Newman,2011 While spending the summer with their grandparents on a remote farm in South Carolina Ben Alderman and his sister Casey uncover a hidden world of magic a world their grandmother is secretly visiting It is a world where elves and dwarves are locked in mortal combat against a witch who is trying to free the last surviving wizard from exile The witch has been defeated once before but with the combined power of the wizard no one will be able to stand against them Much to Ben's dismay he learns that he is the one foretold in the ancient elfin prophecies to bring about the downfall of the witch and save this exciting new world from destruction Silk and Potatoes Adam Roberts,2022-06-08 This study constitutes the first to analyse the remarkable surge in popularity of Arthurian literature and art in the modern period from a broad range of instances of cultural production More novels with Arthurian themes have been published since the war than in any previous period and Silk and Potatoes provides detailed readings of some of the most famous including works by Marion Zimmer Bradley Anthony Burgess C J Cherryh Guy Gavriel Kay Mary Stewart Jack Vance and T H White In addition to examining Arthurian fiction with chapters on the general novel Historical fiction and Science Fiction this study examines the key cinematic examples of Arthuriana Boorman's Excalibur Bresson's Lancelot du Lac Rohmer's Perceval Le Gallois and Monty Python and the Holy Grail A further chapter goes on to look at the myriad other forms of cultural production based on Arthurian themes from Bugs Bunny to Pop Music from the Camelot of JFK to the British National Lottery This is a study that touches on many aspects of Arthuriana whilst developing two connected arguments about on the one hand the necessary anachronism of any modern Arthurian Literature and on the other the aesthetic political implications of this literature's success The whole whilst rooted in the scholarly debates on the enduring appeal of King Arthur is written in an accessible and entertaining style It will be of interest to students and teachers of Arthurian literature film and popular culture

Travels in Hyperreality Umberto Eco,2017-08-01 A scintillating collection of essays on Disneyland medieval times and much more from the author of Foucault's Pendulum Los Angeles Times Collected here are some of Umberto Eco's finest popular essays recording the incisive and surprisingly entertaining observations of his restless intellectual mind As the author puts it in the preface to the second edition In these pages I try to interpret and to help others interpret some signs These signs are not only words or images they can also be forms of social behavior political acts artificial landscapes From Disneyland to holography and wax museums Eco explores America's obsession with artificial reality suggesting that the craft of forgery has in certain cases exceeded reality itself He examines Western culture's enduring fascination with the middle ages proposing that our most pressing modern concerns began in that time He delves into an array of topics from sports to media to what he calls the crisis of reason Throughout these travels both physical and mental Eco displays the same wit learning and lively intelligence that delighted readers of The Name of the Rose and Foucault's Pendulum Translated by William Weaver Paradigm Found Kristian Kristiansen,Ladislav Šmejda,Jan Turek,2015-01-21 Paradigm Found brings together papers by renowned researchers from across Europe Asia and America to discuss a selection of pressing issues in current archaeological theory and method The book also reviews the effects and potential of various theoretical stances in the context of prehistoric archaeology The 23 papers provide a discussion of the issues currently re appearing in the focal point of theoretical debates in archaeology such as the role of the discipline in the present day society problems of interpretation in archaeology approaches to the study of social evolution as well as current insights into issues in classification and construction of typologies Taking a fresh and often provocative look at the challenges contemporary archaeology is facing the contributors evaluate the effects of past developments and discuss the impact they are likely to have on future directions in archaeology as an internationally connected discipline In its final part the volume reflects on current thinking on prehistory using case studies from a number of European regions and the Mediterranean from the Neolithic to the Roman Period The volume represents a tribute to the lifetime achievements of Professor Ev en Neustupn a distinguished Czech archaeologist who contributed to the advancement of prehistoric studies in Europe and to archaeological theory and method in particular
