Petersen, J. de Beer, J. Varughese, A. Seugnet Blignaut, C. Els, 2016-12-31 This publication contains original research targeting scientific specialists in the field of education through research endeavours grounded on a philosophical basis as well as being embedded in the empirical The research methodology of each chapter emanates from applicable philosophical assumptions in the form of an applicable theoretical and conceptual framework The latter forms a firm basis for the application of sound empiricism The content of this book adds to the body of scholarly knowledge in education In his evaluation of the book Acting Executive Dean Faculty of Education and Training Professor Akpovire Oduaran made the following remarks To a large extent the ideas put together in this book have come from data generated not just from literature found in books and journals but actual interactions with educators and the learning environment So then what the reader is offered in this volume is the articulation of ideas that have been interrogated structured and presented in surprisingly simplistic and yet incisive and academically enriching content that can match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature The Training of African Teachers in Natal from 1846-1964 Nicolas Schicketanz, 2024-06-07 The history of African teacher training in Natal is one of the most neglected and under researched aspects of educational history This book attempts to set out the administrative history of this field as a first step in stimulating the further research that is so urgently needed Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Computational Linguistics and Intelligent Text Processing Alexander Gelbukh, 2018-03-20 The two volume set LNCS 9623 9624 constitutes revised selected papers from the CICLing 2016 conference which took place in Konya Turkey in April 2016 The total of 89 papers presented in the two volumes was carefully reviewed and selected from 298 submissions The book also contains 4 invited papers and a memorial paper on Adam Kilgarriff s Legacy to Computational Linguistics The papers are organized in the following topical sections Part I In memoriam of Adam Kilgarriff general formalisms embeddings language modeling and sequence labeling lexical resources and terminology extraction morphology and part of speech tagging syntax and chunking named entity recognition word sense disambiguation and anaphora resolution semantics discourse and dialog Part II machine translation and multilingualism sentiment analysis opinion mining subjectivity and social media text classification and categorization information extraction and applications South Africa's Emergent Middle Class Grace

Khunou,2017-10-02 This book is drawn from diverse studies that grapple with Black Middle Class experiences in contemporary and historical South Africa The chapters present research from diverse disciplines and tackle issues related to being black and middle class using both quantitative and qualitative approaches Like many other social phenomena the black middle class concept is seen as complex and not easy to pin down As a result conceptualizations from these chapters are dynamic and relevant for understanding the position of the black middle class in contemporary South African society An interesting dynamic explored by contributors is the critical engagement with the usually reductionist notions of black middle class experiences as ahistorical homogenous experiences of a group of conspicuous consumers These limiting notions are unpacked and repositioned in how the book is structured This book was published as a special issue of Development Southern Africa

A Companion to African Literatures Olakunle George,2021-03-22 Rediscover the diversity of modern African literatures with this authoritative resource edited by a leader in the field How have African literatures unfolded in their rich diversity in our modern era of decolonization nationalisms and extensive transnational movement of peoples How have African writers engaged urgent questions regarding race nation ethnicity gender and sexuality And how do African literary genres interrelate with traditional oral forms or audio visual and digital media A Companion to African Literatures addresses these issues and many more Consisting of essays by distinguished scholars and emerging leaders in the field this book offers rigorous deeply engaging discussions of African literatures on the continent and in diaspora It covers the four main geographical regions East and Central Africa North Africa Southern Africa and West Africa presenting ample material to learn from and think with A Companion To African Literatures is divided into five parts The first four cover different regions of the continent while the fifth part considers conceptual issues and newer directions of inquiry Chapters focus on literatures in European languages officially used in Africa English French and Portuguese as well as homegrown African languages Afrikaans Amharic Arabic Swahili and Yoruba With its lineup of lucid and authoritative analyses readers will find in A Companion to African Literatures a distinctive rewarding academic resource Perfect for undergraduate and graduate students in literary studies programs with an African focus A Companion to African Literatures will also earn a place in the libraries of teachers researchers and professors who wish to strengthen their background in the study of African literatures George Broomhall's Corn Trade News ,1898 Debt as Power Richard H. Robbins,Tim Di Muzio,2016-01-01 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Debt as power is a timely and innovative contribution to our understanding of one of the most prescient issues of our time the explosion of debt across the global economy and related requirement of political leaders to pursue exponential growth to meet the demands of creditors and investors The book is distinctive in offering a historically sensitive and comprehensive analysis of debt as an interconnected and global phenomenon The People's Zion Joel Cabrita,2018-06-11 Joel Cabrita tells the story of Zionism which began in a utopian community near Chicago in 1900 Its faith healing spiritualism uplifting pan racialism and missionary zeal resonated with marginalized urban working class whites and blacks in both the United States and Southern Africa Today Zionism is Southern Africa s largest religious movement Go Back to Where You Came From Sasha Polakow-Suransky,2017-10-16 From Europe to the United States and beyond opportunistic politicians have exploited economic crisis terrorist attacks and an influx of refugees to bring hateful and reactionary views from the margins of political discourse into the corridors of power This climate has already helped propel Donald Trump to the White House pushed Britain out of the European Union and put Marine Le Pen within striking distance of the French presidency Sasha Polakow Suransky s on the ground reportage and interviews with the rising stars of the new right tell the story of how we got here tracing the global rise of anti immigration politics and the ruthlessly effective rebranding of Europe s new far right as defenders of Western liberal values Go Back to Where You Came From is an indispensable account of why xenophobia went mainstream in countries known historically as defenders of human rights and models of tolerance Testing Hearing Viktoria Tkaczyk,Mara Mills,Alexandra Hui,2020 Testing Hearing The Making of Modern Aurality argues that the modern cultural practices of hearing and testing have emerged from a long interrelationship Since the early nineteenth century auditory test tools whether organ pipes or electronic tone generators and the results of hearing tests have fed back into instrument calibration human training architecture and the creation of new musical sounds Hearing tests received a further boost around 1900 as a result of injury compensation laws and state and professional demands for aptitude testing in schools conservatories the military and other fields Applied at large scale tests of seemingly small measure of auditory acuity of hearing range helped redefine the modern concept of hearing as such During the twentieth and twenty first centuries the epistemic function of hearing expanded Hearing took on the dual role of test object and test instrument in the latter case human hearing became a gauge by which to evaluate or regulate materials nonhuman organisms equipment and technological systems This book considers both the testing of hearing and testing with hearing to explore the co creation of modern epistemic and auditory cultures The book s twelve contributors trace the design of ever more specific tests for the arts education and communication colonial and military applications sociopolitical and industrial endeavors Together they demonstrate that testing as such became an enduring and wide ranging cultural technique in the modern period one that is situated between histories of scientific experimentation and many fields of application

The Land Is Sung Thomas M. Pooley, 2023-10-17 What does it mean to belong In The Land Is Sung musicologist Thomas M Pooley shows how performances of song dance and praise poetry connect Zulu communities to their ancestral homes and genealogies For those without land tenure in the province of KwaZulu Natal performances articulate a sense of place Migrants express their allegiances through performance and spiritual relationships to land are embodied in rituals that invoke ancestral connection while advancing well being through intergenerational communication Engaging with justice and environmental ethics education and indigenous knowledge systems musical and linguistic analysis and the ethics of recording practice Pooley s analysis draws on genres of music and dance recorded in the midlands and borderlands of South Africa and in Johannesburg s inner city His detailed sound writing captures the visceral experiences of performances in everyday life The book is richly illustrated and there is a companion website featuring both video and audio examples
