Normal Instructor ,1909 A Bridge Between Katharine Massam,2020-10-28 A Bridge Between is the first account of the Benedictine women who worked at New Norcia and the first book length exploration of twentieth century life in the Western Australian mission town From the founding of a grand school intended for natives through links to Mexico and Paraguay then Ireland India and Belgium as well as to their house in the Kimberley and a network of villages near Burgos in the north of Spain this is a complex international history A Bridge Between gathers a powerful fragmented story from the margins of the archive recalling the Aboriginal women who joined the community in the 1950s and the compelling reunion of missionaries and former students in 2001 By tracing the all but forgotten story of the community of Benedictine women who were central to the experience of the mission for many Aboriginal families in the twentieth century this book lays a foundation for further work This sensitive account of Spanish Benedictine women at an Aboriginal mission in Western Australia is poignant and disturbing Notable for its ecumenical spirit depth of research and deep engagement with the subject A Bridge Between is a model of how religious history in its broader bearings can be written Graeme Davison Monash University With great insight and care A Bridge Between presents a sympathetic but not uncritical history of the lives of individuals who have often been invisible The story of the nuns at New Norcia is a timely contribution to Australia s religious history Given the findings of the Royal Commission it will be widely read both within and beyond the academy History is here a spiritual discipline and an exercise in hope and reconciliation Laura Rademaker The Australian National University
