Transport Justice Karel Martens,2016-07-01 Transport Justice develops a new paradigm for transportation planning based on principles of justice Author Karel Martens starts from the observation that for the last fifty years the focus of transportation planning and policy has been on the performance of the transport system and ways to improve it without much attention being paid to the persons actually using or failing to use that transport system There are far reaching consequences of this approach with some enjoying the fruits of the improvements in the transport system while others have experienced a substantial deterioration in their situation The growing body of academic evidence on the resulting disparities in mobility and accessibility have been paralleled by increasingly vocal calls for policy changes to address the inequities that have developed over time Drawing on philosophies of social justice Transport Justice argues that governments have the fundamental duty of providing virtually every person with adequate transportation and thus of mitigating the social disparities that have been created over the past decades Critical reading for transport planners and students of transportation planning this book develops a new approach to transportation planning that takes people as its starting point and justice as its end

Mining in Latin America Kalowatie Deonandan,Michael L. Dougherty,2016-07-15 The last two decades have witnessed a dramatic expansion and intensification of mineral resource exploitation and development across the global south especially in Latin America This shift has brought mining more visibly into global public debates and spurred a great deal of controversy and conflict This volume assembles new scholarship that provides critical perspectives on these issues The book marshals original empirical work from leading social scientists in a variety of disciplines to address a range of questions about the practices of mining companies on the ground the impacts of mining on host communities and the responses to mining from communities civil society and states The book further explores the global and international causes consequences and innovations of this new era of mining activity in Latin America Key issues include the role of Canadian mining companies and their investment in the region and to a lesser extent the role of Chinese mining capital Several chapters take a regional perspective while others are based on empirical data from specific countries including Bolivia Brazil El Salvador Guatemala and Peru

Analytical Gains of Geopolitical Economy Radhika Desai,2016-01-19 This book paves the way advancing Geopolitical Economy as a new approach to the study of international relations and international political economy Following on from the theoretical limitations exposed in Part I in this volume the analytical limitations are explored Shareholder Cities Sai Balakrishnan, 2019-11-01 Economic corridors ambitious infrastructural development projects that newly liberalizing countries in Asia and Africa are undertaking are dramatically redefining the shape of urbanization Spanning multiple cities and croplands these corridors connect metropolises via high speed superhighways in an effort to make certain strategic regions attractive destinations for private investment As policy makers search for decentralized and market oriented means for the transfer of land from agrarian constituencies to infrastructural promoters and urban developers the reallocation of property control is erupting into volatile land based social conflicts In Shareholder Cities Sai Balakrishnan argues that some of India's most decisive conflicts over its urban future will unfold in the regions along the new economic corridors where electorally strong agrarian propertied classes directly encounter financially powerful incoming urban firms Balakrishnan focuses on the first economic corridor the Mumbai Pune Expressway and the construction of three new cities along it The book derives its title from a current mode of resolving agrarian urban conflicts in which agrarian landowners are being transformed into shareholders in the corridor cities and the distributional implications of these new land transformations Shifting the focus of the study of India's contemporary urbanization away from megacities to these in between corridor regions Balakrishnan explores the production of uneven urban development that unsettles older histories of agrarian capitalism and the emergence of agrarian propertied classes as protagonists in the making of urban real estate markets Shareholder Cities highlights the possibilities for a democratic politics of inclusion in which agrarian urban encounters can create opportunities for previously excluded groups to stake new claims for themselves in the corridor regions CTET Success Master Social Science/Studies Paper-2 for Class 6 to 8 2020 Arihant task however there are no road maps or well developed and widely tested models for community forestry in Canada But in settings where community forests have taken hold there is a rich and growing body of experience to draw on The contributors to Growing Community Forests include leading researchers practitioners Indigenous representatives government representatives local advocates and students who are actively engaged in sharing experiences resources and tools of significance to forest resource communities policy makers and industry

The UK Regional-National Economic Problem Philip McCann,2016-03-10 In recent years the United Kingdom has become a more and more divided society with inequality between the regions as marked as it has ever been In a landmark analysis of the current state of Britain s regional development Philip McCann utilises current statistics examines historical trends and makes pertinent international comparisons to assess the state of the nation The UK Regional National Economic Problem brings attention to the highly centralised top down governance structure that the UK deploys and demonstrates that it is less than ideally placed to rectify these inequalities The North South divide in the UK has never been greater and the rising inequalities are evident in almost all aspects of the economy including productivity incomes employment status and wealth Whilst the traditional economic dominance of London and its hinterland has continued along with relative resilience in the South West of England and Scotland in contrast the Midlands the North of England Northern Ireland and Wales lag behind by most measures of prosperity This inequality is greatly limiting national economic performance and the fact that Britain has a below average standard of living by European and OECD terms has been ignored The UK s economic and governance inequality is unlikely to be fundamentally rebalanced by the current governance and connectivity trends although this definitive study suggests that some areas of improvement are possible if they are well implemented This pivotal analysis is essential reading for postgraduate students in economics and urban studies as well as researchers and policy makers in local and central government
