Dostoevsky's boldest experiment with literary form it is a uniquely encyclopedic forum of fictional and nonfictional genres The Diary's radical format was matched by the extreme range of its contents In a single frame it incorporated an astonishing variety of material short stories humorous sketches reports on sensational crimes historical predictions portraits of famous people autobiographical pieces and plans for stories some of which were never written while others appeared in the Diary itself The Diary of a Writer Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 1954 Donated by Sydney Harris The Russian Soul Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2017 Text Unity and Cohesion of Dostoevsky's Writer's Diary Peter Sekirin, 2000 This is the first monographic study of Dostoevsky's Writer's Diary Fyodor Dostoevsky dedicated ten years of his life to the Diary which is about 1 200 pages long and is one of his most important works The key problem of its study is the problem of textual unity and cohesion The writer repeatedly referred to this work as a single text and a unity but at the same time the Diary consists of chapters sections and short stories which are different in style message and form In the thesis I make an attempt to solve this problem and to prove that the Diary is a cohesive text including its concept Chapter One references Chapter Two structure Chapter Three and semantics Chapter Four The first chapter is dedicated to the history of the Diary's creation and major concepts of its organization including early approaches to its general concept the treatment of this work as a unity history of Dostoevsky's taking the work at The Citizen and the Diary after 1875 The second chapter investigates relatedness of reference including time space and narration type The third chapter presents the analysis of structural coherence in particular inter textual and extra textual references and links The fourth chapter proves the unity of journalism fact and fiction in A Writer's Diary by F Dostoevsky In the conclusions I argue that Dostoevsky developed in his Diary a genuinely new form in Russian literature which may be identified as fictional journalism The Russian Soul: Selections from a Writer's Diary Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2017-09 A Writer's Diary Fedor Michajlovič Dostoevskij, 1994 The Dostoevsky Archive Peter Sekirin, 1997-01-01 Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky 1821ndash 1881 one of the greatest novelists of the 19th century continues to be one of the writers most focused upon in academia throughout the world With the recent opening of numerous archives in the former Soviet Union much new material has come to light that has not yet been incorporated in published works or standard curricula The Dostoevsky Archive comprehensively documents the entire life of the Russian novelist using contemporary Russian source documents the author's own letters and notes and those of his family and the memoirs of his contemporaries This fullscale reference work includes a detailed chronology an annotated bibliography and brief biographies of important contemporaries Fully indexed A Writer's Diary Fedor Mikhailovich Dostoevskii, 1993 Dostoevsky in the Arts and Beyond Olga Tabachinkova, Liudmila Saraskina, Galima Lukina, Ekaterina Salnikova, 2024-08-30 The book is a substantial contribution to international Dostoevsky research exploring Dostoevsky's contemporary relevance from a multicultural and multidisciplinary perspective It offers some fresh readings of Dostoevsky's texts presenting new complex studies on the writer and his works in the mirror of several arts of the last three decades The book is divided into three Parts

featuring researchers from Bulgaria Great Britain Russia and Ukraine Part One deals with conceptual issues treating Dostoevsky above all as a prophet and philosopher and thus determines the ideological system of coordinates for the studies presented in the rest of the book Part Two examines Dostoevsky's legacy through the lenses of literary theory music and Illustration art and Part Three via world cinema and theatre The volume has gathered together an array of original and innovative studies from world leading experts in Dostoevsky's creative universe to make an authoritative input into the field

Dostoevsky and the Christian Tradition George Pattison, Diane Oenning Thompson, 2001-09-06 Dostoevsky is one of Russia's greatest novelists and a major influence in modern debates about religion both in Russia and the West This collection brings together Western and Russian perspectives on the issues raised by the religious element in his work The aim of this collection is not to abstract Dostoevsky's religious teaching from his literary works but to explore the interaction between his Christian faith and his writing The essays cover such topics as temptation grace and law Dostoevsky's use of the gospels and hagiography Trinitarianism and the Russian tradition of the veneration of icons as well as reading aloud and dialogism In addition to an exploration of the impact of the Christian tradition on Dostoevsky's major novels Crime and Punishment The Idiot and The Brothers Karamazov there are also discussions of lesser known works such as The Landlady and A Little Boy at Christ's Christmas Tree Dostoevsky's Diary of a Writer Gary Saul Morson, 1986 Dostoevsky's Unfinished Journey Robin Feuer Miller, Professor Robin Feuer Miller, 2007-01-01 How does Dostoevsky's fiction illuminate questions that are important to us today What does the author have to say about memory and invention the nature of evidence and why we read How did his readings of such writers as Rousseau Maturin and Dickens filter into his own novelistic consciousness And what happens to a novel like Crime and Punishment when it is the subject of a classroom discussion or a conversation In this original and wide ranging book Dostoevsky scholar Robin Feuer Miller approaches the author's major works from a variety of angles and offers a new set of keys to understanding Dostoevsky's world Taking Dostoevsky's own conversion as her point of departure Miller explores themes of conversion and healing in his fiction where spiritual and artistic transfigurations abound She also addresses questions of literary influence intertextuality and the potency of what the author termed ideas in the air For readers new to Dostoevsky's writings as well as those deeply familiar with them Miller offers lucid insights into his works and into their continuing power to engage readers in our own times

Dostoevsky Sober Hope Finding Faith in the Bleak
Midwinter As winter descends to end the year 2023 it is a time for contemplation a time to revel in the joys and find balm for the woes of the past year a time to find the courage to hold on and the hope to thrive in the new year

Fyodor Dostoevsky 1821-1881 faced his own bleak and Russian winters from childhood play amongst the impoverished at his father's medical clinic to a last minute reprieve from the Tsar's firing squad for discussing banned books followed by ten years of prison camp and military service in exile. While his novels such as Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov demonstrate human depravity they also give glimmers of grace, love and beauty which have made him one of the most beloved novelists of all time. It is our hope that as you find time to relax during the holiday season making it a habit for the new year that you will find these discussions deeply meaningful.

Awaiting for you within are discussions of his characters from novels and short stories alike. Dostoevsky inspired poems and reviews of films, books and even contemporary music which reflect the light and warmth he dared to find in his own bleak winter.
