walk hand in hand when they don't see eye to eye Stephen John March,David E. Bjork,2015-05-29 This book is for Roman Catholic and Evangelical Protestant lay people who wonder what relationship if any they might have with their friends who come from a different Christian faith tradition than their own The authors aim to address that question in a practical way They believe that while disagreements remain it is possible to preserve the integrity of the faith while relating positively to Christians who cherish other beliefs The opinions expressed in this book grew out of nearly thirty years of experience as evangelical protestant missionaries ministering in catholic parish communities in France The goal of the book is to move the readers beyond simply understanding each other to a place where they might begin using their diversity to stimulate and encourage each other in our common pursuit of obedient discipleship We know of no other book which targets ecumenical lay relations in this way

The Church Year at Home Christine E.
