International Innovation Networks and Knowledge Migration Andreas Pyka, Yeşim Kuştepe, Dominik Hartmann, 2016-07-15 Migration is conceived differently in Europe compared with countries like the US Canada or Australia International Innovation Networks and Knowledge Migration confronts traditional views on migration with modern theories of brain circulation and innovation networks showing that migration leads to mutual benefits for both the home and host countries This new volume brings together several case studies and empirical in depth analyses which are constructed from the strong migration relationship between Turkey and Germany that has existed for more than 50 years Bringing together over 20 international contributors this book highlights that knowledge migration and cultural diversity can strongly stimulate entrepreneurial activities competence acquisition and economic development of countries and regions The authors highlight the considerable scope for improvement of European migration policies in order to be better prepared to successfully process structural changes stemming from an aging society in Europe and an increasing international division of labour This volume is suitable for those who study industrial economics international economics and European economics It is also of interest to those who want to delve deeper into the Turkish German migration nexus

Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow, 2022-09-26 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. Despite the rise of global technocratic ideals of city making, cities around the world are not merging into indistinguishable duplicates of one another. In fact, as the world urbanizes, urban formations remain diverse in their socioeconomic and spatial characteristics with varying potential to foster economic development and social justice. In this book, Tom Goodfellow argues that these differences are primarily rooted in politics and if we continue to view cities as economic and technological projects to be managed rather than terrains of political bargaining and contestation, the quest for better urban futures is doomed to fail. Dominant critical approaches to urban development tend to explain difference with reference to the variegated impacts of neoliberal regulatory institutions. This, however, neglects the multiple ways in which the wider politics of capital accumulation and distribution drive divergent forms of transformation in different urban places. In order to unpack the politics that shapes differential urban development, this book focuses on East Africa as the global urban frontier, the least urbanized but fastest urbanizing region in the world. Drawing on a decade of research spanning three case study countries, Ethiopia, Rwanda, and Uganda, Politics and the Urban Frontier provides the first sustained, book-length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them. Through a focus on infrastructure investment, urban propertyscapes, street-level trading economies, and urban political protest, it offers a multi-scalar, historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world's most dynamic crucible of urban change.

The Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies Anthony M. Orum, 2019-04-15. Provides comprehensive coverage of major topics in urban and regional studies. Under the guidance of Editor in Chief Anthony Orum, this definitive reference work covers central and emergent topics in the field through an examination of urban and regional conditions and variation across the world. It also provides authoritative entries on the main conceptual tools used by anthropologists, sociologists, geographers, and political scientists in the study of cities and regions. Among such concepts are those of place and space, geographical regions, the nature of power and politics in cities, urban culture, and many others. The Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies captures the character of complex urban and regional dynamics across the globe, including timely entries on Latin America, Africa, India, and China. At the same time, it contains illuminating entries on some of the current concepts that seek to grasp the essence of the global world today, such as those of Friedmann and Sassen on global cities. It also includes discussions of recent economic writings on cities and regions, such as those of Richard Florida. Comprised of over 450 entries on the most important topics and from a range of theoretical perspectives, it features authoritative entries on topics ranging from gender and the city to biographical profiles of figures like Frank Lloyd Wright. Takes a global perspective with entries providing coverage of Latin America and Africa, India and China, and the US and Europe. Includes biographies of central figures in urban and regional studies, such as Doreen Massey, Peter Hall, Neil Smith, and Henri Lefebvre. The Wiley

Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies is an indispensable reference for students and researchers in urban and regional studies urban sociology urban geography and urban anthropology Global Developments in Public Infrastructure Procurement Darrin Grimsey, Mervyn K. Lewis, 2017-11-24 There is widespread acceptance of the importance of infrastructure but less agreement about how it should be funded and procured While most public infrastructure is still provided in house or by traditional procurement methods with well researched strengths and weaknesses the development of service concession arrangements has seen a greater emphasis on lifecycle costing risk assessment and asset design as featured in a variety of public private partnership PPP delivery models This book examines the various procurement approaches and provides a framework for comparing their advantages and disadvantages Drawing on international experience it considers some of the best and worst examples of PPPs and infrastructure projects generally along with the lessons for improving infrastructure procurement processes The New Urban Crisis Richard Florida, 2017-08-31 Never before have our cities been as important as they are now The drivers of innovation and growth they are essential to the prosperity of nations But they are also destructive plunging us into housing crises and deepening inequality How can we keep the good and break free of the bad In this bracingly original work of research and analysis leading urbanist Richard Florida explores the roots of this new crisis and puts forward a plan to make this the century of the fairer thriving metropolis

Rethinking the Economics of Land and Housing Josh Ryan-Collins, Toby Lloyd, Laurie Macfarlane, 2017-02-28 Why are house prices in many advanced economies rising faster than incomes Why isn't land and location taught or seen as important in modern economics What is the relationship between the financial system and land In this accessible but provocative guide to the economics of land and housing the authors reveal how many of the key challenges facing modern economies including housing crises financial instability and growing inequalities are intimately tied to the land economy Looking at the ways in which discussions of land have been routinely excluded from both housing policy and economic theory the authors show that in order to tackle these increasingly pressing issues a major rethink by both politicians and economists is required The Power of New Urban Tourism Claudia Ba, Sybille Frank, Claus Müller, Anna Laura Raschke, Kristin Wellner, Annika Zecher, 2021-07-21 The Power of New Urban Tourism explores new forms of tourism in urban areas with their social political cultural architectural and economic implications By investigating various showcases of New Urban Tourism within its social and spatial frames the book offers insights into power relations and connections between tourism and cityscapes in various socio spatial settings around the world Contributors to the volume show how urban space has become a battleground between local residents and visitors with changing perceptions of tourists as co users of public and private urban spaces and as influencers of the local economies This includes different roles of digital platforms as resources for access to the city and touristic opportunities as well as ways to organise and express protest or shifting representations of urban space With contemporary cases from a wide disciplinary spectrum the contributors investigate the power of New

Urban Tourism in Africa Asia the Americas Europe and Oceania This focus allows a cross cultural evaluation of New Urban Tourism and its dynamic and changing conception transforming and subverting cities and tourism alike The Power of New Urban Tourism will be of great interest to academics researchers and students in the fields of cultural studies sociology the political sciences economics history human geography urban design and planning architecture ethnology and anthropology

Deconstituting Museums Helen Graham ,2025-09-10 Over the past 30 years museums have turned to participation in the hope that direct involvement of non museum staff would serve their claims to be accessible inclusive representative and diverse And yet adding participation to museums has often generated conflict disappointment and anger Deconstituting Museums argues that the difficulties produced by adding participatory practice arise from political incompatibility In the representational liberal logics that underpin museum decision making trustees and professionals make decisions on behalf of future generations and the public This is a political infrastructure the book names museum constitution Conversely participation arises from ideas and practices from direct and horizontal political traditions drawing those who act as facilitators into new relationships and expanding political imaginations Through sustained engagement with theories of affect materialism and feminist and decolonial praxis Helen Graham identifies techniques for deconstituting museums She uses experimental writing as a method to turn away from the desire to right institutional wrongs and towards relational and directly negotiated ways of organising In doing so she locates participation not as engagement but as a mode of governance that is enabled by and enables variant political ontologies This is an alternative named participatory worlding The affective work of facilitating participation has long tugged at and frayed museums constitutional liberal logics Deconstituting Museums envisages how participation and its affects might be activated in reworking the politics of heritage The Mining Journal, Railway and Commercial Gazette ,1891 中国矿业报 2023-08-16 中国矿业报,2021-08-31 COVID 19 311 2019 COVID 19 COVID 19 Niall Ferguson Paul Krugman Henry Kissinger Pankaj Mishra Fareed Zakaria 1964 Bloomberg 2021 3 rutkking gmail com peixingliao gmail com warren1_liu hotmail com Protests as Events Ian R Lamond,Karl Spracklen,2014-11-05 Can activism be considered a leisure activity Can the Occupy movement local campaigns for change and lone acts of personal resistance be understood as events Within the field of Events Management the content of events is generally analyzed within three categories culture sport or business Such a typology can be helpful as a heuristic for interpretation and analysis within a commercial paradigm However this framework overlooks and depoliticizes a significant variety of events those more accurately construed as protest Protests as Events is the first book to explore activism as a leisure activity and protests as events using a fresh interpretation of event to develop a new critical politics of events and leisure Bringing together a range of cutting edge research from around the world it explores a variety of protests through the lens of events studies and leisure in order to understand how the study of events management might be conceptualized in the protest space China-EU Relations in a New Era of Global Transformation Li Xing,2021-06-14 This book draws together leading experts to examine the key issues in China EU relations China EU relations are increasingly complex and affected by a number of inter related factors such as China s global rise growing China US strategic competition US global withdrawal the transatlantic split the China Russia comprehensive alliance and Brexit The book highlights the struggles of both China and the EU to look for a dynamic and durable mode of engagement in an attempt to achieve the balance between opportunities and challenges and between partnership and rivalry International contributors explore how to conceptualise China EU relations and identify their differences and commonalities such as the EU s role in China s foreign policy process and how the EU works with China as a strategic partner Finally it analyses China s and the EU s perceptions of their own present and future roles Shedding light on the perspectives of understanding and change in China EU relations and its impact on multilateralism it will appeal to researchers and professionals working in International Relations International Political Economy and area studies who are interested in the rise of emerging powers and the changing world order ERIC Educational Documents Index, 1966-69: Minor descriptors and author index ,1970 Civil Society Engagement Patricia M. Daenzer,2017-09-14 Civil Society Engagement Achieving Better in Canada examines the process and outcomes of a particular series of civil society activism and establishes a conceptual framework through an examination of Canadian politics and societal change Relying on qualitative and ethnographic research document analysis and reviews of policies the contributions focus on social possibilities legal limits and societal roles to illuminate the national asset of human solidarity evident in civil society activism in Canada Patricia Daenzer and her expert contributors challenge the romanticism of the perfected welfare democracy and contend that civil society activism leads to the authentication of democracy The premise is that Canadian political and policy inconsistencies fail to protect some and civil society intervention is essential for the realignment and redefinition of articulated national principles and redistributive outcomes Although Canada is shown ultimately to be guarded in its welfare commitment this guarded progress in welfare democracy would not be possible without the activism of segments of civil society Civil Society Engagement Achieving Better in Canada demystifies civil society activism and urges greater awareness of current social dynamics and involvement in the lives of the most disadvantaged Not only are new immigrants and refugees voicing for inclusion but the very definition of persons with rights has evolved through civil society activism This book will lead to deliberations about state legal frameworks which impact civil society reach the purpose and scope of Canadian politics and the potential of civil society in perfecting our democracy

Halfway Home Reuben Jonathan Miller,2021-02-02 A persuasive and essential Matthew Desmond work that will forever change how we look at life after prison in America through Miller s stunning and deeply painful reckoning with our nation s carceral system Heather Ann Thompson Each year more than half a million Americans are released from prison and join a population of twenty million people who live with a felony record Reuben Miller a chaplain at the Cook County Jail in Chicago and now a sociologist studying mass incarceration spent years alongside prisoners ex prisoners their friends and their families to understand the lifelong burden that even a single arrest can entail What his work revealed is a simple if overlooked truth life after incarceration is its own form of prison The idea that one can serve their debt and return to life as a full fledge member of society is one of America s most nefarious myths Recently released individuals are faced with jobs that are off limits apartments that cannot be occupied and votes that cannot be cast As The Color of Law exposed about our understanding of housing segregation Halfway Home shows that the American justice system was not created to rehabilitate Parole is structured to keep classes of Americans impoverished unstable and disenfranchised long after they ve paid their debt to society Informed by Miller s experience as the son and brother of incarcerated men captures the stories of the men women and communities fighting against a system that is designed for them to fail It is a poignant and eye opening call to arms that reveals how laws rules and regulations extract a tangible cost not only from those working to rebuild their lives but also our democracy As Miller searchingly explores America must acknowledge and value the lives of its formerly imprisoned citizens PEN America 2022 John Kenneth Galbraith Award for Nonfiction Finalist Winner of the 2022 PROSE Award for Excellence in Social Sciences 2022 PROSE Awards Finalist 2022 PROSE Awards Category Winner for Cultural Anthropology and Sociology An NPR Selected 2021 Books We Love As heard on NPR s Fresh Air
