The Political Economy and Media Coverage of the European Economic Crisis Julien Mercille, 2014-08-27 The European economic crisis has been ongoing since 2008 and while austerity has spread over the continent it has failed to revive economies The media have played an important ideological role in presenting the policies of economic and political elites in a favourable light even if the latter's aim has been to shift the burden of adjustment onto citizens This book explains how and why using a critical political economic perspective and focusing on the case of Ireland Throughout Ireland is compared with contemporary and historical examples to contextualise the arguments made The book covers the housing bubble that led to the crash the rescue of financial institutions by the state the role of the European institutions and the International Monetary Fund austerity and the possibility of leaving the eurozone for Europe's peripheral countries Through a systematic analysis of Ireland's main newspapers it is argued that the media reflect elite views and interests and downplay alternative policies that could lead to more progressive responses to the crisis

Challenges to European Welfare Systems Klaus Schubert, Paloma de Villota, Johanna Kuhlmann, 2016-02-08 This book provides the first comprehensive analyses of the challenges all European welfare systems have been facing since 2007 combining in depth country based studies and comparative chapters It focuses on 1 the economic and financial crisis 2 demographic change and 3 the balance between avoiding risks and opening up opportunities in social policy The results show that European welfare systems tend to face the same challenges in different ways and that also their responses to those challenges differ considerably Although the EU also plays a part in shaping national welfare systems it becomes evident that European welfare systems are by no means converging in terms of social policy national diversity within Europe is still a major factor that will shape future developments in European welfare systems Oswaal CBSE Question Bank Class 11 Business Studies, Chapterwise and Topicwise Solved Papers For 2025 Exams Oswaal Editorial Board, 2024-02-03 Description of the product 100% Updated Syllabus Question Typologies We have got you covered with the latest and 100% updated curriculum along with the latest typologies of Questions Timed Revision with Topic wise Revision Notes Smart Mind Maps Study smart not hard Extensive Practice with 1000 Questions SAS Questions Sri Aurobindo Society To give you 1000 chances to become a champ Concept Clarity with 500 Concepts Concept Videos For you to learn the cool way with videos and mind blowing concepts NEP 2020 Compliance with Competency Based Questions Artificial Intelligence For you to be on the cutting edge of the coolest educational trends Shadow Networks Francisco Louçã, Michael Ash, 2018-10-03 The 2007 08 financial crisis surprised many economists and the public But how did the crisis come about why was it so deep and why has the clean up been so slow and painful Many accounts of the crisis focus on renegade activity in marginal financial sectors Shadow Networks challenges this pervading view and sets out to demonstrate that far from a dissident branch the shadow finance that initiated the crisis is tightly networked with and highly profitable for bank based finance The collapse was not an accident but baked into the system of finance from the start Shadow Networks traces the complex web of power that caused crisis and gives vivid descriptions of the actors in the quarter century leading up to 2007 to explain how the now decade long crisis took shape Shadow Networks Financial Disorder and the System that Caused Crisis is a probing examination of the roles of the powerful elite It traces the networks and institutions that support a finance focused market centered model of economy and society from their ascendancy to their surprising resilience in the face of manifest failures Remaking the Rust Belt Tracy Neumann, 2016-05-26 Cities in the North Atlantic coal and steel belt embodied industrial power in the early twentieth century but by the 1970s their economic and political might had been significantly diminished by newly industrializing regions in the Global South This was not simply a North American phenomenon the precipitous decline of mature steel centers like Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and Hamilton Ontario was a bellwether for similar cities around the world Contemporary narratives of the decline of basic industry on both sides of the Atlantic make the postindustrial transformation of old manufacturing centers seem inevitable the product of natural business cycles and neutral market forces In Remaking the Rust Belt Tracy Neumann tells a different story one in which local political and business elites drawing on a limited set of internationally circulating redevelopment models pursued postindustrial urban visions They hired the same consulting firms shared ideas about urban revitalization on study tours at conferences and in the pages of professional journals and began to plan cities oriented around services rather than manufacturing all well in advance of the economic malaise of the 1970s While postindustrialism remade cities it came with high costs In following this strategy public officials sacrificed the well being of large portions of their populations Remaking the Rust Belt recounts how local leaders throughout the Rust Belt created the jobs services leisure activities and cultural institutions that they believed would attract younger educated middle class professionals In the process they abandoned social democratic goals and widened and deepened economic inequality among urban residents

The Budget of the United States Government

United States. Office of Management and Budget,2015 Remaking European Political Economies Dennis

Zagermann,2023-12-18 From 2009 to 2015 the euro area of the European Union EU experienced an existential socio economic crisis To secure its institutional integrity the EU designed several new institutions to support member states in need but also to facilitate socio economic adjustments The European Stability Mechanism ESM lies at the centre of this strategy it provides financial assistance to member states in severe crisis on an intergovernmental basis while demanding compliance with adjustment programs from program countries Based on a comparative political economic analysis Remaking European Political Economies shows that the EU s financial assistance programs focused strongly on reforms that led to a partial convergence of program countries based on market based economic governance and reduced governmental influence in the economy The book draws on extensive empirically based case studies of two prominent euro area countries in crisis Greece and Ireland Dennis Zagermann illustrates that socio economic models in the euro area can experience institutional change if exposed to severe crises in combination with financial assistance programs that include policy conditionality In doing so his book sheds light on the central question of whether there is a possible convergence of European models of capitalism a question that has been at the centre of comparative political economic debates for over thirty years Gender Upper-Castes in Indian Constitutional Law Asang Wankhede, 2022-09-30 This book examines the controversial 103rd Constitutional Amendment to the Indian Constitution that introduced an income and asset ownership based new constitutional standard for determining backwardness marking a significant shift in the government's social and public policy. It also analyses state level policies towards backwardness recognition of upper caste dominant groups through case studies of Maharashtra, Haryana and Gujarat. It provides an analytical and descriptive account of the proliferation of reservation policy in India and critiques these interventions to assess their implication on constitutional jurisprudence. Further, it assesses the theoretical and empirical challenges such developments pose to the principle of substantive equality and scope of affirmative action policies in Indian constitutional law and general discrimination law theory. The monograph shows how opening up of reservations for dominant upper caste groups and general category will have implications for the constitutional commitment to addressing deeply entrenched marginalisation emanating from the traditional social hierarchy and the understanding of substantive equality in Indian Constitutional law. Further, it highlights key contradictions, incoherence and internal tension in the design of the reservations for Economically Weaker Sections. Critical, comprehensive and cogently argued, this book will contribute and shape ongoing constitutional policy and judicial debates. It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of law, Indian politics, affirmative action, social policy and public policy. Immigrant Student Achievement and Education Policy Louis Volante, Don Klinger, Ozge Bilgili, 2018-03-21 This book examines immigrant student achievement and education policy across a range of Western nations. It is divided into 3 sections. Part 1 introduces the topic of immigrant student achievement and the performance disadvantage that is consistently reported across a range of international jurisdictions. Part 2 then presents national profiles from scholars in ten countries: England, Germany, Italy, Sweden, Finland, Netherlands, Republic of Ireland, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. These educational jurisdictions were selected because they represent a range of Western nations engaged in large scale reform efforts geared towards enhancing their immigrant students' achievement. Each of the national profiles provides a brief overview of the evolution of the cultural composition of their respective school-aged student population, explains the trajectory of achievement results in non-immigrant and immigrant student groups in relation to both national and international large scale assessment measures, and discusses the effectiveness of policy responses that have been adopted to close the achievement gap between non-immigrant and immigrant student populations. It also examines the relationships between education policies and immigrant student achievement and discusses how education policies have evolved across various cultural contexts. In conclusion, Part 3 analyzes cross-cultural approaches designed to address the performance disadvantage of immigrant students and proposes future areas of inquiry stemming from the national profiles. The book offers insights into a diverse cross-section of nations and policy approaches to addressing the performance disadvantage. Law Entrance Exam 2024 - Solved 91 Topic-wise Tests For Various National and State Universities/Institutes - CLAT, LSAT, DU LLB, MHCET Law, AMU Law EduGorilla Prep
