Images of Imperial Legacy Tea Sindbaek, Maximilian Hartmuth, 2011 There has been a tendency to view the history of the Balkans as essentially determined by historical legacies Whether in scholarly literature or in popular discourse the Ottoman or Habsburg pasts are thought to be accountable for a large variety of phenomena ranging from democratic culture or the lack thereof and adaptability to a free market economy to nepotism and the filthiness of public facilities By contrast the papers in this volume demonstrate that legacies are not unchanging determinants. Instead they are very much open to constant reinterpretations and re assessments depending on conditions in the present they are in short as much shaped by the present as they are by the past. Series Studien zur Geschichte Kultur und Gesellschaft Sudosteuropas Vol 10 National Union Catalog, 1956 Includes entries for maps and atlases General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
