Understanding and Tackling Underachievement: Whole-school Strategies to Meet the Needs of Vulnerable Children in Primary Schools , Born to Fail?: Social Mobility: A Working Class View Sonia Blandford, 2017-10-02 Sonia Blandford CEO of award winning charity Achievement for All writes brilliantly and honestly about the facing up to the realities of the white working class and how to address social mobility from the inside No one in the UK is better placed than Sonia to write about the struggles of white working class pupils in our schools She grew up on the Allied Estate in Hounslow and was the first member of her family to pursue education beyond the age of 14 and was also the first to attend university Sonia lost her mother when she took an accidental

overdose when she couldn't read the doctor's prescription. This tragic failing served as one of the inspirations for her to set up the award-winning Achievement for All organisation, who work with thousands of schools to help close the attainment gap. Born to Fail tackles head-on issues such as why education often doesn't matter to the working class, how education has failed to deliver for them, the importance of self-belief, action and confidence, and how the Early Years is the crucial time to build success from the start. Special Needs in the Early Years Rebecca Crutchley, 2017-10-23 Fully up to date with the SEND Code of Practice, this book explores all the key contemporary issues relevant to supporting children with special needs in an early years context. Combining theory with practice, it demonstrates how to ensure children's individual needs are at the heart of early years provision. Key topics covered include: The history and current climate of SEN provision; Working with Parents; Models of special needs provision; Leadership and inclusion; Professional ethics; Multi-agency working; Early intervention; International perspectives. This core textbook is an essential read for early years students at all levels and early years practitioners who wish to gain a greater understanding of the core issues affecting special needs provision.

Introduction to Special Educational Needs, Disability and Inclusion Alexandra Sewell, Joanne Smith, 2020-11-11 This essential textbook equips you with a strong understanding of theories, policies and practices and how they impact on Special Educational Needs and Disabilities, guiding you through your SEND course or modules. It provides you with the foundations and tools necessary to think critically about the issues and developments concerning SEND, inclusion and professional practice. The book includes material surrounding mental health in childhood and adolescence. Chapters on global perspectives of SEND and assistive technologies. Practical case studies, reflection questions and activities. Spotlights on key theories and research. Up to date information on policies impacting SEND. Leading on Pastoral Care Daniel Sobel, 2019-01-24 Written by a leading expert in the field of inclusion, Leading on Pastoral Care assists leaders and SENCOs in primary and secondary schools in managing the most difficult aspects of providing effective pastoral care, such as paperwork, time, confrontational parents and Ofsted. Sobel writes in an engaging style that reflects his commitment to supporting schools in developing effective strategies to deal with emotional trauma and complex needs. This is an excellent book. SEN Magazine Drawing on research and his extensive experience in leading a team that has worked with over 1,000 schools, Daniel Sobel presents tried and tested strategies, tools and tips to support the welfare of and improve outcomes for the most challenged and vulnerable students, all backed by case studies and real-life examples. Pastoral care being responsible for the welfare and progress of all students, particularly the most vulnerable, is an essential part of any leadership or SENCO role. However, one of the most significant challenges in providing such care is being able to manage resources, as well as staff, students, parents and external agencies, especially when time and money are scarce. It is all too easy for schools to expend time and money to support their most vulnerable students, but there are many solutions that can be put into practice to provide the best pastoral care as efficiently and effectively as possible. This book is essential reading for all primary and secondary middle leaders senior leaders and SENCOs who wish to provide the best support possible for their most vulnerable students all while reducing pressure stress and workload for themselves and their staff
