Memorandum

Judith A. Bennett, Angela Wanhalla

Grade 11 November 2013 Alex Department Paper 2 Memorandum:

Mothers' Darlings of the South Pacific Judith A. Bennett, Angela Wanhalla, 2016-03-31 Over the course of World War II two million American military personnel occupied bases throughout the South Pacific leaving behind a human legacy of at least 4 000 children born to indigenous mothers Based on interviews conducted with many of these American indigenous children and several of the surviving mothers Mothers Darlings of the South Pacific explores the intimate relationships that existed between untold numbers of U S servicemen and indigenous women during the war and considers the fate of their mixed race children These relationships developed in the major U S bases of the South Pacific Command from Bora Bora in the east across to Solomon Islands in the west and from the Gilbert Islands in the north to New Zealand in the southernmost region of the Pacific The American military command carefully managed interpersonal encounters between the sexes applying race based U S immigration law on Pacific peoples to prevent marriage across the color line For indigenous women and their American servicemen sweethearts legal marriage was impossible giving rise to a generation of fatherless children most of whom grew up wanting to know more about their American lineage Mothers Darlings of the South Pacific traces these children s stories of loss emotion longing and identity and of lives lived in the shadow of global war Each chapter discusses the context of the particular island societies and shows how this often determined the ways intimate relationships developed and were accommodated during the war years and beyond Oral histories reveal what the records of colonial governments and the military have largely ignored providing a perspective on the effects of the U S occupation that until now has been disregarded by Pacific war historians The richness of this book will appeal to those interested the Pacific World War II as well as intimacy family race relations colonialism identity and the legal structures of U S immigration Handbook of Accessible Instruction and Testing Practices Stephen N. Elliott, Ryan J. Kettler, Peter A. Beddow, Alexander Kurz, 2018-03-08 The Second Edition of this handbook provides comprehensive coverage of the concept of accessibility and its application to the design and implementation of instruction and tests with all students It updates and expands on its original contents and responds to the increasing demand for research based evidence of accessible instruction and testing practices from the professional community Chapters explore how outcomes are affected when essential features or components of instructional materials and tests are not accessible to any portion of the student population The handbook addresses the new set of Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing that was published in 2014 as well as requirements for a high level of access for all interim and summative tests by national testing consortiums In addition the handbook describes how the Center for Applied Special Technology CAST has continued to advance Universal Design for Learning UDL principles in mainstream education with teachers of all types of students not just students with disabilities Topics featured in this text include A summary of U S policies that support inclusive assessment for students with disabilities An overview of international policies that support inclusive assessments Designing developing and implementing an accessible computer based national assessment system Universal Design for Learning UDL principles and the future of assessment Recent advancements in the accessibility of digitally delivered educational assessments The Handbook of Accessible Instruction and Testing Practices Second Edition is an essential reference for researchers practitioners and graduate students in education and allied disciplines including child and school psychology assessment testing and evaluation social work and education policy and politics Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper ,1877 "The" Illustrated London News ,1860 2000
