

2024 ECONOMICS 12 MACROECONOMICS ESSAYS (P1)

A. CIRCULAR FLOW

1. Discuss in detail the markets within the FOUR-SECTOR model. (26 marks)

INTRODUCTION

- ✓ Market is the mechanism that brings buyers and sellers together to exchange goods and services. ✓✓
- ✓ Markets coordinate economic activities and determine prices of goods and services. ✓✓

BODY

PRODUCT AND FACTOR MARKETS

Product market/Goods/Output markets ✓

- Product market is where goods and services are exchanged for money. ✓✓
- E.g. Shoprite retailer. ✓
- These are markets for consumer goods and services. ✓✓
- In economics a distinction is made between goods and services:
- Goods are defined as any tangible items such as clothing, food cars that satisfy human wants or need. ✓✓
- Capital and consumer goods are traded in these markets. ✓✓
- Capital goods market are trading buildings and machinery. ✓✓
- Consumer goods markets are trading durable consumer goods, semi-durable goods and non-durable goods. ✓✓
- Services are defined as non-tangible actions e.g. wholesalers and retailer, transport and financial markets. ✓✓

Factor market/Resource/Input markets ✓

- Factor market is where factors of production are traded. ✓✓ e.g. labour is hired and capital is borrowed. ✓✓
- Households sell factors of production in this market. ✓✓
- These services earn wages for labour, interest for capital, rent for natural resources and profits for entrepreneurship. ✓✓
- Labour can be bought and sold in this market. ✓✓
- Factor market includes labour, property and financial markets. ✓✓
 - ✓ Product markets and factor markets are related in the sense that the demand for factor services is a derived demand. ✓✓

Leading in the Digital World Amit S. Mukherjee,2020-02-25 The definitive book on leadership in the digital era why digital technologies call for leadership that emphasizes creativity collaboration and inclusivity Certain ideas about business leadership are held to be timeless and certain characteristics of leaders often including a square jaw a deep voice and extroversion are said to be universal In Leading in the Digital World Amit Mukherjee argues that since digital technologies are changing everything else how could they not change leadership ideologies and styles As more people worldwide participate equally in business those assumptions of a leader s ideal profile have become irrelevant Offering a radical rethinking of leadership Mukherjee shows why digital technologies call for a new kind of leader one who emphasizes creativity collaboration and inclusivity Drawing on a global survey of 700 mid tier to senior executives and interviews with C level executives from around the world Mukherjee explains how digital technologies are already reshaping organizations and work and what this means for leaders For example globally dispersed businesses can t reserve key leadership roles for people from exclusive groups leadership must become inclusive or fail Leaders must learn to collaborate in a multipolar world of networked organizations working with co located and non co located colleagues Leaders must lead for creativity rather than productivity Focusing on practice Mukherjee outlines goals and strategies warns against unthinking assumptions and explains how leaders can identify the mindsets behaviors and actions they need to pursue With Leading in the Digital World Mukherjee offers the definitive book on leadership for the digital era MGMT4 Chuck Williams, Alan McWilliams, Rob Lawrence, Wahed Waheduzzaman, 2019-09-09 MGMT4 is the fourth Asia Pacific edition of this innovative approach to teaching and learning the principles of management Concise yet complete coverage of the subject supported by a suite of online learning tools and teaching material equips students and instructors with the resources required to successfully undertake an introductory management course This highly visual and engaging resource is now available on the MindTap eLearning platform allowing for seamless delivery both online and in class With the Cengage Mobile app students can take course materials with them anytime anywhere New print versions of this book include access to the MindTap platform ICICKM 2017 14th International Conference on Intellectual Capital Knowledge Management & Organisational Learning Prof. Eric Tsui , Prof. Benny Cheung, 2017-07-12 African Luxury Branding Mehita Iqani, 2022-12-23 Bringing together critical race queer and decolonial analytical approaches visual analysis and multimodal discourse analysis this book explores the discursive strategies deployed by African luxury brands in an age of cross platform intertextual branding Building on literature examining the aesthetics and politics of African luxury this book demonstrates how leading African luxury brands create visual material speaking to complex sensibilities of culture nature and future Iqani shows how powerful brand narratives and strategies reveal ethical and ideological messages that function to re position Africa in an increasingly congested global marketplace of ideas In acknowledging that there is a strong political validity to recognizing the importance of African brands staking their claim in luxury this book also problematizes the role these brands play in the promotion of luxury discourses advancing the project of capitalism and their contribution to broader patterns of inequality Shedding new light not only on luxury branding strategies but also on the idea of a luxurious global Africanity and on the complex cultural politics of South Africa African Luxury Branding will be of interest to advanced students and researchers in disciplines including Critical Advertising Studies African Studies Media and Communications The Geneva Papers Christophe Courbage, 2016-04-29 In January 1976 Raymond Barre the first President of The Geneva Association and Orio Giarini its first Secretary General founded The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance with the main goal of supporting and encouraging research in the economics of risk and insurance At that time research in the field of insurance was still embryonic and insurance was regarded as peripheral social activity When sustained economic growth gained traction the function of insurance gradually emerged as a key contributor to economic development By integrating uncertainty into economic theory and benefiting from the progress of both financial economics and decision theory research developed further in the field of insurance economics and risk management and is now prolific The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance undeniably contributed to this evolution and its impact on research in insurance has largely exceeded what its two founding members could have expected This volume is a special collection of papers celebrating 40 Years of The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance The collection looks back at the storied history of The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance and features papers from some of the esteemed authors who have contributed to the journal in its lifetime This collection of papers highlights just a few of the many themes addressed in the papers published by the journal since it was created Nevertheless the selection exemplifies the richness and variety of topics the field of insurance covers

Controlling Capital Nicholas Dorn,2016-02-12 Controlling Capital examines three pressing issues in financial market regulation the contested status of public regulation the emergence of culture as a proposed modality of market governance and the renewed ascendancy of private regulation In the years immediately following the outbreak of crisis in financial markets public regulation seemed almost to be attaining a position of command the robustness and durability of which is explored here in respect of market conduct European Union capital markets union and US and EU competition policies Subsequently there has been a softening of command and a return to public private co regulation positioned within a narrative on culture The potential and limits of culture as a regulatory resource are unpacked here in respect of occupational and organisational aspects stakeholder connivance and wider political embeddedness Lastly the book looks from both appreciative and critical perspectives at private regulation through financial market associations arbitration of disputes and most controversially market policing by hedge funds Bringing together a distinguished group of international experts this book will be a key text for all those concerned with issues arising at the intersection of financial markets law culture and governance

Advanced Manufacturing William B. Bonvillian,Peter L. Singer,2023-12-05 How to rethink innovation and revitalize America s declining manufacturing sector by encouraging advanced manufacturing bringing innovative technologies into the production process The United States lost almost one third of its manufacturing jobs between 2000 and 2010 As higher paying manufacturing jobs are replaced by lower paying service jobs income inequality has been approaching third world levels In particular between 1990 and 2013 the median income of men without high school diplomas fell by an astonishing 20% between 1990 and 2013 and that of men with high school diplomas or some college fell by a painful 13% Innovation has been left largely to software and IT startups and increasingly U S firms operate on a system of innovate here produce there leaving the manufacturing sector behind In this book William Bonvillian and Peter Singer explore how to rethink innovation and revitalize America s declining manufacturing sector They argue that advanced manufacturing which employs such innovative technologies as 3 D printing advanced material photonics and robotics in the production process is the key Bonvillian and Singer discuss transformative new production paradigms that could drive up efficiency and drive down costs describe the new processes and business models that must accompany them and explore alternative funding methods for startups that must manufacture They examine the varied attitudes of mainstream economics toward manufacturing the post Great Recession policy focus on advanced manufacturing and lessons from the new advanced manufacturing institutes They consider the problem of startup scaleup possible new models for training workers and the role of manufacturing in addressing secular stagnation in innovation growth the middle classes productivity rates and related investment As recent political turmoil shows the stakes could not be higher The Law Times ,1882 State-permeated Capitalism in Large Emerging Economies Andreas Nölke,Tobias ten Brink,Christian May,Simone Claar,2019-08-30 This book systematically analyzes the economic dynamics of large emerging economies from an extended Comparative Capitalisms perspective Coining the phrase state permeated capitalism the authors shift the focus of research from economic policy alone towards the real world of corporate and state behaviour On the basis of four empirical case studies Brazil India China South Africa the main drivers for robust economic growth in these countries from the 2000s until the 2010s are revealed These are found in particular in mutual institutional compatibilities of state permeated capitalism in their large domestic markets and beneficial global economic constellations Differences in their institutional arrangements are explored to explain why China and India have been more economically successful than Brazil and South Africa The authors highlight substantial challenges for the stability of state permeated capitalism and assess the potential future growth sustainability and likely pitfalls for these large emerging economies Opening further avenues for empirical and theoretical research this book raises questions for the future of the global economic order and should appeal to academics graduate students and advanced undergraduates in politics economics economic sociology and development studies It should also prove a worthwhile and provocative read for development practitioners and policy makers The Future of the Professions Richard Susskind,Daniel Susskind,2022-03-31 This book predicts the decline of today s professions and introduces the people and systems that will replace them In an internet enhanced society according to Richard Susskind and Daniel Susskind we will neither need nor want doctors teachers accountants architects the clergy consultants lawyers and many others to work as they did in the 20th century The Future of the Professions explains how increasingly capable technologies from telepresence to artificial intelligence will place the practical expertise of the finest specialists at the fingertips of everyone often at no or low cost and without face to face interaction The authors challenge the grand bargain the arrangement that grants various monopolies to today s professionals They argue that our current professions are antiquated opaque and no longer affordable and that the expertise of their best is enjoyed only by a few In their place they propose five new models for producing and distributing expertise in society The book raises profound policy issues not least about employment they envisage a new generation of open collared workers and about control over online expertise they warn of new gatekeepers in an era when machines become more capable than human beings at most tasks With a new preface exploring recent critical developments this updated edition builds on the authors groundbreaking research into more than a dozen professions Illustrated with numerous examples from each this is the first book to assess and question the relevance of the professions in the 21st century Law, Video Games, Virtual Realities Dale Mitchell,Ashley Pearson,Timothy D. Peters,2023-10-20 This edited volume explores the intersection between the coded realm of the video game and the equally codified space of law through an insightful collection of critical readings. Law is the ultimate multiplayer role playing game. Involving a process of world creation, law presents and codifies the parameters of licit and permitted behaviour, requiring individuals to engage their roles as a legal subject, the player avatar of law, in order to be recognised, perform legal actions, activate rights or fulfil legal duties. Although traditional forms of law, copyright, property, privacy, freedom of expression, externally regulate the permissible content, form, dissemination, rights and behaviours of game designers, publishers and players, this collection examines how players simulate, relate and engage with environments and experiences shaped by legality in the realm of video game space. Featuring critical readings of video games as a means of understanding law and justice, this book contributes to the developing field of cultural legal studies but will also be of interest to other legal theorists, socio-legal scholars and games theorists.
